Bermans Lament:

Berman's Lament Mark Kelley, 2000 American Fictions, 1940-1980 Frederick Robert Karl, 1983 This comprehensive critical analysis of American novels of the past four decades interprets and evaluates a wide range of writers and works of what Karl views as the first sustained period of American Modernism Modernist Circumnavigations Kevin Riordan, 2022-05-26 This book shows how Jules Verne's Around the World in Eighty Days changed the global imagination Through his novel the world was converted into a personal itinerary scaled to the individual traveller and by extension to the individual reader Exploring Verne's modern legacy this study shows how subsequent generations of artists and writers took on Around the World in Eighty Days as an adaptable guidebook to the modern world It investigates how Verne's work leads its reader beyond the book itself It considers Verne's place in world literature traces some of the many real reenactments of Verne's itinerary and recalls the theatrical adaptations of Verne's story Published to coincide with the 500th anniversary of the first circumnavigation and the 150th anniversary of Verne's novel this book offers new insights into the largely overlooked influence of Verne on twentieth century literature and culture and on the field of global modernism

Revolting Librarians Redux Katia Roberto, Jessamyn West, 2003-05-21 Revolting librarians aren't defined by what they are they are defined by what they do In fact it's not even what they do but how they do it Katia Roberto and Jessamyn West in the Preface This compilation of witty insightful and readable writings on the various aspects of alternative librarianship edited by two outspoken library professionals is a sequel to Revolting Librarians which was published in 1972 The contributors including Alison Bechdel Sanford Berman and Utne Reader librarian Chris Dodge cover topics that range from library education and librarianship as a profession to the more political and spiritual aspects of librarianship The contributions include critiques of library and information science programs firsthand accounts of work experiences and original fiction poetry and art Ten of the original librarians who wrote essays for Revolting Librarians back in 1972 reflect upon what they wrote thirty years ago and the turns that their lives and careers have taken since Languages of Sentiment Gary B. Palmer, Debra J. Occhi, 1999-12-15 Working from Radcliffe Brown's landmark concept of social sentiments anthropologists and linguists examine pragmatic and cognitive dimensions of emotion language in several societies Introductory and concluding chapters devote special attention to emotional consciousness Chapters cover language primordialism in Tamil Harold Schiffman the erasure of lamentation in Bangla in favor of referential language praxis James Wilce women's discourse in Java that creates dignity by reframing the pain of humiliation Laine Berman speech styles signalling intimacy and remoteness in Japanese Cynthia Dunn divergent conceptions of love in Japanese and translated American romance novels Janet Shibamoto Smith the syntax of emotion mimetics in Japanese Debra Occhi the grammar of emotion metaphors in Tagalog Gary Palmer Heather Bennett and Lester Stacey and the lexical organization of emotions in the English and Spanish of second language learners Howard Grabois Zolt n K vecses with Palmer examines the complementary relationship of social construction theory to the search for universals of emotional experience Series B

The Book of Lamentations Joshua A. Berman,2023-07-27 This volume interprets

Lamentations as a systematic and carefully structured work rather than randomly expressed theological positions Cities and Sexualities Phil Hubbard,2013-03 Detailing the relationships between sexed bodies sexual subjectivities and forms of intimacy Cities and Sexualities explores the role of the city in shaping our sexual lives At the same time it describes how the actions of urban governors city planners the police and judiciary combine to produce cities in which some sexual proclivities and tastes are normalized and others excluded In so doing it maps out the diverse sexual landscapes of the city from spaces of courtship coupling and cohabitation through to sites of adult entertainment prostitution and pornography Considering both the normative geographies of heterosexuality and monogamy as well as urban geographies of radical queer sex this book provides a unique perspective on the relationship between sex and the city A Companion to Psychological

Anthropology Conerly Casey,Robert B. Edgerton,2008-04-15 This Companion provides the first definitive overview of psychocultural anthropology a subject that focuses on cultural psychological and social interrelations across cultures Brings together original essays by leading scholars in the field Offers an in depth exploration of the concepts and topics that have emerged through contemporary ethnographic work and the processes of global change Key issues range from studies of consciousness and time emotion cognition dreaming and memory to the lingering effects of racism and ethnocentrism violence identity and subjectivity Anarchist Studies ,1999 Love in Education & the Art of Living Becky L. Noël

