Indigenous People, Race Relations and Australian Sport Christopher J. Hallinan, Barry Judd, 2016-05-06 The Indigenous peoples of Australia have a proud history of participation and the achievement of excellence in Australian sports Historically Australian sports have provided a rare and important social context in which Indigenous Australians could engage with and participate in non Indigenous society Today Indigenous Australian people in sports continue to provide important points of reference around which national public dialogue about racial and cultural relations in Australia takes place Yet much media coverage surrounding these issues and almost all academic interest concerning Indigenous people and Australian sports is constructed from non Indigenous perspectives With a few notable exceptions the racial and cultural implications of Australian sports as viewed from an Indigenous Australian Studies perspective remains understudied The media coverage and academic discussion of Indigenous people and Australian sports is largely constructed within the context of Anglo Australian nationalist discourse and becomes most emphasised when reporting on aspects of racial and cultural explanations of Indigenous sporting excellence and failures associated anomalous behaviour This book investigates the many ways that Indigenous Australians have engaged with Australian sports and the racial and cultural readings that have been associated with these engagements Questions concerning the importance that sports play in constructions of Australian indigeneities and the extent to which these have been maintained as marginal to Australian national identity are the central critical themes of this book This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society Sport, Literature, Society Alexis Tadié, J.A. Mangan, Supriya Chaudhuri, 2016-04-08 Sport studies and sports history have witnessed a recent substantial increase in publications However the relationship between literature and sport has been little explored Sport Literature Society looks at a wide variety of case studies ranging from Japan to England from India to Australia and covers sports as diverse as cycling football wrestling and boxing It concentrates on historical perspectives The contributors are all academics of international reputation and include historians of sport and literary scholars Literature may shape our perceptions and reactions to sport as much as sport may inform our reading As mimetic practice as aesthetic object as imaginative release sport is analogous to literature and the other arts at the same time it can become the subject of literary visual or musical elaborations Literature often conceptualises the place and role of sport in culture and society Indeed sport inhabits literature in ways that have not been adequately studied Sport studies have investigated the relationships between sport and society education gender nation and class To look again at these relationships through the prism of literature enables us to change our focus and to assess the centrality of sport in culture This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport

Rabbit Syndrome Don Watson,2001-12-01 In the fourth Quarterly Essay Don Watson takes an analytical look at the ways in which the Australian imagination has always been dominated by America Why are they so much better than we are Even when it comes to producing books like the Updike Rabbit sequence that tell us what we are like Why are they also a land of executioners who have nevertheless created the least bad empire the world has seen Can we really expect to be deputies to America And what about our own sacred story the progressive one that we have sold for the sake of the Americanisation of our own society If we can t have a friendly independent relationship with America why don t we go the whole hog and join them In a dark brooding moody essay Don Watson plays on the paradoxes of Australia s feeling about America and offers a scathing view of an Australian culture that is asking to be engulfed by its great and powerful friend because the mental process is already so advanced This is a brilliant meditation round a set of paradoxes that are central to our long term anxieties and hopes this is a Quarterly Essay that plays on our most fundamental fears including the most terrifying of all that we shall cease to exist because we have never been Peter Craven Introduction The Australian story does not work anymore or not well enough to hang the modern story on The most useful thing is to recognise that we took the biggest step we have ever taken towards the American social model And this has profound implications for how we think of Australia and how we make it cohere Don Watson Rabbit Syndrome Larrikins Melissa Bellanta, 2012 A gripping and inspiring space adventure for kids of all ages from popular author Tristan Bancks Dash Campbell has only ever had one dream To go to space Now he and four others have been given the chance to become the first kids ever to leave our planet From building rockets behind his family s laundromat in Australia to attending a hardcore Space School in the US Dash is a long way from home And he still has an intense month of training ahead before he can even think about that glorious moment of blasting out of Earth's atmosphere and living his dream But does Dash have what it takes t Australian Book Review .2002 Boxing in Australia Grantlee Kieza, 2015-10-01 This book looks at boxing in Australia from early European settlement to the present day Packed with stories you can read about the first recorded fight the racially charged match between a white and a black man the travelling boxing shows the Indigenous champions including Lionel Rose women boxers and modern day winners such as Jeff Fenech Anthony Mundine and Kostya Tszyu It is full of fabulous images text boxes with additional snippets of information and profile boxes with vital statistics for key boxers Australian Literary Studies ,2003 Quarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust Raimond Gaita, 2004-12-01 In the fourth Quarterly Essay of 2004 Raimond Gaita confronts essential questions about politics as it is practised today What do politicians mean when they talk about trust Why is truthfulness important Are we as politically and morally divided as the Americans Does the war on terror authorise leaders to do things that once were considered beyond the pale Gaita argues for a conception of politics in which morality is not an optional extra He discusses why successful politicians must at times be economical with the truth but shows a way beyond cynicism on the one hand and moralising on the other Politics he says is conceivably a noble vocation as well as potentially a tragic one He looks closely at patriotism and its distortions and the temptation to betray our deepest values in the act of protecting ourselves Combining gentle evocation with gloves off argument Breach of Trust is a clarion call from one of Australia's leading thinkers I have never met anyone who believes that politicians should never lie But of course there

In closing he considers how to reform an institution that has bred antagonism and extremism and too often entrenched paranoia and despair Lucid and urgent Kangaroo Court is a cautionary tale about the perils of high mindedness when it comes to dealing with the breakdown of families When Family Court judges talk piously of the caring court I wish they could hear the roar of pain that their piety has caused John Hirst Kangaroo Court This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust from Paul Kelly Paul Bongiorno Mungo MacCallum Natasha Cica Alex Miller and Raimond Gaita Australia's Sporting Success John Bloomfield,2003 The extraordinary performances of Australian athletes and the awareness of the system that fostered them came to the world's attention during the Sydney Olympic Games in 2000 Bloomfield traces the development of Australian sport from the early 19th century to the modern day institutions that drive our sporting success Who's who of Australian Writers, 1995 NCAA-AAU Dispute, Hearings...89-1, August 16-20, 23-27, 1965 United States.
