Russell Hewetson,1908 Portrait of a Lady by Bernardino Luini Bernardino Luini,1930* The Sacralization of Space and Behavior in the Early Modern World Jennifer Mara DeSilva,2016-03-09 In the Early Modern period as both reformed and Catholic churches strove to articulate orthodox belief and conduct through texts sermons rituals and images communities grappled frequently with the connection between sacred space and behavior The Sacralization of Space and Behavior in the Early Modern World explores individual and community involvement in the approbation reconfiguration and regulation of sacred spaces and the behavior both animal and human within them The individual s understanding of sacred space and consequently the behavior appropriate within it depended on local need group dynamics and the dissemination of normative expectations While these expectations were defined in a growing body of confessionalizing literature locally and internationally traditional clerical authorities found their decisions contested circumvented or elaborated in order to make room for other stakeholders activities and needs To clearly reveal the efforts of early modern groups to negotiate authority and the transformation of behavior with sacred space this collection presents examples that allow the deconstruction of these tensions and the exploration of the resulting campaigns within sacred space Based on new archival research the eleven chapters in this collection examine diverse aspects of the campaigns to transform Christian behavior within a variety of types of sacred space and through a spectrum of media These essays give voice to the arguments exhortations and accusations that surrounded the activities taking place in early modern sacred space and reveal much about how people made sense of these transformations

In Giuseppe Arcimboldo s most famous paintings grapes fish and even the beaks of birds form human hair A pear stands in for a man s chin Citrus fruits sprout from a tree trunk that doubles as a neck All sorts of natural phenomena come together on canvas and panel to assemble the strange heads and faces that constitute one of Renaissance art s most striking oeuvres The first major study in a generation of the artist behind these remarkable paintings Arcimboldo tells the singular story of their creation Drawing on his thirty five year engagement with the artist Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann begins with an overview of Arcimboldo s life and work exploring the artist s early years in sixteenth century Lombardy his grounding in Leonardesque traditions and his tenure as a Habsburg court portraitist in Vienna and Prague Arcimboldo then trains its focus on the celebrated composite heads approaching them as visual jokes with serious underpinnings images that poetically display pictorial wit while conveying an allegorical message In addition to probing the humanistic literary and philosophical dimensions of these pieces Kaufmann explains that they embody their creator s continuous engagement with nature painting and natural history He reveals in fact that Arcimboldo painted many more nature studies than scholars have realized a finding that significantly deepens current interpretations of the composite heads Demonstrating the previously overlooked importance of these works to natural history and still life painting Arcimboldo finally restores the artist s fantastic visual jokes to their rightful place in the history of both science and art
