Best American Screenplays:

Best American Screenplays, 1990 Best American Screenplays 3 Sam Thomas, 1995 Crown's third collection of great screenplays showcases the screenwriter's contribution to eight memorable films encompassing more than half a century of American cinema. Sam Thomas has written a major introduction and provided background information on each of the eight screenplays and their screenwriters.

Script Culture and the American Screenplay Kevin Alexander Boon, 2008-01-10 By considering the screenplay as a literary object worthy of critical inquiry this volume breaks new ground in film studies. Though the history of the screenplay is as long and rich as the history of film itself critics and scholars have neglected it as a topic of serious research. Script Culture and the American Screenplay treats the screenplay as a literary work in its own right presenting analyses of screenplays from a variety of frameworks including feminism Marxism structuralism philosophy and psychology. In distancing the text of screenplays from the on screen performance typically associated with them Kevin Alexander Boon expands the scope of film studies into exciting new territory with this volume. Script Culture and the American Screenplay is divided into two parts. Part 1 provides a general background for screenplay studies tracing the evolution of the screenplay from the early shot lists and continuities of George M. Seldes and Thomas Harper Ince to the more detailed narratives of contemporary works. Part 2 offers specific primarily thematic critical examinations of screenplays along with discussions of the original screenplay and the screenplay adaptation. In all Boon explains that screenplay criticism distinguishes itself from traditional film studies in three major ways. The primary focus of screenplay criticism is on the screenplay rather than the film the focus of screenplay studies is on the screenwriter rather than the director and screenplay criticism like literary criticism is written to illuminate a reader's understanding of the text. Boon demonstrates that whether we are concerned with aesthetics and identifying rules for distinguishing the literary from the non literary or whether we align ourselves with more contemporary theories which recognize texts as distinguishable in their inter relationships and marked difference screenplays constitute a rich cache of works worthy of critical examination. Film scholars as well as students of film creative writing and literary studies will appreciate this singular volume.

Six Screenplays Robert Riskin, 1997 Screenwriter Robert Riskin 1897-1955 was a towering figure even among the giants of Hollywood's Golden Age. Known for his unique blend of humor and romance wisecracking and idealism Riskin teamed with director Frank Capra to produce some of his most memorable films. Pat McGilligan has collected six of the best Riskin scripts. Platinum Blonde 1931 American Madness 1932 It Happened One Night 1934 Mr Deeds Goes to Town 1936 Lost Horizon 1937 and Meet John Doe 1941. All of them were directed by Capra and although Capra's work has been amply chronicled and celebrated Riskin's share in the collaboration has been overlooked since his death. McGilligan provides the backstory for the forgotten half of the team: indispensable counterpoint to the director's self-mythologizing autobiography and incidentally the missing link in any study of Capra's career. Riskin's own career although interrupted by patriotic duty and cut short by personal tragedy produced as consistent entertaining thoughtful and enduring a body of work as any Hollywood writer's Those who know and love these vintage films will treasure these scripts McGilligan's introduction offers new information and insights for fans scholars and general readers Writing the Character-Centered Screenplay, Updated and Expanded edition Andrew Horton,2000-02-23 We need good screenwriters who understand character Everywhere Andrew Horton traveled in researching this book from Hollywood to Hungary he heard the same refrain Yet most of the standard how to books on screenwriting follow the film industry's earlier lead in focusing almost exclusively on plot and formulaic structures With this book Horton a film scholar and successful screenwriter provides the definitive work on the character based screenplay Exceptionally wide ranging covering American international mainstream and off Hollywood films as well as television the book offers creative strategies and essential practical information Horton begins by placing screenwriting in the context of the storytelling tradition arguing through literary and cultural analysis that all great stories revolve around a strong central character He then suggests specific techniques and concepts to help any writer whether new or experienced build more vivid characters and screenplays Centering his discussion around four film examples including Thelma Louise and The Silence of the Lambs and the television series Northern Exposure he takes the reader step by step through the screenwriting process starting with the development of multi dimensional characters and continuing through to rewrite Finally he includes a wealth of information about contests fellowships and film festivals Espousing a new character based approach to screenwriting this engaging insightful work will prove an essential guide to all of those involved in the writing and development of film scripts Best Canadian Screenplays Douglas Bowie,Tom Shoebridge,1992 The Modernist Screenplay Alexandra Ksenofontova,2020-10-02 The Modernist Screenplay explores the film screenplay as a genre of modernist literature It connects the history of screenwriting for silent film to the history of literary modernism in France Germany and Russia At the same time the book considers how the screenplay responded to the modernist crisis of reason confronted mimetic representation and sought to overcome the modernist mistrust of language with the help of rhythm From the silent film projects of Bertolt Brecht to the screenwriting of Sergei Eisenstein and the poetic scripts of the surrealists The Modernist Screenplay offers a new angle on the relationship between film and literature Based on the example of modernist screenwriting the book proposes a pluralistic approach to screenplays an approach that sees film scripts both as texts embedded in film production and as literary works in their own right As a result the sheer variety of different and experimental ways to tell stories in screenplays comes to light The Modernist Screenplay explores how the earliest kind of experimental screenplays the modernist screenplays challenged normative ideas about the nature of filmmaking the nature of literary writing and the borders between the two Focus On: 100 Most Popular English-language Film Directors Wikipedia contributors, Best American Screenplays 2 Sam Thomas,1990 A collection of 10 complete screenplays Crafting Short Screenplays That Connect Claudia H. Johnson,2013-05-02 Crafting Short Screenplays that Connect introduces the essential element of human connection the ability to touch the reader or observer to the screenwriting and story creation process for short films Claudia Hunter Johnson teaches the craft of short screenplay writing by guiding you through carefully focused writing exercises of increasing length and complexity You will learn how to think more deeply about the screenwriter's purposes craft an effective pattern of human change and hone your vision and process for your short screenplays

