Germany - Federal Republic and West Berlin; Official Standard Names Approved by the U.S. Board on Geographic Names United States. Office of Geography, 1960 Germany - Soviet Zone and East Berlin, Official Standard Names

Approved by the United States Board on Geographic Names United States. Office of Geography, 1959 Germany - Soviet Zone and East Berlin United States. Office of Geography, 1959 Beating the Fascists? Eve Rosenhaft, 1983-08-25 In this book Eve Rosenhaft examines the involvement of Communists in political violence during the years of Hitler's rise to power in Germany 1929-33. Specifically she aims to account for their participation in street fighting or gang fighting with National Socialist storm troopers. The origins of this conflict are examined at two levels. First Dr Rosenhaft analyses the official policy of the Communist Party towards fascism and Nazism and the special anti-fascist and self-defence organizations which it developed. Among the aspects of Communist policy that are explored are the relation between the international confrontation between Communists and Social Democrats as claimants to lead the left and the implications of this dispute in German politics, the ideological difficulties in the implementation of Communist policy in a period of economic dislocation and the organizational problems posed by the fight against fascism. Dr Rosenhaft then explores the attitudes and experience of the Communist rank and file engaged in the struggle against fascism, concentrating on the city of Berlin where a fierce contest for control of the streets was waged. Textbook Reds John Rodden, 2010-11-01 Textbook Reds is a work in the sociology of education and literary sociology and history. Rodden shows that the deepest roots of German Democratic Republic society were indeed located in the institution that molded the youth of its citizens. Federal Register, 1951

Mendelssohn and the Organ Wm. A. Little, 2010-07-01 Mendelssohn and the Organ is the first comprehensive historical critical study in any language to examine the role of the organ in Mendelssohn's personal and professional career. It examines his entire oeuvre for the instrument, including the Berlin Krakow manuscripts and presents for the first time Mendelssohn's complete correspondence with his English publisher Charles Coventry. The City Crown by Bruno Taut Matthew Mindrup, Ulrike Altenmüller-Lewis, 2016-03-09 This book is the first English translation of the German architect Bruno Taut's early twentieth-century anthology Die Stadtkrone The City Crown. Written under the influence of World War I, Taut developed The City Crown to promote a utopian urban concept where people would live in a garden city of apolitical socialism and peaceful collaboration around a single purpose-free crystalline structure. Taut's proposal sought to advance the garden city idea of Ebenezer Howard and rural aesthetic of Camillo Sitte's urban planning schemes by merging them with his own city crown concept. The book also contains contributions by the Expressionist poet Paul Scheerbart, the writer and politician Erich Baron, and the architectural critic Adolf Behne. Although the original German text was republished in 2002, only the title essay of The City Crown has previously been translated into English. This English translation of Taut's full anthology, complete with all illustrations and supplementary texts, fills a significant gap in the literature on early modern architecture in Germany and the history of urban design It includes a translators preface introduction and afterword to accompany the original composition of essays poems designs and images These original texts are accompanied by illustrations of Taut s own designs for a utopian garden city of 300 000 inhabitants and over 40 additional historic and contemporary examples The new preface to The City Crown explains the premise for the English translation of Taut s anthology its organization and the approaches taken by the translators to maintain the four different voices included in the original work Matthew Mindrup s introduction critically examines the professional and intellectual developments leading up to and supporting Bruno Taut s proposal to advance the English garden city concept with a centralized communal structure of glass the city crown Through the careful examination of original Bulletin of International Meteorology United States. Phantom Images Catherine Smale,2013 Ghosts have made an unexpected reappearance in German literature since 1989 Catherine Smale reads this as symptomatic of writers attempts to renegotiate their personal and collective identity in the wake of German reunification Focusing on two major authors from the former GDR Christa Wolf and Irina Liebmann Smale examines the ways in which their work adopts notions of haunting in its creative engagement with the double legacy of Socialism and National Socialism The ghost has long been regarded as a vehicle for making manifest taboo or unauthorized memories However Smale goes further demonstrating how the human subject is destabilized by the return of the phantom and is itself rendered insecure and spectral Drawing on a wide range of theoretical reference from the psychoanalytic concept of intergenerational phantoms to Derridean hauntology Smale s study highlights the particular challenge which Wolf and Liebmann pose to the familiar understanding of how German writers have confronted their country s troublesome past Catherine Smale is Lecturer in German at King s College London Egyptian Topographical Lists Relating to Western Asia , Isaiah Berlin and the Enlightenment L. W. B. Brockliss,Ritchie Robertson,2016 Isaiah Berlin and the Enlightenment explores the development of Berlin s conception of the Enlightenment noting its indebtedness to a specific German intellectual tradition The book examines his comments on individual writers arguing that some assigned to the Counter Enlightenment have closer affinities to the Enlightenment than he recognized The Year-book of Wireless Telegraphy & Telephony ,1921 Includes Literature *The Universal Electrical Directory (J.A.
