Marjorie Deans, 1946 Success in the Cinema MoneyMaking Movies John Howard Reid, 2006-06-01 Basically there are three measures of success in the cinema First off are pictures like The Crowd and Applause that achieve rave reviews and even go on to win awards but don t recover their negative costs Then there are the movies the critics hate but the public enjoys All three versions of Back Street for instance Finally come the pictures everyone loves like From Here To Eternity or Sunset Boulevard In the annals of success in Hollywood s Golden Age one name stands out above all others Cecil B DeMille His famous pictures reviewed here include both versions of The Buccaneer The Crusades Sign of the Cross The Story of Dr Wassell and Union Pacific But the book also notes a DeMille B movie that tied up a fair amount of money but proved so unpopular it was released in some territories as a support The book also covers some of Hollywood s other disastrous failures including the M G M movie that cost over 4 million to make and returned virtually nothing Meeting at the Sphinx : Gabriel Pascal's Production of Bernard Shaw's Caesar and Cleopatra Deans, Marjorie, 1946 Shaw and History Gale K. Larson, 1999 This special issue of Shaw offers ten articles that focus on the theme of Shaw and History That focus illuminates Shaw s concept of history as art and its uses for dramatic purposes It is a focus that is broadly applied to the historical perspective Views range from Shaw s uses of historical sources in the Shavianizing of history his uses of historical geographical and political places and events in his work to views that place selected Shavian works within a historical context Stanley Weintraub discusses Shaw s references to

Cetewayo Zulu chieftain in Cashel Byron's Profession as the first incorporation of a contemporary historical figure into his work John Allett explores the liberal socialist and radical feminist views of prostitution in nineteenth century England and demonstrates how those political views are developed within the unfolding action of Mrs Warren's Profession Sidney P Albert studies the Utopian movement The Garden City to determine the extent to which that movement influenced Shaw's conception of Perivale St Andres in Major Barbara He also narrates his personal attempt to identify the Ballycorus smelting works and its surroundings as well as the campanile or Folly at Faringdon as sites that provided the scenic sources for Perivale St Andres in Major Barbara Gale K Larson has edited a partially unpublished Shavian manuscript that addresses Shaw's relationship with Frank Harris and among other matters sets the historical record right as to who deserves the credit for attributing the identity of the Dark Lady of the Sonnets to Mary Fitton He also examines the historical sources that influenced Shaw's views on Charles II the Merry Monarch in In Good King Charles's Golden Days and demonstrates Shaw's reclamation of yet another historical figure from the traditional historians David Gunby examines the first night performance of O'Flaherty V.C. for purposes of setting the historical record straight as to the facts of that production Wendi Chen presents the stage history of the production of Mrs Warren's Profession in China during the early 1920s and argues its central role in shaping modern Chinese drama Rodelle Weintraub assesses Too True to Be Good as a dream play within the context of the nightmarish times of World War I Michael M.O. Hara surveys the Federal Theatre's productions of Androcles and the Lion in the 1930s to reveal the political and religious repressions that those productions underscore Shaw 19 also includes three reviews of recent additions to Shavian scholarship as well as John R. Meeting at the Sphinx Marjorie Deans, 1940 Authors and Adaptation Annie Nissen, 2024-04-25 This book studies British literary writers' engagement with adaptations of their work across literary theatrical and film media in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. It considers their critical, reflective, and autobiographical writings about the process of adaptation and traces how their work was shaped as well as delimited by their involvement with adaptations to different media and intermedial writing. Linking canonical and non-canonical writers both chronologically and contemporaneously and bridging studies of prose fiction adaptation from nineteenth century theatre to early twentieth century film, this book offers an interdisciplinary transhistorical cultural and analytical study of adaptation and the variable positions of writers within and across media

Enchanted Evenings : The Broadway Musical from Show Boat to Sondheim Washington, Geoffrey Block Professor of Music University of Puget Sound, 1997-10-02 The classic musicals of Broadway can provide us with truly enchanted evenings. But while many of us can hum the music and even recount the plot from memory, we are often much less knowledgeable about how these great shows were put together. What was the inspiration for Rodgers and Hammerstein's Pal Joey or Rodgers and Hammerstein's Carousel? Why is Maria's impassioned final speech in West Side Story spoken rather than sung? Now in Enchanted Evenings Geoffrey Block offers theatre lovers an illuminating behind-the-scenes tour of some of the best loved most admired and most enduring musicals of Broadway's Golden Era Readers will find insightful studies of such all time favorites as Show Boat Anything Goes Porgy and Bess Carousel Kiss Me Kate Guys and Dolls The Most Happy Fella My Fair Lady and West Side Story Block provides a documentary history of fourteen musicals in all plus an epilogue exploring the plays of Stephen Sondheim showing how each work took shape and revealing at the same time production by production how the American musical evolved from the 1920s to the early 1960s and beyond The book's particular focus is on the music offering a wealth of detail about how librettist lyricist composer and director work together to shape the piece Drawing on manuscript material such as musical sketches autograph manuscripts pre production librettos and lyric drafts Block reveals the winding route the works took to get to their final form Block blends this close attention to the nuances of musical composition and stagecraft with trenchant social commentary and lively backstage anecdotes Jerome Kern Cole Porter the Gershwins Rodgers and Hart Rodgers and Hammerstein Lerner and Loewe Kurt Weill Frank Loesser Leonard Bernstein Sondheim and other luminaries emerge as hardworking craftsmen under enormous pressure to sell tickets without compromising their dramatic vision and integrity Opening night reviews and accounts of critical and popular response to subsequent revivals show how particular musicals have adapted to changing times and changing audiences shedding light on why many of these innovative shows are still performed in high schools colleges and community theaters across the country while others such as Weill's One Touch of Venus or Marc Blitzstein's The Cradle Will Rock languish in comparative obscurity Packed with information including a complete discography and plot synopses and song by song scenic outlines for each of the fourteen shows Enchanted Evenings is an essential reference as well as a riveting history It will deepen readers' appreciation and enjoyment of these beloved musicals even as it delights both the seasoned theatergoer and the neophyte encountering the magic of Broadway for the first time

Beyond the Epic Gene Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908-1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic: The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean s successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature s greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean s ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean s epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director s body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director s artistic process and his place in the film industry Fifty Classic British Films, 1932-1982 Anthony Slide, 2013-01-18 200 striking photographs in depth commentaries plot synopses contemporary reviews and more about 50 British classics from yesterday and today Preface Text Alphabetical list of films Bibliography Hollywood's Ancient Worlds Jeffrey Richards, 2008-09-01 A new full analysis of the Ancient World epic and how this film genre continues to comment on modern day issues
