Bering Bridge The Sovietamerican Expedition From Siberia To Alaska:

Bering Bridge Paul Schurke, 1989 High adventure in this account of a group of Russians and Americans some of whom were Eskimos and their Arctic expedition from Siberia to Alaska      The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies for 1994 Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 1997-05-31 This text provides a source of citations to North American scholarships relating specifically to the area of Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union It indexes fields of scholarship such as the humanities arts technology and life sciences and all kinds of scholarship such as PhDs      Into Russian Nature Alan D. Roe, 2020 National parks are perhaps the most recognized environmental protection institution in the world and have long attracted the interest of historians This is the first academic work on Russian national parks It spans from the years before the Great October Revolution to the present and examines movements to establish national parks from European Russia to Siberia and the Far East It is a story of grandiose visions in which Russian environmentalists conceived of ways to alter the state's relationship to nature and of demoralizing disappointment when the lofty ambitions of different park visionaries fell far short of their hopes      Melting the Ice Curtain David Ramseur, 2017-06-15 Just five years after a Soviet missile blew a civilian airliner out of the sky over the North Pacific an Alaska Airlines jet braved Cold War tensions to fly into tomorrow Crossing the Bering Strait between Alaska and the Russian Far East the 1988 Friendship Flight reunited Native peoples of common languages and cultures for the first time in four decades It and other dramatic efforts to thaw what was known as the Ice Curtain launched a thirty year era of perilous yet prolific progress Melting the Ice Curtain tells the story of how inspiration courage and persistence by citizen diplomats bridged a widening gap in superpower relations David Ramseur was a first hand witness to the danger and political intrigue having flown on that first Friendship Flight and having spent thirty years behind the scenes with some of Alaska's highest officials As Alaska celebrates the 150th anniversary of its purchase and as diplomatic ties with Russia become perilous Melting the Ice Curtain shows that history might hold the best lessons for restoring diplomacy between nuclear neighbors      Distant Fires Scott Anderson, Details the adventure of two men who canoed 1700 miles from Duluth Minnesota to the shores of Hudson Bay and discusses their battle with mosquitoes their struggle with a tent that doesn't stay up in the wind and their diet of macaroni and cheese for countless breakfasts

Women in the Antarctic Esther D. Rothblum, Jacqueline S. Weinstock, Jessica Morris, 1998 In Women in the Antarctic you'll discover how the world's social and scientific communities know much more about the Antarctic because of the female navy personnel reporters pilots and expedition leaders who have challenged and tamed its icy snowswept domain

Walking through the Wall Kevin James Shay, 2012-04-16 A journalist from Texas Shay walked for peace from Dallas to Moscow in 1984-85 A Walk of the People and about 600 miles in India in 1987-88 Walking Through the Wall is his account of these walks When in 1984 the nuclear arms race intensified nuclear arms increasing on both sides and leaders seemingly intransigent Shay and others joined together in A Walk of the People to raise awareness of the nuclear danger and to break through the governments walls His journey s urgent purpose and the stories he tells of individual and official breakthroughs during the march call us today to join the struggle to avert nuclear war Danish Peace Academy review

Pursuing a Native Movement in a Russian Space Patty Anne Gray,1998

Humans in Space Nick Kanas,2015-06-09 Awarded the 2016 International Academy of Astronautics Life Science Book Award Using anecdotal reports from astronauts and cosmonauts and the results from studies conducted in space analog environments on Earth and in the actual space environment this book broadly reviews the various psychosocial issues that affect space travelers Unlike other books that are more technical in format this text is targeted for the general public With the advent of space tourism and the increasing involvement of private enterprise in space there is now a need to explore the impact of space missions on the human psyche and on the interpersonal relationships of the crewmembers Separate chapters of the book deal with psychosocial stressors in space and in space analog environments psychological psychiatric interpersonal and cultural issues pertaining to space missions positive growth enhancing aspects of space travel the crew ground interaction space tourism countermeasures for dealing with space and unique aspects of a trip to Mars the outer solar system and interstellar travel