Smith,Randy Hewitt,2020-01-01 It is common for teachers and students of education to feel disheartened about the profession and their own aims and purposes once they become conscious of the dehumanizing tendencies of the schooling institution As teacher educators we have also known many students who after studying critical perspectives aimed at exposing the power and privilege flowing through the public schools then look to us with the question Where s the hope Our attempt to answer our students questions has led us to consider what beauty and love in education look like Where can it be seen and how can we bring this forward so it can be instructive to those who are faced with similar questions about the incredibly important craft of teaching This collection of narratives essays and poetic expressions includes the perspectives of students and educators who in varying ways express gratitude toward those who came before them and a deep desire to keep the faith alive The authors share narrative accounts of someone or something in the public schools or learning experiences in general that inspired and nurtured the passionate desire to achieve goods internal to some shared practice that is some art at living such that there was a transformative readjustment to the very nature of experience itself We share with readers the stories and intellectual habits that have fueled us inspired us and that continue to push us to engage in the practice of cultivating educational dynamics that are meaningful and transformative for ourselves our students and our communities The book concludes with an exploration into how teachers might not only root their craft but the habit of love in general in a sense of freedom

Arizona Politics and Government David R. Berman, 2024 Arizona Politics and Government focuses on the essential characteristics of the Arizona polity In this new edition David R Berman s search for continuity and discontinuity rests on an examination of Arizona s political culture constitutional foundations geographical features and changing social economic political characteristics

New York Christopher Mulvey, John Simons, 1990-08-10 This collection of essays by English and American writers focuses on New York life from the perspectives of several disciplines and life experiences The period covered by the essays stretches from the late 19th century to contemporary New York

Change Processes in Child Psychotherapy Stephen R. Shirk, Robert L. Russell, 1996-08-02 This groundbreaking work advances a developmental perspective on both the basic processes of therapeutic change and the classification of childhood problems offering a novel approach to the search for effective treatments for children Generating a new flow of ideas between clinical practice and empirical research the volume revitalizes basic modalities such as psychodynamic play and cognitive therapies by identifying the core ingredients that enhance and retard the processes of change The authors also demonstrate the limitations of utilizing diagnostic labels as the basis for assessing treatment efficacy arguing instead for an integrative approach that links methods of intervention with a case relevant analysis of the child s emotional interpersonal and cognitive development This book will appeal to clinical and school psychologists psychiatrists social workers and other clinicians working with children as well as researchers in the field It also serves as a text in graduate level courses on child treatment and child psychopathology

Adorno and "A Writing of the Ruins" James Martin Harding, 1997-02-20 Extends critical discussion of Adorno to works by Samuel Beckett T S Eliot Ralph Ellison and Amiri Baraka arguing that Adorno s work can best be assessed in terms of its relevance in specific localized contexts

The Publishers Weekly , Modernism in the Streets Marshall Berman, 2017-04-25 Marshall Berman was one of the great urbanists and Marxist cultural critics of the twentieth and twenty first centuries and his brilliant nearly sui generis book All That Is Solid Melts Into Air is a masterpiece of the literature on modernism But like many New York intellectuals the essay was his characteristic form accommodating his multifarious interests and expressing his protean searching exuberant mind This collection includes early essays from and on the radical 60s on New York City on literary figures from Kafka to Pamuk and late essays on rock hip hop and gentrification Concluding with his last essay completed just before his death in 2013 this book is Berman s intellectual autobiography tracing his career as a thinker through the way he read the signs in the street

Metromarxism Andrew Merrifield, 2013-04-15 Metromarxism discusses Marxism s relationship with the city from the 1850s to the present by way of biographical chapters on figures from the Marxist tradition including Marx Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and David Harvey Each chapter combines interesting biographical anecdotes with an accessible analysis of each individual s contribution to an always transforming Marxist theory of the city He suggests that the interplay between the city as center of economic and social life and its potential for progressive change generated a major corpus of work That work has been key in advancing progressive political and social transformations Temptations of Faust Evelyn Cobley,2002-01-01 A theoretical analysis of the conceptual paradigms that allowed German fascism at once continuous and discontinuous with the emancipatory ambitions of modernity to emerge in a highly civilized nation