Alternative Scriptwriting Ken Dancyger, Jeff Rush, 2012-08-21 Alternative Scriptwriting 4E is an insightful and inspiring book on screenwriting concerned with challenging you to take creative risks with genre tone character and structure Concerned with exploring alternative approaches beyond the traditional three act structure Alternative Scriptwriting first defines conventional approach suggests alternatives then provides case studies These contemporary examples and case studies demonstrate what works what doesn't and why Because the film industry as well as the public demand greater and greater creativity one must go beyond the traditional three act restorative and predictable plot to test your limits and break new creative ground Rather than teaching writing in a tired formulaic manner this book elevates the subject and provides inspiration to reach new creative heights

The Image of Librarians in Cinema, 1917-1999 Ray Tevis, Brenda Tevis, 2015-03-26 From its earliest days to the present the onscreen image of the librarian has remained largely the same A silent 1921 film set the precedent for two female librarian characters a dowdy spinster wears glasses and a bun hairstyle and an attractive young woman is overworked and underpaid Silent films however employed a variety of characteristics for librarians showed them at work on many different tasks and featured them in a range of dramatic romantic and comedic situations The sound era during which librarians appeared in more than 200 films frequently exaggerated these characteristics and situations strongly influencing the general image of librarians This chronologically arranged work analyzes the stereotypical image of librarians male and female in primarily American and British motion pictures from the silent era to the 21st century The work briefly describes each film offering some critical commentary and then examines its librarian considering every aspect of the total character from socio economic conditions and motivations for leaving or not leaving the library to personal attributes such as clothing hair and age and entanglements with the opposite sex to commonly used props plot situations and lines Shush The work comments on whether librarians and library work are depicted accurately and analyzes the development of the public's image of a librarian The accompanying filmography lists librarian characters and notes stereotypes such as buns and eyeglasses With bibliography and index

