Best Australian Stories 2001:

The Best Australian Stories 2001 Peter Craven, 2001 No Marketing Blurb The Best Australian Stories 2012 Sonya Hartnett, 2012 The Best Australian Stories 2012 is the country's premier annual collection of short fiction. This year sees Sonya Hartnett select thirty-two remarkable stories that roam widely in subject and style but share a delicate complexity and a vibrant cleverness. A travelling scout for a modern-day freak show meets a girl with a strange and wonderful gift. A winning lottery ticket tests the bonds of three mismatched siblings. A beast of burden offers an alternative account of Australian settlement. There is dark humor, stealthy and unsettling, and moments of terror, whimsy, romance, and surprise. What unites them is a steadfast commitment to the storyteller's art, the art of making the reader want to turn the page. The Best Australian Stories ReadHowYouWant.com, Limited, 2011 The best of the best. This essential book takes a decade of Best Australian Stories and selects the most outstanding short fiction by the country's finest writers. These stories range widely in style and subject matter: there is drama and comedy, subtlety and extravagance, tales of suspense, love, fantasy, grief, and revenge. Together they showcase The Best Australian Stories, 2007 Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post-colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories. In more than 1,600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars, it explores the effect of the colonial and post-colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide. Great Sporting Moments Damien Wilkins, 2005 Anthology of fiction, poetry, and essays on non-sporting themes. After The Celebration Ken Gelder, Paul Salzman, 2009-01-01 After the Celebration explores Australian fiction from 1989 to 2007, after Australia's bicentenary to the end of the Howard government. In this literary history, Ken Gelder and Paul Salzman combine close attention to Australian novels with a vivid depiction of their contexts: cultural, social, political, historical, national, and transnational. From crime fiction to the postmodern colonial novel, from Australian grunge to rural apocalypse, from the Asian diasporic novel to the action blockbuster, Gelder and Salzman show how Australian novelists such as Frank Moorhouse, Elizabeth Jolley, Peter Carey, Kim Scott, Steven Carroll, Kate Grenville, Tim Winton, Alexis Wright, and many others have used their work to chart our position in the world. The literary controversies over history, identity, feminism, and gatekeeping are read against the politics of the day. Provocative and compelling, After the Celebration captures the key themes and issues in Australian fiction where we have been and what we have become. A History of Books Gerald Murnane, 2012-05-01 This new work by Gerald Murnane is a fictionalised autobiography told in thirty sections, each of which begins with the memory of a book that has left an image on the writer's mind. The titles aren't given, but the reader follows the clues, recalling in the process a parade of authors: the great, the popular, and the now forgotten. The images themselves, with their scenes of marital discord, violence, and madness, or their illuminated landscapes that point to the consolations of a world beyond fiction, give new intensity to

