Best Christian Writing 2000:

Where All Hope Lies James R. Van Tholen, 2003 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable Where All Hope Lies presents fifty six select sermons by James Van Tholen a gifted young pastor who lost his battle with cancer in January 2001 at the age of thirty six Though Jim's untimely death gives a certain poignancy to this volume these sermons are far from dark or despairing Van Tholen's conversational style thought provoking insights into Scripture and frequent interaction with such writers as Flannery O Connor Frederick Buechner Kathleen Norris and others make these sermons truly enjoyable as well as profitable to read Through them all there runs a sense of concentrating on what really matters trusting in God no matter what suffering or difficulties might come our way Indeed as demonstrated by the book s title sermon first published in Chrisitanity Today as Surprised by Death more than anything Van Tholen preached the grace and goodness of God Including a foreword by Neal Plantinga and a closing reflection on the man behind the sermons by Jim's wife Rachel Where All Hope Lies offers gracious powerful uplifting words for believers throughout the church year Spiritual Perspectives on America's Role as a Superpower Editors at SkyLight Paths Publishing, 2013-09-13 Are we the world s good neighbor or a global bully This timely book provides us with an opportunity to pause and reflect on what may be the most pressing issue of our day What are America's global responsibilities as the only remaining superpower What should we be doing with our resources energy talent and strength What shouldn t we be doing Those of us who live with spiritual convictions or who worship in religious communities sometimes have the opportunity to hear from the pulpit from the bima in the prayer hall in the zendo or elsewhere what one spiritual leader believes on these issues This book is for those of us who want a variety of opinions for those of us who want to understand the issues more deeply and make up our own minds from the Introduction Spiritual Perspectives on America's Role as Superpowerinvites you to explore these essential questions with sixteen of today s most profound religious and spiritual teachers Coming from a wide variety of faiths including Protestant Catholic Muslim Jewish Buddhist Vedantist and interfaith traditions this intriguing volume s contributors bring a crucial point of view to the already intense national debate centering on America's place in the world that of spirituality An invaluable resource for those wishing to better understand varied spiritual viewpoints on America's role as superpower these thought provoking original essays provide a lucid introduction to the historical moral and theological aspects of this controversial The Best Christian Writing 2000 John Wilson, 2000-08-22 In the inaugural volume of this important annual series issue editor John Wilson brings together an elegant and engaging array of essays by contemporary Christian luminaries These distinguished writers distill the riches of Christian belief into lucid explorations of faith and truth offering diverse works that reflect the many dimensions of Christianity as it moves into its third millennium A thought provoking introduction by Philip Yancey author of the bestselling The Jesus I Never Knew Harvey Cox s pointed depiction of The Market as God Alasdair Macintyre on morality and desire in The Recovery of Moral Agency Religion and the Shape of National Culture Robert Bellah s surprising inquiry into the sacramental imagination Eugene Peterson s Wise Teachers Sound Teaching a gentle instruction on healthy thinking and believing Dallas Willard on Jesus intellectual power in Jesus the Logician A Cold Day in December Frederica Mathewes Green's lyrical reflection on God as suffering parent A tale of grace and guidance from Larry Woiwode The Feel of Internal Bleeding Offering testimony and prayer debate and benediction The Best Christian Writing 2000 is a revealing and inspiring look at religious faith in the modern world Tradition and the Rule of Faith in the Early Church Alexander Y. Hwang, 2010 The meaning of tradition is broad It can refer to the deposit of faith or the Apostolic Tradition to Scripture as the most perfect expression of what is handed over from Christ or to the disciplinary and liturgical practices of the Church It can also refer more broadly to those theological and doctrinal teachings inherited by one generation of ecclesiastical writers and passed on to another generation of theological heirs. The Fathers themselves were always acutely aware of the traditions they stood within and especially of their relation to the Apostolic Tradition Tradition and the rule of faith are particularly apt themes for this collection of studies The essays are written in honor of Joseph T Lienhard S J renowned American patristic scholar whose research and writings have focused on this particular theme The volume brings together some of the most prominent scholars from the U S and abroad specializing in different areas of patristic studies to address tradition and the rule of faith ABOUT THE