Best Enemies Best Enemies:

Best Enemies Anthony D'Augustine, 2003-05 The true measure of a man lies in his ability to remain independent and in his capacity to command respect Plain and simple That s an epitaph I d favor Such is the philosophy of one time Newark Detective Sergeant Mac Taylor After retiring under questionable circumstances Mac searches to find his daughter and to square up with two of his BEST ENEMIES The search takes him to a recreational park in the Catskill Mountains known as Mongaup Pond When a murder and kidnapping occur at the upstate New York campground Mac takes it personally With the help of two weekend campers Jason Strunella and his sister Cheryl Groden Mac sets out to deliver a special brand of street justice upon the offenders Meanwhile Police Lieutenant Evan Falco working within the constraints of the law races to find the determined avengers and to unravel a greater mystery one that leads to a startling conclusion Worst Enemy, Best Teacher Deidre Combs, 2011-02-08 Worst Enemy Best Teacher presents a powerful system to identify and learn how to best approach the person or problem that plagues us most whether it s a neighbor a brother in law a new boss or the factory s fiercest competitor Combs breaks down problems and threats into more easily understood categories such as conflicts that threaten physical harm emotional pain constriction of one s ability to be unique and intellectual threats and how they affect one s world view and beliefs Hands on exercises parables and real life stories show readers how to apply the wisdom gained from studying the opponent to any challenge whether within one s self with friends or family or between companies or nations Worst Enemy Best Teacher offers ingenious tips and techniques for learning from the enemy and converting conflict into resolution Biological Control by Natural Enemies Paul DeBach, David Rosen, 1991-06-27 A concise account examining the historical background of biological control The Sentimental Life of International Law Gerry Simpson, 2021 The Sentimental Life of International Law is about our age old longing for a decent international society and the ways of seeing being and speaking that might help us achieve that aim This book asks how international lawyers might engage in a professional practice that has become to adapt a title of Janet Malcolm s both difficult and impossible It suggests that international lawyers are disabled by the governing idioms of international lawyering and proposes that they may be re enabled by speaking different sorts of international law or by speaking international law in different sorts of ways In this methodologically diverse and unusually personal account Gerry Simpson brings to the surface international law s hidden literary prose and offers a critical and redemptive account of the field He does so in a series of chapters on international law s bathetic underpinnings its friendly relations the neurotic foundations of its underlying social order its screened off comic dispositions its anti method and the life worlds of its practitioners Finally the book closes with a chapter in which international law is re envisioned through the practice of gardening All of this is put forward as a contribution to the project of making international law again a compelling language for our times The Amicable Pact Ana K. Anderson, 2020-03-25 She is about to get married But not to him Quinn MacFayden is set to return to Scotland to protect the precious family legacy

His 90 year old grandfather is about to marry a perfect stranger sixty six years his junior Over his dead body Quinn swears it But Dawn is not a future bride like the others She is nowhere near the gold digger he imagined and above all she knows just how to stand up to him And so a game of cat and mouse begins between them A war with no holds barred and where surrender has never been so tempting

A Complete Collection of State Trials and Proceedings for High Treason and Other Crimes and Misdemeanors from the Earliest Period to the Year 1783, with Notes and Other Illustrations ,1816 LIFE

