The Perfect Song Donna J. Bosn, 2012-01-24 Legends are said to be those individuals who soar above the limitations of the average human experience These special souls leave eternal footprints in the hearts of even the casual observer and their message remains timeless History books are full of stories about these remarkable people While some of these dynamic leaders affect only their generation others are birthed for the purposes of eternity Arthur Lee Crume Sr is such a man Arthur is the owner manager and longest active member of the widely acclaimed Soul Stirrers Gospel Quartet Historians herald this group as the greatest quartet in the history of gospel music Arthurs musical talents catapulted and held him at the top of his field for several decades Although he enjoyed all the attention and accolades he received he had one serious problem Arthur did not have a personal relationship with the God he was singing about All the notoriety and fame stroked his already inflated ego and caused him to become even more self absorbed His poor choices and fleshly appetites scarred the lives of those who loved him the most leaving broken hearts littered along lifes highway But God who is rich in mercy never gave up on Arthur promise Xoxo Cassie Walking Hand in Hand with Cameron, Together We Can! Becki Enck Mph, Becki Enck, 2008-07

Walking Hand in Hand with Cameron Together We Can shares the Enck family's journey into the world of special needs parenting. Travel with them as they share the feelings they felt as they learned of Cameron's brain damage and their struggles to obtain therapies for Cameron despite obstacles from their HMO. Understand why the Encks have now made it their mission to educate medical professionals on how to deliver a diagnosis with care and compassion. Also learn why the Encks are committed to educating people to see Cameron for who he is, not what condition he has. This book is a culmination of Becki's four-year-long personal journey of finding her life's purpose out of one of the hardest, most painful yet most personally rewarding and enriching experiences of her life. As you read this book, you will understand why the statement Dr. Shah spoke to the Encks the evening he delivered the news that Cameron had suffered extensive brain damage, "The day you say Cameron will never do something he never will has become their life philosophy." He then became a ward of the Memphis Tennessee Juvenile Court System. As a child, he lived in a number of institutional settings: foster group and children's homes, shelters, and detention facilities. In the ninth and tenth grades, he attended predominantly black schools and lived at a children's shelter. During this time of his life, while he was not a minority, he lived as one. At the age of sixteen, his Aunt Mary McNeill became his legal guardian, which kept him from being sent to a reform school. Duane and his Aunt Mary lived in Gulfport, Mississippi. Duane attended Gulfport High School and played on the football team as a center. His senior year of high school, the team was undefeated and won the state championship. Duane attended Mississippi State University on a football scholarship. He played on the offensive line and spent one year as a graduate assistant coach. He graduated with a degree in social work and a certificate in corrections. Duane spent thirty-two years in law enforcement. Most of Duane's law enforcement career was with the Austin Police Department in Austin, Texas. This book is about his life's journey from being an orphan to becoming a police officer. The book was written with thanks to others in law enforcement with hopes that they too one day will share their experiences with others in an effort to be sources of encouragement to each other.