Behavioral Health and Human Interactions in Space Nick Kanas,2023-02-02 This textbook covers the range of psychological and interpersonal issues that can affect astronauts living and working in space It deals with the three major risk areas cited by NASA s Behavioral Health and Performance Element Behavioral Medicine Team Risk and Sleep Risk Based on the author s more than 50 years of experience in space related activities writing conducting research and teaching undergraduate and graduate courses the book follows a comprehensive range of topics that include cognitive effects psychiatric issues cultural influences salutogenic and positive aspects of space travel autonomy and delayed communication current plans to return to the Moon and Mars analysis of study environments such as the polar regions submersible habitats and space simulation facilities and more It draws on research literature and case studies from the 1950s onward showing readers in a natural and accessible way how the field has progressed over time The book contains ample end of chapter summaries and exercises as well as a complete glossary of key terms As such it will serve students taking courses in aerospace psychology psychiatry sociology human factors medicine and related social sciences in addition to space industry professionals and others interested in the complexities of people living and working in space

Arctic Medical Research ,1988

Space Psychology and Psychiatry Nick Kanas,Dietrich Manzey,2003 This text deals with psychological psychiatric and psychosocial issues that affect people who live and work in space Rather than focusng on anecdotal reports and ground based simulation studies it emphasizes the findings from psychological research conducted during actual space missions readable text has previously been found only in scientific journal articles Topics that are discussed include behavioral adaptation to space human performance and cognitive effects crewmember interactions psychiatric responses psychological counter measures related to habitability factors work design selection training and in flight monitoring and support and the impact of expeditionary missions to Mars and beyond universities medical students and residents in psychiatry and aerospace medicine human factors workers in space and aviation professions individuals involved with isolated environments on Earth for example the Antarctic submarines aerospace workers in businesses and space agencies such as NASA and ESA and anyone who is interested in learning the facts about the human side of long duration space missions North Pole Tenderfoot Doug Hall,2010-06 Why would Doug Hall follow in Robert Peary's 1909 sled tracks to the North Pole despite the grueling terrain and temperatures between 15 and 62 degrees below zero His goal was to resurrect the spirit of Peary's journey in a world increasingly driven by instant gratification short term business focus and lack of sustained dedication to great causes Peary succeeded where some 578 expeditions before him had failed North Pole Tenderfoot is Doug's attempt to let the reader experience what is possible when one does what Peary did think big You Want To Go Where? Jeff

Blumenfeld,2009-06-17 Christopher Columbus needed a sponsor for a dangerous expedition but the King of Portugal wasn't interested He repackaged his proposal for the Queen of Spain She put Columbus on retainer and the rest is history Columbus may not have been the first to discover America but he had a great publicist That's where Jeff Blumenfeld comes in For many years using a PR specialty called adventure marketing Jeff has connected explorers and their projects with corporate sponsors looking to demonstrate product performance in extreme conditions His book takes the reader from Erik Weihenmayer's expedition to be the first blind man to summit Mt Everest to the first confirmed dogsled expedition of the North Pole to Audrey Mestre's deadly free dive expedition off Bayahibe Beach in the Dominican Republic You Want To Go Where is the only book that not only takes you behind the scenes of some of the most dangerous adventure expeditions in recent years but shows how you can fund and arrange your own trip including details on everything from grants to sponsorships For anyone who's ever had a dream to scale the tallest mountain or cross the largest ocean You Want To Go Where is ideal for armchair explorers and budding adventurers alike Development of the Russian North John Hannigan,1992 A bibliography of materials on the Russian North covering the areas of history economic development aboriginal peoples environmental and international relations Monuments and Historic Places of America ,2000 Bring history to life with this collection of profiles of famous people places and historical events Articles are selected with the curriculum in mind and feature a variety of learning aids such as a two colour design and sidebars Alaska AA.
