Tydeman, 2013-08-26 Known as an advocate for the endangered earth Barry Lopez is one of America s preeminent writers on nature This invigorating book invites readers to sit down with Lopez and his friend William E Tydeman to engage with their conversations about activism the life of the mind and all things literary Even readers who think they know everything there is to know about Lopez will learn much from this richly informative book both from Tydeman s concise biography of Lopez and from the dialogue about Lopez s ideas and experiences The three interviews and Tydeman s reflections on other discussions with Lopez gathered here address nature human beings relationship to the land the tension between political activism and the life of the intellectual memory and reconciliation the artist s social responsibility and the business of authorship What is the nature of the relationship between the writer and the reader Lopez asks It s reciprocal contractual and moral Lopez s thoughts on the importance of authenticity will resonate with every reader or writer as will his deep commitment to story in all his work He and Tydeman engage in illuminating exchanges on style and genre the publication process and relationships among authors editors and publishers Both men are interested in photography and its relationship to writing a subject on which they offer thought provoking comments A comprehensive annotated bibliography of Lopez's writings by archivist Diane Warner rounds out the volume

The Cambridge History of the American Essay Christy Wampole, Jason Childs, 2023-12-14 From the country's beginning essayists in the United States have used their prose to articulate the many ways their individuality has been shaped by the politics social life and culture of this place The Cambridge History of the American Essay offers the fullest account to date of this diverse and complex history From Puritan writings to essays by Indigenous authors from Transcendentalist and Pragmatist texts to Harlem Renaissance essays from New Criticism to New Journalism The story of the American essay is told here beginning in the early eighteenth century and ending with the vibrant heterogeneous scene of contemporary essayistic writing The essay in the US has taken many forms nature writing travel writing the genteel tradition literary criticism hybrid genres such as the essay film and the photo essay Across genres and identities this volume offers a stirring account of American essayism into the twenty first century

The Broken Country Paisley Rekdal, 2017-09-15 The Broken Country uses a violent incident that took place in Salt Lake City Utah in 2012 as a springboard for examining the long term cultural and psychological effects of the Vietnam War To make sense of the shocking and baffling incident in which a young homeless man born in Vietnam stabbed a number of white men purportedly in retribution for the war Paisley Rekdal draws on a remarkable range of material and fashions it into a compelling account of the dislocations suffered by the Vietnamese and also by American born veterans over the past decades She interweaves a narrative about the crime with information collected in interviews historical examination of the arrival of Vietnamese immigrants in the 1970s a critique of portrayals of Vietnam in American popular culture and discussions of the psychological consequences of trauma This work allows us to better understand transgenerational and cultural trauma and advances our still complicated struggle to comprehend the war

Ice And The Inland Hains, Brigid, 2012-11-27 An elegant original and very well written book luminous with meaning full of superb cameos and suggestive arguments the central figures are both charismatic articulate and iconic they are central to any estimation of twentieth century Australian cultural and environmental history Dr Tom Griffiths Australian National University This is a path breaking work the environmental aspect of the work is powerful and there are some wonderful ideas about what is civilised and what is wilderness Brigid Hains has reinvigorated the tradition of frontier studies Dr Jane Carruthers University of South Africa The frontier mythology of the early twentieth century laid the groundwork for the wilderness cult of contemporary Australian life It became etched in the Australian imagination through the image of folk heroes such as Douglas Mawson and John Flynn promising national renewal through virile heroism and an encounter with wild nature Most frontier histories in Australia have focused on race relations this is among the first to focus on the frontier as an ecological phenomenon It draws on rich primary sources many of which have never been published including Antarctic diaries and the letters and journalism of John Flynn In this superb account Brigid Hains offers a new interpretation of two Australian folk heroes and their iconic status in Australian culture a fresh approach to frontier history that focuses on the landscape rather than on racial conflict and an explanation of the origins of wilderness conservation in Australia Mawson's Antarctic exploration and Flynn's Australian Inland Mission both drew on imperial and trans Pacific influences such as imperial adventure literature the cult of polar exploration the rural life movement population theory and eugenics The Ice and the Inland compares these two Australian folk heroes and analyses the reasons for their popularity It raises a number of topical issues including the role of Australia in the international management of Antarctica Flynn's treatment of Aboriginal people the reasons for conservation of Australia's wild places from the arid Centre to the frozen wastes of Antarctica and relationships between the country and the bush and between the metropolis and the frontier

