Demonizing the Other Robert S. Wistrich, 2013-03-07 At the close of the twentieth century the stereotyping and demonization of others whether on religious nationalist racist or political grounds has become a burning issue Yet comparatively little attention has been paid to how and why we fabricate images of the other as an enemy or demon to be destroyed This innovative book fills that gap through an interdisciplinary cross cultural approach that brings together a distinguished array of historians anthropologists psychologists literary critics and feminists The historical sweep covers Greco Roman Antiquity the Middle Ages and the Modern Era Antisemitism receives special attention because of its longevity and centrality to the Holocaust but it is analyzed here within the much broader framework of racism and xenophobia The plurality of viewpoints expressed in this volume provide fascinating insights into what is common and what is unique to the many varieties of prejudice stereotyping demonization and hatred

The Invention of Racism in Classical Antiquity Benjamin Isaac, 2004 The Invention of Racism in Classical Antiquity further suggests that an understanding of ancient attitudes toward other peoples shed light not only on Greco Roman imperialism and the ideology of enslavement of foreigners in those societies and on foreigners concomitant integration or non integration but also on the disintegration of the Roman Empire and on more recent imperialism as well

The Gothic Other Ruth Bienstock Anolik, Douglas L. Howard, 2014-09-26 Literary use of the Gothic is marked by an anxious encounter with otherness with the dark and mysterious unknown From its earliest manifestations in the turbulent eighteenth century this seemingly escapist mode has provided for authors a useful ground upon which to safely confront very real fears and horrors The essays here examine texts in which Gothic fear is relocated onto the figure of the racial and social Other the Other who replaces the supernatural ghost or grotesque monster as the code for mystery and danger ultimately becoming as horrifying threatening and unknowable as the typical Gothic manifestation The range of essays reveals that writers from many canons and cultures are attracted to the Gothic as a ready medium for expression of racial and social anxieties The essays are grouped into sections that focus on such topics as race religion class and centers of power "Into Life." Franz Rosenzweig on Knowledge, Aesthetics, and Politics, 2021-07-26 The articles collected in Into Life Franz Rosenzweig on Knowledge Aesthetics and Politics focus on the significance of Franz Rosenzweig's work far beyond the realms of theology and philosophy of religion They engage with a wide range of issues in philosophy and offer new insights both by presenting an array of unpublished and underestimated sources and by bringing Rosenzweig's thought into dialogue with new approaches and interlocutors such as Stanley Cavell William Alston Carl Schmitt and Martin Heidegger The result is a refreshing and original perspective on the work of one of the most significant thinkers of the twentieth century Gods and Demons, Priests and Scholars Bruce Lincoln, 2012-04-16 The author discusses the study of religion including its history gods and pantheons demons and monsters and morality and power The Making of the Modern Self Dror Wahrman, Ruth N Halls Professor of History Dror Wahrman, 2004-01-01 Wahrman argues that toward the end of the 18th century there was a radical change in notions of self personal identity a sudden transformation that was a revolution in the understanding of selfhood of identity categories including race gender class Philosophy of Race Naomi Zack, 2023-04-27 Philosophy of Race An Introduction provides plainly written access to a new subfield that has been in the background of philosophy since Plato and Aristotle The second edition is updated to include contemporary developments such as digital racism metaphysical othering and metaphysical racism and the rise of populist movements Its focus has also been expanded to address non white racial groups in the Americas Europe and beyond such as the Roma and Uighur people Part I provides an overview of ideas of race and ethnicity in the philosophical canon egalitarian traditions race in biology and race in American and Continental Philosophy Part II addresses race as it operates in life through colonialism and development social constructions and institutions racism political philosophy gender and populist movements This book constructs an outline that will serve as a resource for students nonspecialists and general readers in thinking talking and writing about philosophy of race
