Besieged By Love:

Besieged Leningrad Polina Barskova, 2017-10-15 During the 872 days of the Siege of Leningrad September 1941 to January 1944 the city's inhabitants were surrounded by the military forces of Nazi Germany. They suffered famine, cold, and darkness, and a million people lost their lives, making the siege one of the most destructive in history. Confinement in the besieged city was a traumatic experience. Unlike the victims of the Auschwitz concentration camp, for example, who were brought from afar and robbed of their cultural roots, the victims of the Siege of Leningrad were trapped in the city as it underwent a slow, horrific transformation. They lost everything except their physical location, which was layered with historical, cultural, and personal memory. In Besieged Leningrad, Polina Barskova examines how the city's inhabitants adjusted to their new urban reality, focusing on the emergence of new spatial perceptions that fostered the production of diverse textual and visual representations. The myriad texts that emerged during the siege were varied and exciting, engendered by sometimes sharply conflicting ideological urges and aesthetic sensibilities. In this first study of the cultural and literary representations of spatiality in besieged Leningrad, Barskova examines a wide range of authors with competing views of their difficult relationship with the city, filling a gap in Western knowledge of the culture of the siege. It will appeal to Russian studies specialists as well as those interested in war testimonies and the representation of trauma. Five Scrolls, a

The Complete Concordance to Shakespeare: Being a Verbal Index to All the Passages in the Dramatic Works of the Poet Mary Cowden-Clarke, 1845 Besieged Sharon Alker, Holly Faith Nelson, 2021-01-15 Siege literature has existed since antiquity but has not always been understood as a crucial element of culture. Focusing on its magnetic force, Besieged brings to light its popularity and potency between the British Civil War and the Great Northern War in Europe, a period in which literary texts reflected an urgent interest in siege mentality and tactics. Exploring the siege as represented in canonical works by Milton, Dryden, Defoe, Davenant, Cowley, Cavendish, and Bunyan, alongside a wide array of little-known memoirs, plays, poems, and works of prose fiction on military and civilian experiences of siege warfare, Besieged breaks new ground in the field of early modern war literature. Sharon Alker and Holly Faith Nelson draw on theories of space and place to show how early modern Britons feverishly worked to make sense of the immediacy, horror, and trauma of urban warfare, offering a valuable perspective on the literature that captured the cultural imagination during and after the traumatic civil wars of the 1640s. Alker and Nelson demonstrate how the narratives of besieged cities became a compelling way to engage with the fragility of urban space, unstable social structures, developing technologies, and the inadequacy of old heroic martial models. Given the reality of urban warfare in our own age Besieged provides a timely foundation for understanding the history of such spaces and their cultural representation     The Complete Concordance to Shakspeare Mary Cowden Clarke,1847     The Complete Concordance to Shakspeare Being a Verbal Index to All the Passages in the Dramatic Works of the Poet by Mrs. Cowden Clarke Mary Cowden Clarke,1870     Screening Strangers Yosefa Loshitzky,2010-03-08 Yosefa Loshitzky challenges the utopian notion of a post national New Europe by focusing on the waves of migrants and refugees that some view as a potential threat to European identity a concern heightened by the rhetoric of the war on terror the London Underground bombings and the riots in Paris s banlieues Opening a cinematic window onto this struggle Loshitzky determines patterns in the representation and negotiation of European identity in several European films from the late 20th and early 21st centuries including Bernardo Bertolucci s Besieged Stephen Frears s Dirty Pretty Things Mathieu Kassovitz s La Haine and Michael Winterbottom s In This World Code 46 and The Road to Guantanamo     A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning ,     *Hymen's præludia: or, Love's master-piece. the wider field of Qur'anic scholarship The principal source of analysis is Ibn Ajba's Oceanic Exegesis of the Qur'an which connected theoretical works on the concept of divine love to their practical application a breakthrough in Sufi literature Close analysis of this text is supplemented by a comparative approach focusing on several other eminent Sufi commentaries including those of Ab al-Qasim al-Qushayr and Rabi' al-Baqi Shahrastani This comparative approach situates Ibn Ajba's thought in theological and historical perspective engaging with his mystical approach which integrates his theory of divine love with other Sufi doctrines in an accessible manner This approach it is argued left an indelible impact on future generations of Qur'anic exegetes within North Africa and across the Islamic world The book will prove an important resource for academic researchers who wish to explore the vast intellectual heritage that Ibn Ajba left as well as to those interested in Sufi literature and Islamic theology in general