EDITORS Ronnie J Rombs is assistant professor of theology at the University of Dallas He is the author of St Augustine and the Fall of the Soul and coeditor of Exodus Leviticus Numbers and Deuteronomy Alexander Y Hwang is assistant professor of historical theology at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary and author of Intrepid Lover of Perfect Grace The Life and Thought of Prosper of Aquitaine CONTRIBUTORS Jonathan J Armstrong D Jeffrey Bingham J Patout Burns Brian E Daley S J Everett Ferguson Alexander Y Hwang Joseph F Kelly Thomas F Martin O S A Sara Parvis Ronnie J Rombs Thomas Scheck A Edward Siecienski Kelley McCarthy Spoerl Kenneth B Steinhauser Roland J Teske S J Frederick Van Fleteren Confronting Religious Judgmentalism Catherine M. Wallace, 2016-05-23 Come to church or go to hell That's religious bullying It's judgmentalism And it's a theological distortion a distortion insisting that shame and self loathing are morally appropriate In Christian humanist tradition God is not some cosmic judge eager to smite all of us for our sinfulness God is compassion. We are cherished by God beyond our wildest imagining We are called to radical hospitality not to crass judgmentalism So where does this religious judgmentalism come from It is the heritage of medieval theocracy a violent vindictive God of command and control was far more useful politically than a God of compassion hospitality and forgiveness It comes from literal minded misreading of the story of Adam and Eve and the forbidden fruit a story about shame not disobedience And it comes from political success in exploiting deep seated liabilities in the American soul we spend our lives trying to prove ourselves a hopeless task There's an alternative In the Christian humanist tradition authentic moral judgment is rooted in conscience as a creative process Morality is an art demanding both rigorous consideration of the facts and thoughtful introspection Conscience properly understood and thoughtfully practiced is an antidote to shame incessant self criticism and chronic self doubt embed container position relative padding bottom 56 25% height 0 overflow hidden max width 100% embed container iframe embed container object embed container embed position absolute top 0 left 0 width 100% height 100% The Challenges of Capitalism for Virtue Ethics and the Common Good Kleio Akrivou, Alejo José G. Sison, 2016-08-26 The evolution of modern capitalist society is increasingly being marked by an undeniable and consistent tension between pure economic and ethical ways of valuing and acting This book is a collaborative and cross disciplinary contribution that challenges the assumptions of capitalist business and society It ultimately reflects on how to restore benevolence collaboration wisdom and various forms of virtuous deliberation amongst all those who take part in the common good drawing inspiration from European history and continental philosophical traditions on virtue Footsteps of the Fisherman Scott Walker, 2003-08-28 Focusing on New Testament stories about the Apostle Peter Walker asks How does Peter's predicament apply to my life What can I learn through Peter's experience that will make me a better Christian disciple Girl Meets God Lauren F. Confronting Religious Violence Catherine M. Wallace, 2016-03-28 Confronting Religious Violence Christian Humanism and the Moral Imagination tells the tale of Christian theocracy in the West Who converted whom was never entirely clear the empire did stop feeding people to the lions for public entertainment but Christianity was theologically corrupted by its official role in legitimating empire as usual That theological corruption led to crusades inquisitions torture and so forth And it leaves us with a major question is God violent More dangerously yet is violence our only option in response to wrongdoing Are we morally obligated to injure those who have injured others to kill those who have killed others If theocracy is a terrible idea what is the proper relationship between church and state We can t say that the state is never morally accountable at all Furthermore despite constitutional separation of church and state hard right Christian fundamentalism continues to play a culturally significant role in advocating military action abroad and supporting state violence at home There is a lot at stake in reclaiming the systematic nonviolence and moral imagination of Jesus of Nazareth TPT The Book of Romans Brian Simmons, 2021-01-05 The book of Romans was written to communicate God's message of grace and glory to all of his believers Live in the truths found in Romans and discover the heavenly treasures of faith grace righteousness and power This 12 lesson study guide on the book of Romans provides a unique and welcoming opportunity to immerse yourself in God s precious Word as expressed in The Passion Translation Begin your journey with a thorough introduction that details the authorship of Romans date of composition first recipients setting purpose central message and key themes Each lesson then walks you through a portion from the book and includes features such as notable verses historical and cultural