Bernard of Clairvaux Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux), 2004 Two lengthy letters from the abbot of Clairvaux illuminate the transition in theological method in the mid twelfth century In this letter to the bishop of Sens on the responsibilities of his office Bernard articulates his monastic conviction that authority in the Church must be accompanied by contemplative virtues especially a deeply ingrained humility Pastors who do attend to their own spiritual health he explains are incapable of caring for others In his letter of baptism written to Hugh of Saint Victor Bernard seeks to refute what he considered the doctrinal error of an unnamed scholar likely Peter Abelard and assails a theological method he deemed likely to mislead the faithful because as Emero Stiegman says in the Introduction he considered all theological questions in the perspective of God s love These two letter treatises 42 and 77 are not included in Bruno Scott James English translation of The Letters of Saint Bernard of Clairvaux

Pranger, 1994-08-01 The work of Bernard of Clairvaux 1090 1153 consists of mystical highlights moments of stylistic beauty and traditional exegetical discourse In contrast to previous studies this book does not limit itself to the historical and devotional side of Bernard but brings to the fore his stylistic originality Bernard emerges as a flexible thinker a great dramatist and an adroit master of language who combines the fixed pattern of monastic life with the vicissitudes of extra mural events On the one hand Bernard's writings are composed according to the rhythm of the uninterrupted ritual of prayer and singing inside the walls of the monastery. On the other hand, that ritual is interspersed with notions of love and death. The present study describes the literary devices through which Bernard shapes the monastic existence as a subtle blend of liturgical routine and uncontrollable events and emotions.

Thoughts of St. Bernard of Clairvaux for everyday Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux), 1928 Honey and Salt

Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux), 2007-05 Bernard of Clairvaux, the twelfth-century monk who wrote that Jesus is honey in the mouth, melody in the ear, a cry of joy in the heart, was both a mystic and a reformer. His writings reveal a mystical theology that Thomas Merton, a monastic heir to Bernard's Cistercian reform, says explains what it means to be united to God in Christ, but also shows the meaning of the whole economy of our redemption in Christ. Critical of the monastic opulence of his times, Bernard exhorted his monks to consider that salt with hunger is seasoning enough for a man living soberly and wisely. Martin Luther believed that Bernard was the best monk that ever lived, whom I admire beyond all the rest put together. Bernard's zeal and charisma led to the reform of Christian life in medieval Europe. Today it is reported that Pope Benedict XVI keeps Bernard's treatise Advice to a Pope close at hand for spiritual support. Honey and Salt is an original selection for the general reader of Bernard's sermons, treatises, and letters.
