Fran Brearton, Alan Gillis, 2012-10-25 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry consists of 40 essays by leading scholars and new researchers in the field Beginning with W B Yeats the figure who towers over the century's poetry it includes chapters on the major poets to have emerged in Ireland over the last 100 years The Art of the Caveman John Mc Donagh, 2016-09-23 The first monograph on the poetry of Paul Durcan this book deals thematically with the dominant concerns evident from his first solo collection O Westport in the Light of Asia Minor published in 1975 up to and including The Days of Surprise published in 2015 His work is marked by an unnerving emotional honesty and a recurring desire to undermine the pomposity of an Ireland struggling under the weight of inherited inconsistencies One of the central arguments here is that Durcan has captured more than any other poet of his generation the complexities and contradictions inherent in Ireland's emergence from the early difficult decades of independence The complex relationship between the public and private in his poetry is also explored as well as the poet's unflinching examination of his deepest personal relationships
