The Best American Short Stories, 1993 Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters The Cambridge Companion to the American Short Story Michael J. Collins, Gavin Jones, 2023-05-25 This

Companion offers students and scholars a comprehensive introduction to the development and the diversity of the American short story as a literary form from its origins in the eighteenth century to the present day Rather than define what the short story is as a genre or defend its importance in comparison with the novel this Companion seeks to understand what the short story does how it moves through national space how it is always related to other genres and media and how its inherent mobility responds to the literary marketplace and resonates with key critical themes in contemporary literary studies The chapters offer authoritative introductions and reinterpretations of a literary form that has re emerged as a major force in the twenty first century public sphere dominated by the Internet American Short-story Writers Since World War II. Patrick Meanor, Gwen Crane, 2000 Focuses on how the declining market for short story writers after World War II saw the migration of these writers to universities where they not only continued to write but established creative writing classes that would in turn inspire and develop new generations of writers of various genres Conversations with Tim Gautreaux L. Lamar Nisly, 2012-07-27 Louisiana writer Tim Gautreaux b 1947 writes fiction that mixes equal parts dry humor tall tales and deep tragedy His stories and novels of working class Acadiana portray lives of inimitably poignant love loss and longing The depth and complexity of Gautreaux s writing invite scholarly appraisals as well as critics mine the richness of his moral vision These interviews reveal the intensity of his sense of place his deep connection to the mechanical and working world his commitment to the craft of writing and his Catholic view that has been shaped by Flannery O Connor and Walker Percy Conversations with Tim Gautreaux collects interviews from 1993 to 2009 with the author of The Missing The Clearing Welding with Children and many other vital works of fiction Readers who have been engaged with the themes in his stories and novels will find themselves equally taken with the kind and thoughtful voice they discover in interviews American Short Fiction, Spring 1993 Carlos Eyles, University of Texas Press, 1993-12 American Short Fiction , 1998 Bone Deep in Landscape Mary Clearman Blew, 2000-09-01 Blew s reflections on a woman s life in the Rocky Mountain West immerse readers in the landscape of mountains and prairies and of blizzards and scorching sun Blew again demonstrates her artistry and strong connection to the Western terrain of her past and present homes in Montana and Idaho Publishers Weekly 9 illustrations Writing in Action Paul Mills, 1996 Writing in Action provides a step by step practical guide to the process of writing Although the emphasis is on creative writing fiction poetry and drama it also covers autobiographical writing and the writing of reports and essays Because this is a book about process rather than product Writing in Action also looks at the practice of adaptation and editing This book is crammed with practical suggestions and self evaluation exercises as well as invaluable tips on style sentence structure punctuation and vocabulary It is an ideal course text for students and an invaluable guide to self study Sports in America Peter Stine, 1995 America s fascination with sports is the topic of this literary anthology Through their fiction poetry and essays nearly forty writers reflect on sports as an illumination of our ordinary lives rather than as a livelihood a world of celebrities or a means of escape As Siv Cedering Maxine Kumin and John Ed Bradley demonstrate often the concerns we bring to sports are profoundly personal Our performance both as participants and spectators is a way of marking our past our moral urgencies our lost childhood our role as parents our pursuit of excellence our fear of failure our very identity and place in the chain of generations Sports inevitably graze and illuminate our culture as well Heather Ross Miller s memories of half court women s basketball become a powerful metaphor for sexual attitudes during the 1950s George Garrett s reflections on college football during World War II provide images that symbolize an era and Neil Isaacs delightful essay on major league batboys chronicles the American Dream Texas

Women Writers Sylvia Ann Grider, Lou Halsell Rodenberger, 1997 A critical survey of over 150 years of Texas women writers including fiction and nonfiction authors poets and dramatists Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou Huang, 2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century Some emerged after World War II yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980 The first reference of its kind this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Writers include Frank Chin Sui Sin Far Shirely Geok lin Lim Toshio Mori and Bharati Mukherjee An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading Companion to Literature Abby H. P. Werlock, 2009 Praise for the previous edition Booklist RBB Twenty Best Bets for Student Researchers RUSA ALA Outstanding Reference Source useful Recommended for public libraries and undergraduates Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume 1 Philip A. Greasley, 2001-05-30 The Dictionary of Midwestern Literature Volume One surveys the lives and writings of nearly 400 Midwestern authors and identifies some of the most important criticism of their writings The Dictionary is based on the belief that the literature of any region simultaneously captures the experience and influences the worldview of its people reflecting as well as shaping the evolving sense of individual and collective identity meaning and values Volume One presents individual lives and literary orientations and offers a broad survey of the Midwestern experience as expressed by its many diverse peoples over time Philip A Greasley's introduction fills in background information and describes the philosophy focus methodology content and layout of entries as well as criteria for their inclusion An extended lead essay The Origins and Development of the Literature of the Midwest by David D Anderson provides a historical cultural and literary context in which the lives and writings of individual authors can be considered This volume is the first of an ambitious three volume series sponsored by the Society for the Study of Midwestern Literature and created by its members Volume Two will provide similar coverage of non author entries such as sites centers movements influences themes and genres Volume Three will be a literary history of the Midwest One goal of the series is to build understanding of the nature importance and influence of Midwestern writers and literature Another is to provide information on writers from the early years of the Midwestern experience as well as those now emerging who are typically absent from existing reference works The Postmodern Short Story Farhat Iftekharrudin, Joseph Boyden, Mary Rohrberger, Jaie Claudet, 2003-12-30 Short stories are usually defined in terms of characteristics of modernism in which the story begins in the middle develops according to a truncated plot and ends with an epiphany This approach tends to ignore postmodernism a movement often characterized by a negation of objective reality where plots are seemingly abandoned surfaces are extraordinary and symbols turn inward on themselves This book examines postmodern forms and characteristic themes by analyzing a group of short stories that make use of postmodern narrative strategies including nonfictional fiction gender profiling and death as an image The volume begins with a discussion of the blurred lines between fiction and nonfiction in the short story and imaginative personal essay It then looks at the role of women in works by such authors as Sandra Cisneros Leslie Marmon Silko Joyce Carol Oates and Lorrie Moore This is followed by a section of chapters on postmodern masculinity and short fiction The next section focuses on death as an image and theme in works by Richard Ford Richard Brautigan and James Joyce The final set of chapters considers postmodern short fiction from South Africa and Canada
