A Contemporary Shavian Manifesto Azeez Jasim Mohammed, 2016-05-11 A Contemporary Shavian Manifesto presents an appraisal of George Bernard Shaw's position on women in his plays The dramatist's unconventional approach itself is praiseworthy as he creates unwomanly women who are deviant and create their own space outside social conventions and practices In creating a counterpoint to the norm Shaw succeeds in creating the image of a new woman who is no longer the angel of the house The book explores the ways in which Shaw addresses gender inequality in society through an examination of women's role in the social religious moral and economic spheres In addition to studying Shaw's exploration of the radical woman this book traces his attempts to project a new woman who is the pursuer rather than being pursued The playwright questions the relegation of woman to the domestic space the arbitrary distribution of duties between men and women and patriarchally determined codes of conduct imposed upon woman His foregrounding of women as the force behind what he calls Creative Evolution achieves a kind of feminisation of the life force the central theme in his plays
