Heavy Metal Music, Texts, and Nationhood Catherine Hoad, 2021-10-25 This book addresses how whiteness is represented in heavy metal scenes and practices both as a site of academic inquiry and force of cultural significance The author argues that whiteness and more specifically white masculinity has been given normative value which obscures the contributions of women and people of colour and affirms the exclusory understandings of belonging which have featured in the metal scenes of Norway South Africa and Australia Utilizing critical discourse analysis and critical textual analysis of musical texts promotional material and participant based observation ethnographies it explores how the texts discourses and practices produced and articulated by metal scene members and scholars alike have presented heavy metal as a white masculine pastime yet also considers the vital work done by scene members to confront expressions of exclusory misogyny and racism when they emerge in metal scenes The book will be of interest to researchers and scholars in the fields of metal music studies leisure studies sociology of culture and sociology of racism New Netherland Roots

Gwenn F. Epperson,1994 The purpose of this book is to show the researcher how to trace a 17th century New Netherland ancestor back to his place of origin in Europe Mrs Epperson demonstrates that without leaving the United States and without speaking or reading a foreign language the researcher in using such records as exist at the LDS Family History Library and family history centers throughout the United States can successfully trace his New Netherland ancestry all on his own
