The Limburg Sermons: Preaching in the Medieval Low Countries at the Turn of the Fourteenth Century Wybren Scheepma, 2008-08-31 For a long time it was thought that there were no Middle Dutch sermons dating from the thirteenth century It was only after J P Gumbert had redated the manuscript from The Hague containing the Limburg Sermons that its contents could be assigned to that century Most of the Limburg Sermons appear to be translations of the Middle High German St Georgen sermons But sixteen of these texts are known only in Middle Dutch and among these is to be found material drawn from the works of Hadewijch and Beatrijs van Nazareth Thus the Limburg Sermons emerge to take their place in the famous tradition of Brabantine mysticism

Bernard of Clairvaux on the Spirituality of Relationship John R. Sommerfeldt, 2004 This study argues that Bernard impacted Europe politically ecclesiastically and spiritually because his own life embodied so many of the ideals and values of his age some of which had not crystallized until his coming Bernard saw the Church as the sum of all those pursuing however feebly the path to perfection For him Noah Daniel and Job signified the three orders of church and society prelates monks and laypeople His enthusiasm for church and society was matched by his confidence that people throughout Europe could respond positively to God's invitation to perfection and thus could reach the goal of happiness no matter the social order to which they belonged or the pilgrim's path they followed