Of Women and the Essay Elizabeth Bowen, Frances Brooke, Margaret Cavendish, Lydia Maria Child, Frances Power Cobbe, Judith Ortiz Cofer, Elizabeth David, Joan Didion, Annie Dillard, Jenny Diski, Gretel Ehrlich, Anne Fadiman, Fanny Fern, M. F. K. Fisher, Margaret Fuller, Katharine Fullerton Gerould, Grace Greenwood, Louise Imogen Guiney, Gail Hamilton, Elizabeth Hardwick, Eliza Haywood, Linda Hogan, Zora Neale Hurston, Jamaica Kincaid, Vernon Lee, Charlotte Lennox, Eliza Lynn Linton, Harriet Martineau, Alice Meynell, Mary Russell Mitford, Lady Mary Wortley Montagu, Kyoko Mori, Elisabeth Woodbridge Morris, Gertrude Bustill Mossell, Judith Sargent Murray, Joyce Carol Oates, Cynthia Ozick, Hester Lynch Thrale Piozzi, Ann Plato, Agnes Repplier, Susan Sontag, Sara Suleri, Alice Walker, Rebecca West, Virginia Woolf, Zitkala-Sa, 2018-11-15 Of Women and the Essay brings together forty six American and British women essayists whose work spans nearly four centuries The contributions of these essayists prove that women have been significant participants in the essay tradition since the genre's modern beginnings in the sixteenth century Many of these essayists such as Eliza Haywood Fanny Fern Gertrude Bustill Mossell Agnes Repplier and Alice Meynell achieved significant success as writers within whatever essay form ruled the day others bent the rules though often imperceptibly to make room for themselves Collectively they represent a missing piece in the larger history of the essay In Of Women and the Essay Jenny Spinner contextualizes the broad range of literary essays included within the chronological development of the genre She makes a compelling argument that women have constructed their own tradition in the essay genre often utilizing periodic traits of the essay to their own advantage At the same time she suggests that the personal essay's demands on the essayist required both a public and personal authorization that proved challenging for women essayists in general and for women of color in particular The appendix catalogs the works of nearly 200 female essayists and should inspire further reading As a whole the volume lifts women writers from the cutting room floor of essay scholarship and returns them to their rightful place in the essay canon

Essayists on the Essay Carl H.

Klaus, Ned Stuckey-French, 2012-03-15 The first historically and internationally comprehensive collection of its kind Essayists on the Essay is a path breaking work that is nothing less than a richly varied sourcebook for anyone interested in the theory practice and art of the essay This unique work includes a selection of fifty distinctive pieces by American Canadian English European and South American essayists from Montaigne to the present many of which have not previously been anthologized or translated as well as a detailed bibliographical and thematic guide to hundreds of additional works about the essay From a buoyant introduction that provides a sweeping historical and analytic overview of essayists thinking about their genre a collective poetics of the essay to the detailed headnotes offering pointed information about both the essayists themselves and the anthologized selections to the richly detailed bibliographic sections Essayists on the Essay is essential to anyone who cares about the form This collection provides teachers scholars essayists and readers with the materials they need to take a fresh look at this important but often overlooked form that has for too long been relegated to the role of service genre used primarily to write about other more literary genres or to teach young people how to write Here in a single celebratory volume are four centuries of commentary and theory reminding us of the essay s storied history its international appeal and its relationship not just with poetry and fiction but also with radio film video and new media The Best American Essays 1996 Geoffrey C. Ward, Robert Atwan, 1996 Selection of twenty two essays by contemporary American prose writers including biographical notes on each author and a list of additional notable essays of 1995 Amitav Ghosh John C.

