The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

Anthologizing Canadian Literature Robert Lecker, 2015-11-02 The first collection of critical essays devoted to the study of English Canadian literary anthologies brings together the work of thirteen prominent critics to investigate anthology formation in Canada and answer these key questions Why are there so many literary anthologies in Canada and how can we trace their history What role have anthologies played in the formation of Canadian literary taste How have anthologies influenced the training of students from generation to generation What literary values do the editors of various anthologies tend to support and how do these values affect canon formation in Canada How have different genres fared in the creation of literary anthologies How do Canadian anthologies transmit ideas about gender region ideology and nation Specific essays focus on anthologies as national metaphors the controversies surrounding early literary collections representations of First Nations peoples in anthologies and the ways in which various editors have understood exploration narratives In addition the collection examines the representation of women in Canadian anthologies the use of anthologies as teaching tools and the creation of some very odd Canadian anthologies along the way The Literary History of comic essay collection about race justice and the limits of good intentions In this stunning debut collection Catapult editor in chief and award winning voice actor Tajja Isen explores the absurdity of living in a world that has grown fluent in the language of social justice but doesn't always follow through These nine daring essays explore the sometimes troubling and often awkward nature of that discord Some of My Best Friends takes on the cartoon industry's pivot away from colorblind casting the pursuit of diverse representation in the literary world the law's refusal to see inequality and the cozy fictions of nationalism Isen deftly examines the quick cosmetic fixes society makes to address systemic problems and reveals the unexpected ways they can misfire Isen interlaces cultural criticism with her lived experience to explore the gaps between what we say and what we do what we do and what we value what we value and what we demand Canadian Books in

Keepers of the Code Robert Lecker, 2013-02-07 Keepers of the Code explores the complex network of associations and negotiations that influenced the development of literary anthologies in English Canada from 1837 to the present Lecker shows that these anthologies are deeply conflicted narratives that embody the tensions and anxieties felt by their editors when faced with the challenge of constructing or rejecting national ideals He argues that these are intensely self-conscious works with their own literary mechanisms and architecture In reading the history of these anthologies he witnesses a complex narrative of nation a compelling story about the values and interests informing English Canadian literary history