Meeting Movies Norman Norwood Holland, 2006 Casablanca for example provides millions with a sense of satisfaction Why How did this movie about World War II satisfy an adolescent boy afraid of not being a man but too young to be in the military How did such an outrageously sentimental film enable Holland and many others to deal with the scary state of the world in 1942 and indeed ever since Meeting Movies poses such questions again and again As a professor of literature and film Holland feels compelled to interpret Yet beneath and beyond his intellectualizing a variety of half conscious personal considerations and recurring themes color his feelings and hence his interpretations And this he claims is true for all of us Jacket Women Screenwriters Jill Neldes, Jule Selbo, 2015-09-29 Women Screenwriters is a study of more than 300 female writers from 60 nations from the first film scenarios produced in 1986 to the present day Divided into six sections by continent the entries give an overview of the history of women screenwriters in each country as well as individual biographies of its most influential Movies About the Movies Christopher Ames, 2021-11-21 Hundreds of Hollywood on Hollywood movies can be found throughout the history of American cinema from the days of silents to the present They include films from genres as far ranging as musical film noir melodrama comedy and action adventure Such movies seduce us with the promise of revealing the reality behind the camera But as part of the very industry they supposedly critique they cannot take us behind the scenes in any true sense Through close analysis of fifteen critically acclaimed films Christopher Ames reveals how the idea of Hollywood is constructed and constructs itself Films discussed What Price Hollywood 1952 A Star Is Born 1937 Stand In 1937 Boy Meets Girl 1938 Sullivan s Travels 1941 In a Lonely Place 1950 Sunset Boulevard 1950 The Star 1950 Singin in the Rain 1952 The Bad and the Beautiful 1952 Pennies from Heaven 1981 The Purple Rose of Cairo 1985 The Player 1992 Last Action Hero 1993 Lew Hunter's Screenwriting 434 Lew Hunter, 2004-05-04 For decades Lew Hunter s Screenwriting 434 class at UCLA has been the premier screenwriting course launching a generation of the industry s most frequently produced writers Here he shares the secrets of his course on the screenwriting process by actually writing an original script step by step that appears in the book Arthur Penn's Bonnie and Clyde Lester D. Friedman, 2000 This volume contains essays on Arthur Penn s film Bonnie and Clyde Breaking the Watch Joel S. Savishinsky, 2018-08-06 The topic of retirement becomes increasingly compelling as the U S population ages It s easy to find books about how to plan financially for those years after careers end but Breaking the Watch focuses on the many ways of creating a life not just making a living as a retired person This book follows women and men from a rural American community as they approach and experience the first years of retirement Joel Savishinsky focuses on the efforts people make to find meaning in a stage of life American culture often views in a confused or disdainful way In conversations and stories 13 men and 13 women demonstrate a deep commitment to defining their own retirement They bring to their mature years a diversity of backgrounds interests and responsibilities They include former teachers librarians doctors farmers lawyers bankers mail carriers and secretaries Some are married others divorced or single many have children and grandchildren but some have neither Their finances run the gamut from the modest to the munificent while their health ranges from robust to disabled From an examination of the rites of passage that marked their exit from full time work Breaking the Watch moves on to consider how to plan appropriately for retirement renegotiate ties to friends family and community and create a sense of passion be it for tai chi travel painting or politics that will drive a new sense of purpose These intimate glimpses into real lives allow a rare understanding of the retirement process Horton Foote Charles S. Watson, 2010-01-01 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Drama for The Young Man from Atlanta and Academy Awards for the screen adaptation of To Kill a Mockingbird and the original screenplay Tender Mercies as well as the recipient of an Academy Award nomination for the screenplay of The Trip to Bountiful and the William Inge Lifetime Achievement Award Horton Foote is one of America's most respected writers for stage and screen. The deep compassion he shows for his characters, the moral vision that infuses his social commentary and the kindness and humanity that Foote himself radiates have also made him one of our most revered artists, the father figure who understands our longings for home, for human connections and for certainty in a world largely bereft of these. This literary biography thoroughly investigates how Horton Foote's life and worldview have shaped his works for stage, television and film. Tracing the whole trajectory of Foote's career from his small town Texas upbringing to the present day, Charles Watson demonstrates that Foote has created a fully imagined mythical world from the materials supplied by his own and his family's and friends' lives in Wharton, Texas, in the early twentieth century. Devoting attention to each of Foote's major works in turn, he shows how this world took shape in Foote's writing for the New York stage, Golden Age television, Hollywood films and in his nine play masterpiece The Orphan's Home Cycle. Throughout, Watson's focus on Foote as a master playwright and his extensive use of the dramatist's unpublished correspondence make this literary biography required reading for all who admire the work of Horton Foote.