background information definitions of words and language cross references to other books of the Bible maps and character portraits of figures from the Bible and church history Enrich your biblical understanding of the book of Romans experience God's love for you and share his heart with others Renovation of the Heart Dallas Willard, 2021-11 Renovation of the Heart is an influential contribution from the late Dallas Willard that continues to break ground twenty years after its first release Helping us to understand how character is formed and where Jesus does his most significant work on our spiritual and emotional health this book changed a generation s mind about what it means to follow Jesus not a matter of sin management but a matter of drawing near and letting ourselves be shaped into the eternal people of God With reflections on the book s impact over its life from family friends and admirers of Dallas and supplemental resources for the first time in print Renovation of the Heart will continue its ministry of liberation by formation for years to come Includes a foreword by John Mark Comer and an afterword by Natasha Sistrunk Robinson Christian Writers' Market Guide 2005 Sally Stuart, 2005-01-11 Now updated for 2009 comes one of the most comprehensive marketing resources for Christian writers with information on agents editors publisher guidelines specialty markets and more Black Scholars in White Space Anthony B. Bradley, 2015-01-19 Never before in American history have we seen the number of African Americans teaching at Christian Colleges as we see today Black Scholars in White Space highlights the recent research and scholarly contributions to various academic disciplines by some of America's history making African American scholars working in Christian Higher Education Many are the first African Americans or only African Americans teaching at their respective institutions Moreover never before have this many African American female scholars in Christian Higher Education had their research presented in a single cross disciplinary volume The scholars in this book spanning the humanities and social sciences examine the issues in public policy church state relations health care women s issues in higher education theological anthropology affirmative action and black history that need to be addressed in America as we move forward in the 21st century For these reasons and more Black Scholars in White Space offers timely and historic contributions to the discourse about making the black community a place where men and women thrive and make contributions to the common good Making Life Work Barney Hamady, 2010-02 It s no secret that on so many levels our world is getting worked And so are we So who or what is working you difficult circumstances difficult people or some unbreakable bad habit Are you getting worked by fear poor health family or financial problems The fact is everyone gets worked And if you re not getting worked right now it s a good bet someone you love is Feel like blaming your surroundings In the beginning God placed Adam and Eve in a beautiful garden and told them to work it Instead in their perfect world they got worked by the serpent by the Garden and yes even by their own choices The Art of Pastoring David Hansen, 2012-09-27 Leading us well beyond the niceties of self help literature Montana pastor David Hansen pulls back the veil on the actual pastorate the one that emerges without your permission in the midst of life and ministry In this revised and expanded edition Hansen expands on his view of the pastor as a parable of Jesus and adds a new postlude Education, Politics and Religion James Arthur, Liam Gearon, Alan Sears, 2010-06-28 In recent years a number of popular books have savaged religion arguing it is a dangerous delusion that poisons human societies and relationships This is but the most recent manifestation of a secularising agenda that has been sweeping contemporary democratic societies since the Enlightenment This book pushes back against that agenda examining its key assumptions and arguing that the exclusion of religious people and ideas from education and the public square is both undemocratic and unwise For the most part the book draws arguments and examples from Christianity the religious tradition of the authors but it recognises that many religions share the concerns and possibilities examined The book examines contemporary expressions of the secularising agenda in Western democracies with particular focus on how that is played out in education It demonstrates how republican theory understood within a faith perspective provides a shared understanding and substantive basis for education within a Western democracy It explores the historical connections and disconnections between religion and civic life in the West from ancient to contemporary times and examines religiously based civic action and pedagogical approaches contending both have the potential to contribute greatly to democracy It will be of value to any who are interested in exploring how democracies can include the voices of all their citizens the religious and the secular This Side of Heaven Robert J.
