Hollywood or History? Scott L. Roberts, Charles J. Elfer, 2024-10-01 In response to the limitations associated with teaching through film we sought to develop practical lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms One of the more interesting sources of visual media many authors in the previous volumes elected to use as the focus of their lesson plans were cartoons These lesson plans have been some of the more popular in the series and are often easier to adapt for a variety of grade levels In conducting research for this volume we learned that cartoons are an often used media sources in the classroom They have similar strengths and weaknesses in not only the teaching of history but other social studies disciplines as well While in many cases their intended audience is younger children people of all ages enjoy cartoons This makes them useful for teaching students at all grade levels as well as adults as there will be immediate buy in if used as a source of analysis for inquiry based lessons As with live action film we believe cartoons can also serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and if appropriately utilized can foster critical thinking and civic mindedness The College Career and Civic Life C3 framework adopted by the National Council for the Social Studies in 2013 represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking reading and writing The C3 is comprehensive and ambitious Moreover we believe that as teachers endeavor to digest and implement the platform in schools and classrooms across the country the desire for access to structured strategies that lead to more active and rigorous investigation in the social studies classroom will grow increasingly acute Our hope is that the present volume might play a small role in the larger Hollywood or History project of supporting practitioners specifically teachers of preK 12 social studies disciplines by offering a collection of 19 classroom ready lesson designed to foster social studies inquiry through the careful use of selected cartoons

Making Connections in Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Andrew P. Johnson, 2006 Making Connections in Elementary and Middle School Social Studies is based on the idea that students learn more and are more motivated to learn when they are able to connect their own knowledge observations ideas imagination and emotions with the content at hand This book demonstrates how personal connections can be incorporated into social studies education while meeting NCSS thematic pedagogical and disciplinary standards It is written in a very direct reader friendly style Each chapter describes a variety of practical strategies and creative activities that novice and experienced teachers can use to make social studies more interesting and to help students make meaningful personal and academic connections Each chapter contains a wealth of classroom strategies pedagogical techniques activities and lesson plan ideas that can be used to enhance learning and make lessons more interesting active and student centered The book covers the three types of standards that elementary and middle school teachers work with as they teach social studies o Thinking Ahead questions invite the reader to reflect on his her own experiences as they relate to the material covered in the next chapter These can be used as discussion points for a class or small group or simply as pre reading prompts to enhance comprehension o Teachers in Action boxes contain real life narratives from practicing teachers These cases are designed to expand upon key issues presented in each chapter Every case is accompanied by the author s personal reflection on the case These reflections are intended to give the reader an opinion against which he she can measure his her own reactions After each case the reader is prompted to think about the narrative presented and think about the way that his her reactions compare with those presented by the author o Go There boxes provide links to Web sites that offer additional resources for teachers lesson plans and other activities to enhance a social studies classroom This text is accompanied by a dynamic Instructor s Resources CD The CD includes classroom video footage that can be shown in class to illustrate the concepts presented in the book and stimulate class discussion
