Best Australian Sports Writing 2004:

Quarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust Raimond Gaita, 2004-12-01 In the fourth Quarterly Essay of 2004 Raimond Gaita confronts essential questions about politics as it is practised today What do politicians mean when they talk about trust Why is truthfulness important Are we as politically and morally divided as the Americans Does the war on terror authorise leaders to do things that once were considered beyond the pale Gaita argues for a conception of politics in which morality is not an optional extra He discusses why successful politicians must at times be economical with the truth but shows a way beyond cynicism on the one hand and moralising on the other Politics he says is conceivably a noble vocation as well as potentially a tragic one He looks closely at patriotism and its distortions and the temptation to betray our deepest values in the act of protecting ourselves Combining gentle evocation with gloves off argument Breach of Trust is a clarion call from one of Australia's leading thinkers I have never met anyone who believes that politicians should never lie But of course there are limits They are not set in the heavens but in culture Raimond Gaita Breach Of Trust Mongrel Punts and Hard Ball Gets Paula Hunt, 2012 Disasters That Changed Australia Richard Evans, 2009-10-01 Australian history is full of disasters Some are natural but many more are man made results of individual or collective stupidity reckless decisions or greed In Disasters that Changed Australia Richard Evans nominates the worst disasters in an engrossing insightful account of what happened and why Picture British General Douglas Haig through sheer arrogance and determination sending thousands of Australian men into swampy disease ridden enemy territory for no strategic gain Or a feral legion of rabbits let loose on the environment turning furry friends into an uncontrollable plague Including Cyclone Tracy Black Friday the Snowy Mountains Scheme and the destruction of megafauna thousands of years ago these are just many of debacles that have defined Australia Richard Evans goes beneath the familiar stories and myths and urges us to rethink how we respond to disasters to avoid making the same mistakes again "Kangaroo Court" John Hirst, 2005-05-01 The Family Court was a progressive reform of the 1970s Now it is perhaps the most hated institution in Australia In the Kangaroo Court John Hirst investigates what went wrong This is a measured yet unsparing appraisal which interleaves individual cases with compelling legal and moral argument Hirst takes us deep into the workings of the Court and the domestic apocalypses it sees every day He explores the Court's fervour to uphold the best interests of the child no matter what and traces its chilling consequence a court where malicious allegations regularly go unpunished He notes the Court's enormous power over individual lives as well as its self proclaimed status as a caring court and wonders at its ability to overlook the defiance of its own authority In closing he considers how to reform an institution that has bred antagonism and extremism and too often entrenched paranoia and despair Lucid and urgent Kangaroo Court is a cautionary tale about the perils of high mindedness when it comes to dealing with the breakdown of families When Family Court judges talk piously of the caring court I wish they could hear the roar of pain that their piety has caused John Hirst Kangaroo Court This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly

Heaphy, Mel Anthony May, 2016-03-15 Women have been involved in baseball from the game's early days in a wide range of capacities This ambitious encyclopedia provides information on women players managers teams leagues and issues since the mid 19th century Players are listed by maiden name with married name when known in parentheses Information provided includes birth date death date team dates of play career statistics and brief biographical notes when available Related entries are noted for easy cross reference Appendices include the rosters of the World War II era All American Girls Professional Baseball League teams the standings and championships from the AAGPBL and all women's baseball teams and players identified to date Profile Pieces Sue Joseph, Richard Lance Keeble, 2015-10-14 This book examines the history theory and journalistic practice of profile writing Profiles and the practice of writing them are of increasing interest to scholars of journalism because conflicts between the interviewer and the subject exemplify the changing nature of journalism itself While the subject often through the medium of their press representative struggles to retain control of the interview space the journalist seeks to subvert it This interesting and multi layered interaction however has rarely been subject to critical scrutiny partly because profiles have traditionally been regarded as public relations exercises or as soft journalism However chapters in this volume reveal not only that profiling has historically taken many different forms but that the idea of the interview as a contested space has applications beyond the subject of celebrated individuals The volume looks at the profile's historical beginnings at the contemporary manufacture of celebrity versus the ordinary at profiling communities countries and movements at profiling the destitute at sporting personalities and finally at profiling and trauma The Poetic Eye: Occasional Writings 1982-2012 Michael Sharkey, 2016-11-07 This volume contains a selection of the Australian poet Michael Sharkey's uncollected essays and occasional writings on poetics and poets chiefly Australian and New Zealand Reviews and conversations with other poets highlight Sharkey's concern with preserving and interrogating cultural memory and his engagement with the practice and championing of poetry Poets discussed range from Lord Byron to colonial era and early twentieth century poets Francis Adams David McKee Wright and Zora Cross under represented Australian women poets of World War I traditionalists and experimentalists including several New Australian Poetry activists of the 1970s and contemporary Australian and New Zealand poets Writings on poetics address form and tradition the teaching and reception of poetry and canon formation The collection is culled from commissioned and occasional contributions to anthologies of practical poetics journals devoted to literary and cultural history and book reviewing as well as newspaper and small magazine features from the 1980s to the present The writing reflects Sharkey's poetic practice and pedagogy relating to the teaching of literature rhetorical analysis cultural studies and writing in