Hawley, John Charles Hawley, 2005 Contemporary Indian Writers in English CIWE is a series that presents critical commentaries on some of the best known names in the genre With the high visibilty of Indian writing in English in academic critical pedagogic and reader circles there is a perceivable demand for lucid yet rigorous introduction of several of its authors and genres The CIWE texts cater to a wide audience from the student seeking information and critical material on particular works to the general informed reader who might want to know a little more about an author she has just finished reading Cast in a user friendly format and written with a high degree of critical and theoretical rigour the texts in the series will provide astute accessible informed entry points into a wide range of works and writers CIWE we hope will further strengthen the interest in and readership of one of the most significant components of world literatures in English Amitav Ghosh a novelist with an extraordinary sense of history and place is indisputably one of the most important novelists and essayists of our times In this volume John Hawley provides a lucid friendly and thorough introduction to the fiction and essays of Ghosh International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets

Current Biography Yearbook, 1996 H W Wilson, 1996 Homer, Eakins, and Anshutz: The Search for American Identity in the Gilded Age Randall C. Griffin, 2004 Randall Griffin s book examines the ways in which artists and critics sought to construct a new identity for America during the era dubbed the Gilded Age because of its leaders taste for opulence Artists such as Winslow Homer Thomas Eakins and Thomas Anshutz explored alternative American themes and styles but widespread belief in the superiority of European art led them and their audiences to look to the Old World for legitimacy This rich never resolved contradiction between the native and autonomous on the one hand and on the other the European and borrowed serves as the armature of Griffin s innovative look at how and why the world of art became a key site in the American struggle for identity Not only does Griffin trace the interplay of issues of nationalism class and gender in American culture but he also offers insightful readings of key paintings by Eakins and other canonical artists Further Griffin shows that by 1900 the nationalist project in art and criticism had helped open the way for the formulation of American modernism Homer Eakins and Anshutz will be of importance to all those interested in American culture as well as to specialists in art history and art criticism

The American Essay in the American Century Ned Stuckey-French,2011-05-31 In modern culture the essay is often considered an old fashioned unoriginal form of literary styling The word essay brings to mind the uninspired five paragraph theme taught in schools around the country or the antiquated Edwardian meanderings of English gentlemen rattling on about art and old books These connotations exist despite the fact that Americans have been reading and enjoying personal essays in popular magazines for decades engaging with a multitude of ideas through this short form means of expression To defend the essay that misunderstood staple of first year composition courses Ned Stuckey French has written The American Essay in the American Century This book uncovers the buried history of the American personal essay and reveals how it played a significant role in twentieth century cultural history In the early 1900s writers and critics debated the death of the essay claiming it was too traditional to survive the era s growing commercialism labeling it a bastion of British upper class conventions Yet in that period the essay blossomed into a cultural force as a new group of writers composed essays that responded to the concerns of America s expanding cosmopolitan readership These essays would spark the magazine revolution giving a fresh voice to the ascendant middle class of the young century With extensive research and a cultural context Stuckey French describes the many reasons essays grew in appeal and importance for Americans He also explores the rise of E B White considered by many the greatest American essayist of the first half of the twentieth century whose prowess was overshadowed by his success in other fields of writing White s work introduced a new voice creating an American essay that melded seriousness and political resolve with humor and self deprecation This book is one of the first to consider and reflect on the contributions of E B White to the personal essay tradition and American culture more generally The American Essay in the American Century is a compelling highly readable book that illuminates the history of a secretly beloved literary genre A work that will appeal to fiction readers scholars and students alike this book offers fundamental insight into modern American literary history and the intersections of literature culture and class through the personal essay This thoroughly researched volume dismisses once and for all the death of the essay proving that the essay will remain relevant for a very long time to come

Just Beneath My Skin Patricia Foster,2004 Writing about oneself says Patricia Foster engages in truth but depends on the imagination on the life

just beneath the skin a life that's impressionistic and fragile These eleven closely linked personal essays are at once an absorbing chronicle of a life fully undertaken and a model for anyone who has contemplated self investigation through autobiographical writing The book's three sections each convey a stage of Foster's journey still ongoing toward new levels of insight and maturity Inside the Girls Room takes us back to Foster's life in the rural South from the 1950s through the early 1970s Here she reveals the mixed messages and stereotypes of southern womanhood by which she was raised and from which she fled With adulthood Foster moves to Inside the Writing Room a place dotted with discoveries about autobiography as a path to creative expression and inner coherence Finally at the place in her life Foster calls Inside My Skin autobiography helps her to explore and to claim her cultural identity Returning to her native South she holds a writing workshop for a group composed mostly of middle aged black women visits a beloved maid from her childhood and returns to old haunts as a witness to her concerns about race and class This gathering of lyrical essays explores the intelligent intuitive heart of a woman struggling to claim both her identity and her place in the world
