[With Plates.]* Basil Henry JOHNSON (Writer on Topography.), 1952      Nature and Society in Historical Context Mikulas Teich, Roy Porter, Bo Gustafsson, 1997-02-13 A collection of essays describing the historical connection between nature and society      The History of London: Illustrated by Views in London and Westminster W.G. Fearnside, Th Harral, Thomas Harral, 1850      The History of London, Illustrated by Views in London and Westminster, Engraved by J. Wood. Edited by W. G. F. and (in Continuation) by T. Harral William Gray FEARNSIDE, 1838      'The Common Purposes of Life' Frank A.J.L. James, 2017-07-05 For more than two hundred years the Royal Institution has been at the centre of scientific research and has provided a cultural location for science in Britain Within its walls some of the major scientific figures of the last two centuries such as Humphry Davy Michael Faraday John Tyndall James Dewar Lord Rayleigh William Henry Bragg Henry Dale Eric Rideal William Lawrence Bragg and George Porter carried out much of their research with discoveries from sodium to x ray crystallography The success of the Royal Institution in research and in locating science within general culture led it to being used as a model for other institutions most notably by the founders of the Smithsonian Institution in Washington Much has been written about the scientific work in the Royal Institution but much less about the cultural settings which allowed it to become such a major site for the creation of scientific knowledge The purpose of this book is to examine these aspects of its history      Dr Johnson's Friend and Robert Adam's Client Topham Beauclerk David Noy, 2016-05-11 Dr Johnson said that he would walk to the ends of the earth to save Beauclerk Other people who claimed to be his friends rejoiced at his early death How did the beautiful youth of Francis Coates 1756 portrait become a man whose greatest claim to fame was causing an infestation of lice at Blenheim Palace through lack of personal hygiene A great grandson of Charles II and Nell Gwyn he lived a privileged life thanks to fortuitously inherited wealth He employed Robert Adam to build him a house at Muswell Hill which has almost completely disappeared from the records of Adam's work due to a dispute about the bill He was one of the leading book collectors of the time with a library of 30 000 volumes whose sale after his death was a major literary event He also used his wealth to indulge interests in science and astronomy and a passion for gambling As a result he ran through his inheritance as quickly as he could sell it falling into ever increasing debt as his lawyer grew richer Beauclerk knew all the leading figures of the British and French Enlightenment He was a friend of Johnson Adam Smith David Hume Horace Walpole Sir Joshua Reynolds John Wilkes and David Garrick He met Rousseau and Voltaire and immersed himself in French salon culture He could charm people when he chose to but did not always try Recently he has been overshadowed by his wife Lady Diana Spencer whose life by Carola Hicks Improper Pursuits 2001 has made her artistic talent and unconventional life well known The story of their adultery and marriage has not previously been told from Beauclerk's point of view and many other inaccuracies have crept into authoritative works such as the ODNB he is regularly and unfairly dismissed as a bad husband This biography shows that he was much more than the close associate of Johnson known from the pages of Boswell a man of widely varied interests from the Grand Tour to the contemporary theatre who lived Enlightenment life to the full in a way which would not have been possible a generation earlier or later Based on research in unpublished letters legal documents and financial records including some concerning the Adam house as well as published diaries letters and memoirs it shows that he may have left no enduring legacy of his many talents as even his friends admitted but he made the most of all the opportunities available and lived a fascinating life which illuminates every aspect of Georgian elite society from auctions to zoology from care of one s wig to building an observatory and from mishaps in Venice to sea therapy in Brighton