Murnane's habitual concern with the anxieties and aspirations of the writing life in the absence of religious belief A History of Books is accompanied by three shorter pieces of fiction which play on these themes featuring the writer at different ages as a young boy a teacher and an old recluse History of Books Gerald Murnane, 2012 This new work by Gerald Murnane is a fictionalised autobiography told in thirty sections each of which begins with the memory of a book that has left an image on the writer's mind The titles aren't given but the reader follows the clues recalling in the process a parade of authors the great the popular and the now forgotten The images themselves with their scenes of marital discord violence and madness or their illuminated landscapes that point to the consolations of a world beyond fiction give new intensity to Murnane's habitual concern with the anxieties and aspirations of the writer Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum, 2002-03-01 In Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum provides a devastating account of the Howard government's treatment of the refugees as well as delineating the factors in Australian history which have worked towards prejudice and those which have worked against it ranging from Calwell's postwar immigration policy to the recent revelations of beat ups and distortions in the 2001 election campaign This is a powerful account of how the government played on what was ultimately the race issue In an essay which is by terms witty dry and bitingly understated Mungo MacCallum asks what epithets are appropriate for a prime minister who has brought us to this pass He also raises the question of whether Australia's contemporary treatment of refugees has anything in common with the sane and decent policies that have characterised the better moments in our history it will take a long time to recover from the campaign of hate and fear which was deemed to be necessary to return the Howard government in the first year of the new millennium Mungo MacCallum Girt By Sea This most cold-eyed of one-time Canberra chroniclers brings to this story all his wit and dryness and power of mind It's a sad tale though it is everywhere enlivened by MacCallum's tendency to suggest that spades really are bloody shovels at the end of the day Peter Craven A document of immense power MacCallum's essay will stand as a record of Australia's shame and depravity It will haunt us Julian Burnside Australian Book Review Mungo's assertion that Howard is a man with no vision only division to his name and his recognition that Howard will never have the approval of those elites he so gratuitously desires is a blistering strike at the Liberal man Geoff Parkes Journal of Australian Studies Mungo MacCallum has long been one of Australia's most influential and entertaining political journalists in a career spanning more than four decades Mungo has worked with the Australian the Age the Financial Review Sydney Morning Herald and numerous magazines as well as the ABC SBS Channel Nine and Channel Ten His books include the bestselling Mungo The Man Who Laughs The Good the Bad and the Unlikely Australia's Prime Ministers and The Whitlam Mob The Bernborough Phenomenon Zeb Armstrong, 2013-10-29 The Bernborough Phenomenon tells the tale of the emergence of a champion racehorse from the small Australian country town of Toowoomba that went on to become perhaps Australia's greatest thoroughbred since Phar Lap The Bernborough story would not be out of place in a Nat Gould or Banjo Patterson bush racing yarn yet the story of Bernborough is true even if it still has a few loose ends Australian Book

Information Technology and Innovation in Language Education Chris Davison, 2005-01-01 This book presents a critical analysis and investigation of current developments and debates in the use of information technology IT in English language teaching ELT internationally The first section of the book provides an overview of the key issues in IT and innovation in English language education such as the complex nature of IT and its use in ELT both in the present and future and the often problematic nature of innovation in relation to IT and ELT It focuses primarily on the level of programs and curricula looking at the way organizations and educational systems in different countries respond to the so called IT imperative The second section adopts a more overtly social constructivist perspective to explore examples of innovative practice in IT use in ELT around the world It tackles issues arising from classroom implementation and pedagogy looking at the way learners and teachers can and do use IT in their everyday practice The final section investigates the problems of building a community of professional practice in IT in English language education It focuses on the level of professional development and teacher education and in doing so demonstrates how the implementation of IT in schools and classrooms can be enhanced through taking into account key aspects of teachers existing contexts and professional practices Throughout the book the contributors adopt a constructive but critical perspective on the use of IT in English language education often challenging its role in developing learner autonomy its effectiveness in developing language learning and its capacity to enhance pedagogic practice in the language teaching classroom at the same time suggesting effective models and guidelines for good practice

A Companion to the Works of Kim Scott Belinda Wheeler, 2016 Notes on the Contributors Index Witnessing Australian Stories Kelly Jean Butler, 2017-07-28 This book is about how Australians have responded to stories about suffering and injustice in Australia presented in a range of public media including literature history films and television Those who have responded are both ordinary and prominent Australians politicians writers and scholars All have sought to come to terms with Australia's history by responding empathetically to stories of its marginalized citizens Drawing upon international scholarship on collective memory public history testimony and witnessing this book represents a cultural history of contemporary Australia It examines the forms of witnessing that dominated Australian public culture at the turn of the millennium Since the late 1980s witnessing has developed in Australia in response to the increasingly audible voices of indigenous peoples migrants and more recently asylum seekers As these voices became public they posed a challenge not only to scholars and politicians but also most importantly to ordinary citizens When former Prime Minister Kevin Rudd delivered his historic apology to Australia's indigenous peoples in February 2008 he performed an act of collective witnessing that affirmed the testimony and experiences of Aboriginal Australians The phenomenon of witnessing became crucial not only to the recognition and reparation of past injustices but to efforts to create a more cosmopolitan Australia in the present This
