Best and Worst Travels Ramon Carver, 2007-04 Carver writes in a style not unlike Bill Bryson candidly regaling readers with tales of his worst experiences Some of the worst were worse than others as well as the best I enjoyed a great Abercrombie Kent trip to China because it was a great adventure a great itinerary a great tour group with a great tour director great hotels except for a noisy Sheraton in Guilin great weather and great tour management Seven greats out of seven ain't bad He says Great expectations when traveling are usually the source of my greatest disappointments I'm like the guy in a New Yorker cartoon studying a brochure telling his travel agent I am so looking forward to this I can't wait to be disappointed He writes How to Survive Disasters like Theft Accidents etc and at the risk of seeming disingenuously obvious he provides an exhaustive list covering every possible thing that can go wrong Getting Sick Getting Killed Getting Lost etc offering suggestions for solving dilemmas He concludes with Did I fail to mention Getting Bored to Death He describes trips with Yale Exes and travels to Italy China and Romania where he taught English with Global Volunteers

The Best and Worst Country in the World Stephen Adams, 2001 From its earliest days the Virginia landscape has elicited dramatically contradictory descriptions The sixteenth century poet Michael Drayton exalted the land as earth's only paradise while John Smith in his reports to England summarized the area around Jamestown as a miserie a ruine a death a hell Drawing upon both familiar history and lesser known material from deep geological time through the end of the seventeenth century Stephen Adams focuses on both the physical changes to the land over time and the changes in the way people viewed Virginia The Best and Worst Country in the World reaches well beyond previous accounts of early American views of the land with the inclusion of fascinating and important pre 1700 sources Native American perceptions and prehuman geography and geology A blend of history literature geology geography and natural history enriched by illustrations ranging from a dinosaur footprint to John Smith's famous Map of Virginia Adams's work offers an ecocritical exploration of the varied preconceptions that have shaped and colored the human relationship with the best and worst country in the world the early Virginia landscape

Good Humor, Bad Taste Giseline Kuipers, 2011-12-22 Good Humor Bad Taste is the first extensive sociological study of the relationship between humor and social background Using a combination of interview materials survey data and historical materials the book explores the relationship between humor and gender age regional background and especially humor and social class in the Netherlands The final chapter focuses on national differences exploring the differences between the American and the Dutch sense of humor again using a combination of interview and survey materials The starting point for this exploration of differences in sense of humor is one specific humorous genre the joke The joke is not a very prestigious genre in the Netherlands even less so than in the US It is precisely this lack of status that made it a good starting point for asking questions about humor and taste Interviewees generally had very pronounced opinions about the genre calling jokes their favorite kind humor but also completely devoid of humor and a form of intellectual poverty Good Humor Bad Taste attempts to explain why jokes are good humor to some bad taste to others The focus on this one genre enables Good Humor Bad Taste to have a very wide scope The book not only covers the appreciation and evaluation of jokes by different social groups and in different cultures and its relationship with wider humor styles It also describes the genre itself the history of the genre its decline in status from the sixteenth century onward and the way the topics and the tone of jokes have changed over the last fifty years of the twentieth century
