Shaw, 2020-04-15 Many women who lived through the Second World War believed it heralded new status and opportunities but scholars have argued that very little changed How can these interpretations be reconciled Making the Best of It examines the ways in which gender and other identities intersected to shape the experiences of female Canadians and Newfoundlanders during the war The contributors to this thoughtful collection consider mainstream and minority populations girls and women and different parts of Canada and Newfoundland They reassess topics such as women in the military and in munitions factories and tackle entirely new subjects such as wartime girlhood in Quebec Collectively these essays broaden the scope of what we know about the changes the war wrought in the lives of Canadian women and girls and address wider debates about memory historiography and feminism

The Second Ben Wicks Treasury Ben Wicks, 1987 Canadian Books in Print, 2000 The Second World War Ian Roberts, Brian Moses, 2013-10-18 This book will support children as they find out about wartime phrases and use them to write a dialogue Write a letter home from a P O W camp Read wartime adverts and slogans and decide how effective they are Yazoo Albert Talmon Morgan, 1884 Just a Larger Family Mary F. Williamson, Tom Sharp, 2011-05-15 The Second World War had been under way for a year when Marie and John Williamson welcomed two English brothers to join them and their two children in their small house in north Toronto for the duration of the conflict Marie wrote over 150 letters to the boys mother Margaret Sharp imagining that she could make Margaret feel she was still with her children She shepherded the boys through education decisions and illnesses eased them into a strange new life and rejoiced when they embraced unfamiliar winter sports The letters brim with detail about family holidays the financial implications of an extended family their involvement in their church and the games and activities that kept them occupied Marie's letters reflect the lives and concerns of a particular family in Toronto but they also reveal a portrait of what was then Canada's second largest city during wartime The introduction is by Mary F Williamson Marie's daughter and Tom Sharp Margaret's youngest son The book features a foreword by Jonathan Vance that puts the letters in historical context The Best of Frank Michael Bate,1993 Southern Belly John T.