VERSUS REALITY-AFRICA'S HIDDEN TREASURE EXPOSED JOHN.B. MUTEBI,2021-01-21 About The Book The book is majorly about real life experience in many situations with circumstantial sensitive alerts unfair realities irreversible regrets and workable solutions at work places and within local societies But most profoundly as basic food of thought for the future generation to wake up and reverse the current senseless life trend before its too late its main theme is to present to the reader a practical guide to good leadership as a leader that will enhance development Good health and good life inevitably blooms About The Author The Author is a senior civil Technologist from Kyambogo University of Kampala in Uganda who would like to make a difference in the technical field by teaching the youth good and modern ways of doing work at the cheapest cost possible using local machinery and the locally available materials Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra Douglas Burnham,2010-06-16 A step by step guide to Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra Thus Spoke Zarathustra is one of Nietzsche's greatest books a cross over text that combines philosophical innovation with literary experimentation With Zarathustra Nietzsche has attempted a redefinition of the form content correlation in philosophical writing and as such the text is considered an experiment in philosophical style It therefore represents a large hurdle for undergraduate students This projected commentary works on the assumption that access to the philosophical core of the text can only be gained through taking its literary ambitions seriously and that moreover these literary ambitions can only be understood as an attempt to realise philosophical ideas This is a book that is designed to be read alongside Nietzsche and will therefore make the reading and appreciation of the primary material achievable This approach will be welcomed by students and lecturers alike practical application in this dynamic and still growing field The Mask of Enlightenment Stanley Rosen,2004-01-01 This landmark study is a detailed textual and thematic analysis of one of Nietzsche's most important but least understood works Stanley Rosen argues that in Zarathustra Nietzsche lays the groundwork for philosophical and political revolution proposing a change in humanity's condition that would be achieved by eliminating the decadent existing race and breeding a new race to take its place Rosen discusses Nietzsche's systematically duplicitous rhetoric of esoteric messages in Zarathustra and he places the book in the contexts of Greek Christian Enlightenment and postmodernist thought Analysis Data Inputs and Sensitivity Tests in War Games John Lough Overholt,1971 The author discusses war gaming as an analytical tool for examining the effectiveness of various alternate courses of action or of military equipment and the role analysis has in the game Wars and war games require sets of rules The opposing sides attempt to select courses of actions which are favorable to each within these rules Paradoxically the great leaders find ways to break the rules as well as use them well in war decisions are changed which may not be tested when the rules are rigidly followed in a computer simulation Author The Engineer ,1990 Cognitive-Behavioral Conjoint Therapy for PTSD Candice M. Monson,Steffany J. Fredman,2012-07-19 Presenting an evidence based treatment for couples in which one or both partners suffer from posttraumatic stress disorder PTSD this step by step manual is packed with practical clinical guidance and tools The therapy is carefully structured to address both PTSD symptoms and associated relationship difficulties in a time limited framework It is grounded in cutting edge knowledge about interpersonal aspects of trauma and its treatment Detailed session outlines and therapist scripts facilitate the entire process of assessment case conceptualization and intervention In a large size format for easy photocopying the book includes 50 reproducible handouts and forms Intentions in Great Power Politics Sebastian Rosato,2021-04-20 Why the future of great power politics is likely to resemble its dismal past Can great powers be confident that their peers have benign intentions States that trust each other can live at peace those that mistrust each other are doomed to compete for arms and allies and may even go to war Sebastian Rosato explains that states routinely lack the kind of information they need to be convinced that their rivals mean them no harm Even in cases that supposedly involved mutual trust Germany and Russia in the Bismarck era Britain and the United States during the great rapprochement France and Germany and Japan and the United States in the early interwar period and the Soviet Union and United States at the end of the Cold War the protagonists mistrusted each other and struggled for advantage Rosato argues that the ramifications of his argument for U S China relations are profound the future of great power politics is likely to resemble its dismal past

When Getting Along Is Not Enough Maureen Walker,2019 Now more than ever race has become a morphing relational dynamic that has less to do with the demographic census box we check and more with how we make sense of our lives who we are and who we can become in relationships with others Using anecdotes from her practice as a licensed psychologist and as an African American growing up in the South Walker provides a way for educators and social service professionals to enter into cross racial discussions about race and race relations She identifies three essential relational skills for personal transformation and cultural healing that are the foundations for repairing the damage wrought by racism While Walker does not sugarcoat the destructive history of racism that we all inherit in the United States the book's vision is ultimately affirming empowering hopeful and inclusive about the individual and collective power to heal our divisions and disconnections Book Features Presents a new way of understanding race as a relational dynamic and racism as a symptom of disconnection Synthesizes for the first time two important systems of thought relational cultural theory and race social identity theory Includes Pause to Reflect exercises designed to stimulate group conversations in book clubs social justice groups staff development classrooms and workplace training Offers practical everyday solutions for people of different races to better understand and accept one another

Air Campaigns of the Pacific War United States Strategic Bombing Survey, 1947 United States Strategic Bombing Survey, 1945 The Ideological Origins of Great Power Politics, 1789-1989 Mark L. Haas, 2005 How do leaders perceive threat levels in world politics and what effects do those perceptions have on policy choices Mark L Haas focuses on how ideology shapes perception He does not delineate the content of particular ideologies but rather the degree of difference among them Degree of ideological difference is he believes the crucial factor as leaders decide which nations threaten and which bolster their state's security and their own domestic power These threat perceptions will in turn impel leaders to make particular foreign policy choices Haas examines great power relations in five periods the 1790s in Europe the Concert of Europe 1815-1848 the 1930s in Europe Sino Soviet relations from 1949 to 1960 and the end of the Cold War In each case he finds a clear relationship between the degree of ideological differences that divided state leaders and those leaders' perceptions of threat level and so of appropriate foreign policy choices These relationships held in most cases regardless of the nature of the ideologies in question the offense defense balance and changes in the international distribution of power
