Universal Localities Galin Tihanov, 2022-07-02 The volume features the work of leading scholars from the US UK Germany China Spain and Russia and presents an important contribution to current debates on world literature The contributions discuss various facets of the historically changing role and status of language in the construction of notions of universality and locality of difference foreignness and openness they explore the relationship between world literature and bilingualism supranational languages dialects and linguistic inbetweenness They also examine the larger social and political stakes behind both foundational and more recent attempts to articulate ideas of world literature Mapping the space between philology anthropology and ecohumanities the essays in this volume approach world literature with sophisticated methodological toolkits and open up new opportunities for engaging with this important discursive framework The Best Australian Stories 2004 Frank Moorhouse, 2004 No Marketing Blurb "Kangaroo Court" John Hirst, 2005-05-01 The Family Court was a progressive reform of the 1970s Now it is perhaps the most hated institution in Australia In the Kangaroo Court John Hirst investigates what went wrong This is a measured yet unsparing appraisal which interleaves individual cases with compelling legal and moral argument Hirst takes us deep into the workings of the Court and the domestic apocalypses it sees every day He explores the Court's fervour to uphold the best interests of the child no matter what and traces its chilling consequence a court where malicious allegations regularly go unpunished He notes the Court's enormous power over individual lives as well as its self-proclaimed status as a caring court and wonders at its ability to overlook the defiance of its own authority In closing he considers how to reform an institution that has bred antagonism and extremism and too often entrenched paranoia and despair Lucid and urgent Kangaroo Court is a cautionary tale about the perils of high-mindedness when it comes to dealing with the breakdown of families When Family Court judges talk piously of the caring court I wish they could hear the roar of pain that their piety has caused John Hirst Kangaroo Court This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust from Paul Kelly Paul Bongiorno Mungo MacCallum Natasha Cica Alex Miller and Raimond Gaita Australian Book Review, 2006 Year 5 Basic Skills Tests Alan Horsfield, 2005

The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce, 2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society The Best Australian Essays Black Inc, 2011 Setting the benchmark for the Australian essay the definitive up-to-date collection Each year The Best Australian Essays brings together the most outstanding non-fiction from around the country In 2011 to celebrate a rich decade of writing on all manner of topics Black Inc Long Afternoon of the World Graeme Kinross-Smith, 2007 In mid-life Tim Menzies finds himself surrounded by a sheaf of letters and photographs he has never seen before words and images that completely refigure his past and sense of identity Wartime childhood red farm dust fragile contacts with his children lithe and satisfying strategies of the tennis court new sex and love all must rearrange themselves before his eyes He is not who he has always thought himself to be Australian Literary Studies, 2008 Profile Pieces Sue Joseph, Richard Lance Keeble, 2015-10-14 This book examines the history theory and journalistic practice of profile writing Profiles and the practice of writing them are of increasing interest to scholars of journalism because conflicts between the interviewer and the subject exemplify the changing nature of journalism itself While the subject often through the medium of their press representative struggles to retain control of the interview space the journalist seeks to subvert it This interesting and multi-layered interaction however has rarely been subject to critical scrutiny partly because profiles have traditionally been regarded as public relations exercises or as soft journalism However chapters in this volume reveal not only that profiling has historically taken many different forms but that the idea of the interview as a contested space has applications beyond the subject of celebrated individuals The volume looks at the profile's historical beginnings at the contemporary manufacture of celebrity versus the ordinary at profiling communities countries and movements at profiling the destitute at sporting personalities and finally at profiling and trauma Agog!
