they could do more From Hawke to Gillard each prime minister has grappled with this dilemma Keating sought to change expectations Howard to feed a culture of entitlement Rudd to reconceive the federation Through all of this and back to our origins runs an almost childlike sense of the government as saviour and provider that has remained constant even as the world has changed Now we are an angry nation and the Age of Entitlement is coming to an end What will a different politics look like And Tingle asks even if a leader surfs the wave of anger all the way to power what answer can be given to our great expectations It is wrong to see the anger of the last few years as a one off which might go away at the next election The things we are angry about betray the changes that have been taking place over recent decades Politicians no longer control interest rates the exchange rate or wages prices or industries that were once protected or even owned by government Voters are confused about what politicians can do for them in such a world Laura Tingle Great Expectations The Art of Time Travel Tom Griffiths, 2017-07-03 No matter how practised we are at history it always humbles us No matter how often we visit the past it always surprises us Winner of the Ernest Scott Prize and shortlisted for the NSW Premier's Literary Award for Non fiction A rare feat of imagination and generosity Mark McKenna With every sentence they write historians must walk the tightrope between discipline and imagination empathy and evidence In this landmark work eminent historian and award winning author Tom Griffiths shares his passion for the fascinating complex craft of history or as he calls it the art of time travel In fourteen portraits Griffiths illuminates how historians such as Inga Clendinnen Judith Wright Geoffrey Blainey and Henry Reynolds have approached their craft In prose both earthy and elegant he shows the new insights they have brought to Australian history and in so doing reshapes our shared knowledge of this continent The Art of Time Travel is an exhilarating book that will forever change the way you think of Australia's past If the past is a foreign country Tom Griffiths makes the perfect travelling companion Let him be your eyes and ears on our shared history Most of all follow his heart Clare Wright Literary Activists, 2009-09 Uniquely examining the link between Australian writers and social change this study investigates the motives behind literary figures who strive to become activists and social intellectuals Exploring this intimate connection this resource asks what such a bond reveals about Australian literature and the power of the written word With fresh insight this guide delves into the activism careers and writings of Judith Wright Patrick White Oodgeroo of the tribe of Noonuccal Les Murray Helen Garner David Malouf and Tim Winton
