Beside The Shadblow Tree A Memoir Of James Laughlin:

Beside the Shadblow Tree Hayden Carruth, 1999 A memoir chronicling the complex friendship between the author and James Laughlin two of this century's most influential literary figures 8 photos      Byways James Laughlin, 2005 The long awaited memoirs of New Directions founder James Laughlin the late founder and publisher of New Directions was also a poet of elegance and distinction At his death in 1997 at the age of eighty three he left unfinished his long autobiographical poem Byways It is no exaggeration to say that his publishing house which he began in 1936 while still an undergraduate at Harvard changed the way Americans read and write serious literature Yet the man who published some of the greatest writers of the twentieth century remained resistant for most of his life to the memoiristic impulse In the end he found his autobiographical voice by adopting the swift moving line of Kenneth Rexroth's booklength philosophical poem The Dragon and the Unicorn 1952 Byways weaves together family history the Laughlins were wealthy Pittsburgh steel magnates the poet's early memories and travels in Europe and America with his playboy father his years at Harvard first meetings with Pound the beginning of his publishing venture his reminiscences of close friendships with writers including W C Williams Thomas Merton and Kenneth Rexroth his postwar work in Europe and Asia with the Ford Foundation as publisher of its international literary magazine Perspectives and not least his many early loves      Toward the Distant Islands Hayden Carruth, 2006 Collects works by American poet Hayden Carruth including lyrics narratives comic meditative and erotic poems and reflections on the natural world      Encyclopedia of American Literature Manly, Inc., 2013-06 Susan Clair Imbarrato Carol Berkin Brett Barney Lisa Paddock Matthew J Brucoli George Parker Anderson Judith S      A Novel Marketplace Evan Brier, 2012-02-25 As television transformed American culture in the 1950s critics feared the influence of this newly pervasive mass medium on the nation's literature While many studies have addressed the rhetorical response of artists and intellectuals to mid twentieth century mass culture the relationship between the emergence of this culture and the production of novels has gone largely unexamined In A Novel Marketplace Evan Brier illuminates the complex ties between postwar mass culture and the making marketing and reception of American fiction Between 1948 when television began its ascendancy and 1959 when Random House became a publicly owned corporation the way American novels were produced and distributed changed considerably Analyzing a range of mid century novels including Paul Bowles's The Sheltering Sky Ray Bradbury's Fahrenheit 451 Sloan Wilson's The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit and Grace Metalious's Peyton Place Brier reveals the specific strategies used to carve out cultural and economic space for the American novel just as it seemed most under threat During this anxious historical moment the book business underwent an improbable expansion by capitalizing on an economic boom and a rising population of educated consumers and by forming institutional alliances with educators and cold warriors to promote reading as both a cultural and political good A Novel Marketplace tells how the book trade and the novelists themselves successfully positioned their works as embattled holdouts against an oppressive mass culture even as publishers formed partnerships with mass culture institutions that foreshadowed the multimedia mergers to come in the 1960s As a foil for and a partner to literary institutions mass media corporations assisted in fostering the novel s development as both culture and commodity The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini,2004 The Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers together 350 essays from over 190 leading scholars on the whole of American literature from European discovery to the present At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets playwrights essayists and novelists Figures such as Whitman Melville Faulkner Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times an assessment of the writer s current reputation a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer Fifty entries on major works such as Moby Dick Song of Myself Walden The Great Gatsby The Waste Land Their Eyes Were Watching God Death of a Salesman and Beloved place the work in its historical context and offer a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach The Encyclopedia also contains essays on literary movements periods and themes pulling together a broad range of information and making connections between them Each entry has its own primary and annotated secondary bibliography and a system of cross references helps readers locate information with ease The Encyclopedia of American Literature is an outstanding reference source for students studying authors or particular pieces of literature libraries looking for one comprehensive source and readers interested in American literature its authors and its connection with various areas of study The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod,Ian Hamilton,2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications,2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who s Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King s Queen s Gold medal and other poetry prizes International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Library Journal ,1999 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Cold War Modernists Greg Barnhisel,2015-02-24 European intellectuals of the 1950s dismissed American culture as nothing more than cowboy movies and the A bomb In response American cultural diplomats tried to show that the United States had something to offer beyond military might and commercial exploitation Through literary magazines traveling art exhibits touring musical shows radio programs book translations and conferences they deployed the revolutionary aesthetics of modernism to prove particularly to the leftists whose Cold War loyalties they hoped to secure that American art and literature were aesthetically rich and culturally significant Yet by repurposing modernism American diplomats and cultural authorities turned the avant garde into the establishment They remade the once revolutionary movement into a content free collection of artistic techniques and styles suitable for middlebrow consumption Cold War Modernists documents how the CIA the State Department and private cultural diplomats transformed modernist art and literature into pro Western propaganda during the first decade of the Cold War Drawing on interviews previously unknown archival materials and the stories of such figures and institutions as William Faulkner Stephen Spender Irving Kristol James Laughlin and Voice of America Barnhisel reveals how the U S government reconfigured modernism as a trans Atlantic movement a joint endeavor between American and European artists with profound implications for the art that followed and for the character of American identity

"Something Urgent I Have to Say to You" Herbert Leibowitz, 2024-05-01 Herbert Leibowitz's Something Urgent I Have to Say to You provides a new perspective on the life and poetry of the doctor poet William Carlos Williams a key American writer who led one of the more eventful literary lives of the twentieth century Friends with most of the contemporary innovators of his era Ezra Pound James Joyce Ford Madox Ford and Louis Zukofsky among others Williams made a radical break with the modernist tradition by seeking to invent an entirely fresh and singularly American poetic whose subject matter derived from the everyday lives of the citizens and poor immigrant communities of northern New Jersey His poems mirrored both the conflicts of his own life and the convulsions that afflicted American society two world wars a rampaging flu pandemic and the Great Depression Leibowitz's biography offers a compelling description of the work that inspired a seminal controversial movement in American verse as well as a rounded portrait of a complicated man pugnacious and kindly ambitious and insecure self critical and imaginative Something Urgent I Have to Say to You is both a long overdue assessment of a major American writer and an entertaining examination of the twentieth century avant garde art and poetry scene with its memorable cast of eccentric pioneers including Marcel Duchamp Man Ray Marianne Moore and Gertrude Stein
