Best Essays NW Guy B. Maynard, 2003 In this thoughtful collection of essays some of the region's most notable writers join fresh new literary voices in an exploration of life in the Northwest from rural to urban coastal rainforest to sagebrush desert One writer loses all her earthly belongings in her family's twice yearly migration across an Alaskan bay Another waits by a hospital bed in Idaho after a rodeo accident nearly breaks her father in half A writer stands on a dune waiting for the wind to erase his footprints while another lovingly recounts the simple ritual that marks the end of an era at a mill in Central Oregon Drawn from the pages of Oregon Quarterly the University of Oregon's award winning magazine and the annual Oregon Quarterly Northwest Perspectives Essay Contest these pieces stand alone as lyrical engaging works of literature and at the same time come together to form a portrait of the varied culture and landscape of the Pacific Northwest Contributors include Robin Cody John Daniel Brian Doyle Leslie Leyland Fields Debra Gwartney Robert Leo Heilman Lauren Kessler Kim Stafford Northwestern University Record Northwestern University (Evanston, Ill.). Northwestern Law Review, 1895 Conversations with Barry Lopez William E. Tydeman, 2013-08-26 Known as an advocate for the endangered earth Barry Lopez is one of America's preeminent writers on nature This invigorating book invites readers to sit down with Lopez and his friend William E Tydeman to engage with their conversations about activism the life of the mind and all things literary Even readers who think they know everything there is to know about Lopez will learn much from this richly informative book both from Tydeman's concise biography of Lopez and from the dialogue about Lopez's ideas and experiences. The three interviews and Tydeman's reflections on other discussions with Lopez gathered here address nature, human beings' relationship to the land, the tension between political activism and the life of the intellectual, memory and reconciliation, the artist's social responsibility and the business of authorship. What is the nature of the relationship between the writer and the reader? Lopez asks. It's reciprocal, contractual and moral. Lopez's thoughts on the importance of authenticity will resonate with every reader or writer, as will his deep commitment to story in all his work. He and Tydeman engage in illuminating exchanges on style and genre, the publication process and relationships among authors, editors and publishers. Both men are interested in photography and its relationship to writing, a subject on which they offer thought-provoking comments. A comprehensive annotated bibliography of Lopez's writings by archivist Diane Warner rounds out the volume.
