Benson, 2013 He skipped his senior year at college to go to Europe where he was befriended by a Countess was kept a prisoner in a castle by a mad Count and almost met Mussolini close enough to land him in an Italian jail Wright Morris returned to the States and went on to become probably the most experimental American novelist of the last century He ended up with almost every award and prize that a novelist can earn and his work was praised over and over again by many of our most prestigious critics In addition to publishing thirty four books he was also an eminent photographer He not only had his work shown in numerous museums and galleries around the country but his photographs were also displayed throughout five photo text books a form that he pioneered back cover The Culture and Commerce of the American Short Story Andrew Levy, 1993-09-24 The Culture and Commerce of the Short Story is a cultural and historical account of the birth and development of the American short story from the time of Poe It describes how America through political movements changes in education magazine editorial policy and the work of certain individuals built the short story as an image of itself and continues to use the genre as a locale within the realm of art where American political ideals can be rehearsed debated and turned into literary forms While the focus of this book is cultural individual authors such as Edgar Allan Poe and Edith Wharton are examined as representative of the phenomenon As part of its project this book also contains a history of creative writing and the workshop dating back a century Andrew Levy makes a strong case for the centrality of the short story as a form of art in American life and provides an explanation for the genre's resurgence and ongoing success International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2014-10-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero. Like the society it mirrors, it is now a far richer, many-faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society, racially, culturally, and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious. Ten women writing fiction in America today: Toni Cade Bambara, Joan Didion, Louise Erdrich, Gail Godwin, Mary Gordon, Alison Lurie, Joyce Carol Oates, Jayne Anne Phillips, Susan Fromberg Schaeffer, and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic, ethnic, and racial diversity that is distinctively American. Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen, Didion's sun-baked dreamers and screamers, the urban ethnics, Irish, Jewish, and black of Gordon, Schaeffer, and Bambara, Oates's small-town, often violent neurotics, Lurie's intellectual sophisticates, and the southern survivors and victims, male and female, of Phillips, Settle, and Godwin. The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity, memory, family, and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers. The fictional women who emerge here, as these critics show, are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory, perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping, find identity elusive and frustrating, and experience the interweaving of silence, solitude, and family in complex patterns. Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike. Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are.

The 20th Century A-GI Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history. This is not a who's who. Instead, each entry provides an in-depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned. Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements. The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context, and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history. All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography. The Best American Short Stories, 1985, 1985 Short Story Index, 1989 Southernmost Art and Literary Portraits Jimm Roberts, 2005 A landmark late twentieth-century pictorial archive that beautifully chronicles in illuminating detail fifty important American artists and writers in place: Edward Albee, John Chamberlain, Annie Dillard, John Hersey, Carl Hiaasen, Elmore Leonard, Roy Lichtenstein, Alison Lurie, William Manchester, James Merrill, John D. MacDonald, James A. Michener, Jules Olitski, Robert Rauschenberg, Larry Rivers, James Rosenquist, Isaac B. Singer, and Joy Williams among others. Book jacket. John Updike's Early Years Jack De Bellis, 2013-01-11 John Updike's Early Years first examines his family, then places him in the context of the Depression and World War II. Relying upon interviews with former classmates, the next chapters examine Updike's early life and leisure activities, his athletic ability, social leadership, intellectual prowess, comical pranks, and his experience with girls. Two chapters explore Updike's cartooning and drawing, and the last chapter explains how he modeled his characters on his schoolmates Lists of Updike's works treating Pennsylvania and a compilation of contributions to his school paper are included along with profiles of all students faculty and administrators during his years at Shillington High School Early '70s Radio Kim Simpson,2011-07-21 Providing a fresh reevaluation of a specific era in popular music the book contextualizes the era in terms of both radio history and cultural analysis The Fictions of Language and the Languages of Fiction Monika Fludernik,2003-12-16 Monika Fludernik presents a detailed analysis of free indirect discourse as it relates to narrative theory and the crucial problematic of how speech and thought are represented in fiction Building on the insights of Ann Banfield's Unspeakable Sentences Fludernik radically extends Banfield's model to accommodate evidence from conversational narrative non-fictional prose and literary works from Chaucer to the present Fludernik's model subsumes earlier insights into the forms and functions of quotation and aligns them with discourse strategies observable in the oral language Drawing on a vast range of literature she provides an invaluable resource for researchers in the field and introduces English readers to extensive work on the subject in German as well as comparing the free indirect discourse features of German French and English This study effectively repositions the whole area between literature and linguistics opening up a new set of questions in narrative theory Short Story Theories ,2015-06-29 Short Story Theories A Twenty First Century Perspective problematizes different aspects of the renewal and development of the short story The aim of this collection is to explore the most recent theoretical issues raised by the short story as a genre and to offer theoretical and practical perspectives on the form Centering as it does on specific authors and on the wider implications of short story poetics this collection presents a new series of essays that both reinterpret canonical writers of the genre and advance new critical insights on the most recent trends and contemporary authors Theorizations about genre reflect on different aspects of the short story from a multiplicity of perspectives and take the form of historical and aesthetic considerations gender centered accounts and examinations that attend to reader response theory cognitive patterns sociolinguistics discourse analysis postcolonial studies postmodern techniques and contemporary uses of minimalist forms Looking ahead this collection traces the evolution of the short story from Chaucer through the Romantic writings of Poe to the postmodern developments and into the twenty first century This volume will prove of interest to scholars and graduate students working in the fields of the short story and of literature in general In addition the readability and analytical transparency of these essays make them accessible to a more general readership interested in fiction The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel,2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature
