HOW TO DOMINATE MEN, SUBJUGATE WOMEN AND STUPEFY CHILDREN

How to Become a Genius

Clasp the Master's eye to go fast

Perfection of the artist as an unborn genius of the age of six with a penetrating gaze in his eye

Unhappiness is the wellspring of creativity

A young man came to see me the other day. He said, "Maestro, how do you become a great artist?" He was a mere youth just starting out in life. I looked him up and down and pondered whether to reveal to him the verity or not. After all, I have always held my own gross accused, for it has been to me what the shirt of Nessus was to Hercules... diabolical and nefarious. "Young Everyday I wrestle with the angst that threatens to overthrow me. I am locked in mortal combat with my grief. And it is here, in the white heat of this mighty conflagration, the Bernadine poetry is created. Show me a happy artist and I will show you a mediocre talent. Was Da Vinci happy? Or Michelangelo or Van Gough? No! The unhappiest ones are the greatest artist ones.

Bernadinism Alva Bernadine, 2001-01 Bernadine's photographic world is way out incredible funny at times disturbing at others Its compositional strength and color intensity always constitute a visual happening or as Alva Bernadine himself puts it I take the theatricality of surrealism the elegance of classical haute couture photography the narrative of reportage and the refinements of advertising photography and mix them all into a Bernadinian cocktail a radical photographic synthesis Bernadine's photographs can be read at two levels on the surface a feast for the eyes below that a wealth of sublime ironic sometimes provocative allusion After the initial shock maybe even the first burst of laughter the spectator discovers the photographs narrative quality unfolding between careful mise en scene and surreal exaggeration Latex clad women in their fitted kitchens female bodies with two lower or upper torsos these are stories from the subculture of male fantasy defused somewhat by self mocking exaggeration and surreal form though without losing anything of their provocative and pugnacious quality The British Journal of Photography ,2001 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991
