Beso De La Mujer Araaa El:

The Necessary Dream Pamela Bacarisse, 1988-01-01 The Latin American novelist Manuel Puig is perhaps best known for his novel Kiss of the Spider Woman The Necessary Dream provides an introduction to and interpretation of his seven novels written from 1968 to 1982 While each novel is given a separate chapter the homogenous thread of attitudes and themes which touch on psychology feminism Argentine politics and popular culture is clearly displayed Contents Introduction La Vie est ailleurs R La traición de Rita Hayworth 1968 The Rules of the Game Boquitas pintadas 1969 The Divided Self The Buenos Aires Affair 1973 The Kiss of Death El beso de la mujer araña 1976 Only Make Believe Pubis angelical 1979 Les Liaisons dangereuses Maldición eterna a quien lea estas páginas 1980 Life is a Dream Sangre de amor correspondido 1982 Notes Bibliography Index Changing Men and Masculinities in Latin America Matthew C. Gutmann, 2003-01-20 Essays drawn from a variety of disciplines both review and challenge current understandings of masculinity in Latin America A Twentieth-century Literature Reader Suman Gupta, David Johnson, 2005 This critical Reader is the essential companion to any course in twentieth century literature Drawing upon the work of a wide range of key writers and critics the selected extracts provide a literary historical overview of the twentieth century insight into theoretical discussions around the purpose value and form of literature which dominated the century closer examination of representative texts from the period around which key critical issues might be debated Clearly conveying the excitement generated by twentieth century literary texts and by the provocative critical ideas and arguments that surrounded them this reader can be used alongside the two volumes of Debating Twentieth Century Literature or as a core text for any module on the literature of the last century Texts examined in detail include Chekhov's The Cherry Orchard Mansfield's Short Stories poetry of the 1930s Gibbon's Sunset Song Eliot's Prufrock Brecht's Galileo Woolf's Orlando Okigbo's Selected Poems du Maurier's Rebecca poetry by Ginsburg and O'Hara Dick's Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep Puig's Kiss of the Spiderwoman Beckett's Waiting for Godot Heaney's New Selected Poems 1966 1987 Gurnah's Paradise and Barker's The Ghost Road Postmodernity in Latin America Santiago Colás, 1994-11-07 Postmodernity in Latin America contests the prevailing understanding of the relationship between postmodernity and Latin America by focusing on recent developments in Latin American and particularly Argentine political and literary culture While European and North American theorists of postmodernity generally view Latin American fiction without regard for its political and cultural context Latin Americanists often either uncritically apply the concept of postmodernity to Latin American literature and society or reject it in an equally uncritical fashion The result has been both a limited understanding of the literature and an impoverished notion of postmodernity Santiago Colás challenges both of these approaches and corrects their consequent distortions by locating Argentine postmodernity in the cultural dynamics of resistance as it operates within and against local expressions of late capitalism Focusing on literature Colás uses Julio Cortázar's Hopscotch to characterize modernity for Latin America as a whole Manuel Puig's Kiss of the Spider Woman to identify the transition to a more localized postmodernity and Ricardo Piglia's Artificial Respiration to exemplify the cultural coordinates of postmodernity in Argentina. Informed by the cycle of political transformation beginning with the Cuban Revolution including its effects on Peronism to the period of dictatorship and finally to redemocratization, Col's examination of this literary progression leads to the reconstruction of three significant moments in the history of Argentina. His analysis provokes both a revised understanding of that history and the recognition that multiple meanings of postmodernity must be understood in ways that incorporate the complexity of regional differences. Offering a new voice in the debate over postmodernity, one that challenges that debate's leading thinkers, Postmodernity in Latin America will be of particular interest to students of Latin American literature and to scholars in all disciplines concerned with theories of the postmodern.

Murder and Masculinity Rebecca E. Biron, 2000 Rebecca Biron breaks new ground in this study of masculinity, violence and the strategic construction of collective political identities in twentieth-century Latin American fiction. By engaging current sociological, psychoanalytic and feminist theories, Murder and Masculinity analyzes the cliché of proving virility through violence against women. Biron develops her argument through close readings of five works: Jorge Luis Borges's La intrusa, Armonía Somer's El despojo, Clarice Lispector's A Maca no Escuro, Manuel Puig's The Buenos Aires Affair and Reinaldo Arenas's El Asalto. Although men murdering women is often interpreted as nothing more than machista misogyny, Biron argues that the five narratives addressed in this book show that healed masculinities are essential to the achievement of cultural identity and political autonomy in Latin America. The introduction to this study deftly situates Biron's work in relation to previous theoretical arguments on the social and political dimensions of Latin American writing. The five subsequent chapters offer superb analyses of the individual texts. Like their male protagonists who experiment with the psychological and legal extremes of gender division, these narratives risk nonconformity to the laws of genre in their quest for liberation from violent social and literary conventions. In combining elements of detective stories, crime narratives, psychological case studies and magical or grotesque realism, they offer metafictional commentary on a network of discourses that confuses images of masculinity, national identity and political autonomy in postcolonial Latin America. Encyclopedia
