The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Media and the Dissemination of Fear

Nelson Ribeiro, Christian Schwarzenegger, 2021-12-03 This book offers a diachronical and inter transmedia approach to the relationship of media and fear in a variety of geographical and cultural settings This allows for an in depth understanding of the media's role in pandemics wars and other crises as well as in political intimidation The book assembles chapters from a variety of authors focusing on the relation between media and fear in the West the Middle East the Arab World and China Besides its geographical and cultural diversity the volume also takes a long term perspective bringing together cases from transforming media environments which span over a century The book establishes a strong and historically persistent nexus between media and fear which finds ever new forms with new media but always follows similar logics Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia

Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes The Oxford Handbook of the History of International Law Bardo Fassbender, Anne Peters, Simone Peter, Daniel Högger, 2012-11-01 The Oxford Handbook of the History of International Law provides an authoritative and original overview of the origins concepts and core issues of international law The first comprehensive Handbook on the history of international law it is a truly unique contribution to the literature of international law and relations Pursuing both a global and an interdisciplinary approach the Handbook brings together some sixty eminent scholars of international law legal history and global history from all parts of the world Covering international legal developments from the 15th century until the end of World War II the Handbook consists of over sixty individual chapters which are arranged in six parts The book opens with an analysis of the principal actors in the history of international law namely states peoples and nations international organisations and courts and civil society actors Part Two is devoted to a number of key themes of the history of international law such as peace and war the sovereignty of states hegemony religion and the protection of the individual person Part Three addresses the history of international law in the different regions of the world Africa and Arabia Asia the Americas and the Caribbean Europe as well as encounters between non European legal cultures like those of China Japan and India and Europe which had a lasting impact on the body of international law Part Four examines certain forms of interaction or imposition in international law such as diplomacy as an example of interaction or colonization and domination as an example of imposition of law The classical juxtaposition of the civilized and the uncivilized is also critically studied Part Five is concerned with problems of the method and theory of history writing in international law for instance the periodisation of international law or Eurocentrism in the traditional historiography of international law The Handbook concludes with a Part Six entitled People in Portrait which explores the life and work of twenty prominent scholars and thinkers of international law ranging from Muhammad al Shaybani to Sir Hersch Lauterpacht The Handbook will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of international law It provides historians with new perspectives on international law and increases the historical and cultural awareness of scholars of international law It is the standard reference work for the global history of international law Memoirs of Bertha Von Suttner Bertha Von Suttner, 2020-05 Memoirs of Bertha von Suttner The Records of an Eventful Life Volume II is the 1910 autobiography in two volumes of Baroness BERTHA VON SUTTNER 1843 1914 an Austrian Bohemian novelist and leading figure in the peace movement Austrian Information , 1987 Pax Economica Marc-William Palen, 2025-10-28 The forgotten history of the liberal radicals socialist internationalists feminists and Christians who envisioned free trade as the necessary prerequisite for anti imperialism and peace Today free trade is often associated with right wing free marketeers In Pax Economica historian Marc William Palen shows that free trade and globalisation in fact have roots in nineteenth century left wing politics In this counterhistory of an idea Palen explores how beginning in the 1840s left wing globalists became the leaders of the peace and anti imperialist movements of their age By the early twentieth century an unlikely alliance of liberal radicals socialist internationalists feminists and Christians envisioned free trade as essential for a prosperous and peaceful world order Of course this vision was at odds with the era s strong predilections for nationalism protectionism geopolitical conflict and colonial expansion Palen reveals how for some of its most radical left wing adherents free trade represented a hard nosed critique of imperialism militarism and war Palen shows that the anti imperial component of free trade was a phenomenon that came to encompass the political left wing within the British American Spanish German Dutch Belgian Italian Russian French and Japanese empires The left wing vision of a pax economica evolved to include supranational regulation to maintain a peaceful free trading system which paved the way for a more liberal economic order after World War II and such institutions as the United Nations the European Union and the World Trade Organization Palen s findings upend how we think about globalisation free trade anti imperialism and peace Rediscovering the left wing history of globalism offers timely lessons for our own era of economic nationalism and geopolitical conflict

European Feminisms, 1700-1950 Karen M. Offen, 2000 This ambitious book explores challenges to male hegemony throughout continental Europe over the past 250 years For general readers and those interested primarily in the historical record it provides a comprehensive comparative account of feminist developments in European societies as well as a rereading of European history from a feminist perspective By placing gender or relations between women and men at the center of European politics it aims to reconfigure our understanding of the European past and to make visible a long but neglected tradition of feminist thought and politics On another level the book seeks to disentangle some misperceptions and to demystify some confusing contemporary debates about the Enlightenment reason nature and public vs private equality vs difference In the process the author aims to show that gender is not merely a useful category of analysis but that sexual difference lies at the heart of human thought and politics
