Demons And Angels A Life Of Jacob Epstein:

Demons and Angels June Rose, 2002 A fascinating portrait of one of the key figures in twentieth century art chronicles the rags to riches story of Jacob Epstein from his poverty stricken New York youth to his extraordinary success and influence as a sculptor at the time of his death and details his frequently turbulent personal life his role as an iconoclast in art circles and more

Daemons and Angels June Rose, 2002 A biography of controversial sculptor Jacob Epstein Epstein was born in 1880 in the Jewish ghetto of New York but by his death in 1959 he had met almost everybody of importance in the art world This work contains an account of his tangled private life and its resonance in his work

COMING, NOT GOING Wendy Jennings, 2019-09-17 This is a record of a search but what matters is the finding It began when the death of my husband a priest jolted me into recognising that the belonging I had always thought I had inside traditional Church doctrine and liturgy wasn't there no connection between it and the feeling quick of me Urgent and hungry for understanding with my back to the Church door I found myself suddenly focusing on creativity on the description of a creator God making man in his own image That set me searching the work and words of some of the greatest creators painters sculptors musicians writers and then scientists for clues to the possibility or not of an over arching creativity What I've found has astonished me extraordinary coherence of creative experiences across cultures and centuries coherence that insists on both the breath taking glories and mysteries of a physical world that is patterned yet open Rich feeding of my inside life but more creativity mirroring that of the adult Jesus in the Gospels turning my sense of a possible God of holiness and what it is to be human inside out

'Our Little Gang' James King, 2025-07-13 Through text and full color illustrations uncovers the lives and times of the unruly Vorticists whose innovative abstract artworks shattered early twentieth century conventions The Vorticists a rebellious cohort of young artists in early twentieth century England defied the conventions of the art world with their distinctive abstract creations Despite the brevity of their existence from 1911 to 1914 their startling innovations left an indelible mark on English art history In this book James King explores the personalities and lives of these colorful individuals capturing the tumultuous environment in which they thrived The narrative presents biographies of the group's members such as Jessica Dismorr Wyndham Lewis William Roberts Helen Saunders and Edward Wadsworth our little gang as Ezra Pound called them highlighting personal conflicts and providing a concise highly readable history of the movement This book is ideal for art enthusiasts historians and anyone intrigued by avant garde movements of the early twentieth century

Modern Art and the Life of a Culture Jonathan A. Anderson, William A. Dyrness, 2016-05-23 In 1970 Hans Rookmaaker published Modern Art and the Death of a Culture a groundbreaking work that considered the role of the Christian artist in society This volume responds to his work by bringing together a practicing artist and a theologian who argue that modernist art is underwritten by deeply religious concerns

The Image of Christ in Modern Art Richard Harries, 2016-03-03 The Image of Christ in Modern Art explores the challenges presented by the radical and rapid changes of artistic style in the 20th century to artists who wished to relate to traditional Christian imagery In the 1930s David Jones said that he and his contemporaries were acutely conscious of the break by which he meant the fragmentation and loss of a once widely shared Christian narrative and set of images In this highly illustrated book Richard Harries looks at some of the artists associated with the birth of modernism such as Epstein and Rouault as well as those with a highly distinctive understanding of religion such as Chagall and Stanley Spencer He discusses the revival of confidence associated with the rebuilding of Coventry Cathedral after World War II and the commissioning of work by artists like Henry Moore Graham Sutherland and John Piper before looking at the very testing last quarter of the 20th century He shows how here and even more in our own time fresh and important visual interpretations of Christ have been created both by well known and less well known artists In conclusion he suggests that the modern movement in art has turned out to be a friend not a foe of Christian art Through a wide and beautiful range of images and insightful text Harries explores the continuing challenge present from the beginning of Christian art as to how that which is visual can in some way indicate the transcendent

Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists Samantha Baskind, 2007 Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists presents over 80 19th and 20 century Jewish American artists ranging from the critically neglected Theresa Bernstein Ruth Gikow and Jennings Tofel to the well known Eva Hesse Roy Lichtenstein and Larry Rivers The subject matter of some of these artists may surprise readers Adolph Gottlieb designed and supervised the fabrication of a 35 foot wide four story high stained glass facade for a synagogue Louise Nevelson sculpted a Holocaust memorial and Philip Pearlstein painted a version of Moses with the Tablets of the Law early in his career Covering painters sculptors printmakers and photographers as well as artists who engage in newer forms of visual expression such as video conceptual and performance art the book is in part intended to stimulate further scholarship on these artists When appropriate entries reveal the influence of the Jewish American encounter on the artists work along with other factors such as gender and the immigrant experience In many cases the artists own words are employed to flesh out perspectives on their art as well as on their Jewish identity To that end the volume contains excerpts from recent interviews conducted by the author with some of the artists including Judy Chicago Audrey Flack Jack Levine and Sol LeWitt Illustrations accompanying each artist s entry some in color aid this invaluable look at Jewish American art

Vitalism in Modern Art, C. 1900-1950 Richard A. Lofthouse, 2005 Lofthouse fellow modern history Oxford U sketches an overview of the vitalist moment of the early 20th century a moment which re enchanted life in the face of mechanistic onslaught sought a reprieve from the more demoralizing implications of evolutionary inquiry and left open a space for spirit or even God in nature then pursues vitalism in modernism and modern art He emphasizes Germany and Great Britain focusing on the artists Dix Spencer Beckmann and Epstein The study includes nine color plates and about a dozen b w images of the four artists and their work Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com

Art, Memoir and Jung Juliet Miller, 2020-10-26 In this intimate study Juliet Miller maps the artworks that have influenced her throughout her life and examines how she has integrated them into her development as a psychotherapist Working from the premise that our initial reactions to art provide a crucial key to self analysis Miller interrogates the significance of different artists including Bourgeois Vermeer Rousseau and Kahlo and analyses how personal circumstances recollections and emotions have affected responses to their work Chapters incorporate clinical material from Miller s practice linking into her own anxieties about sitting with and connecting with patients and touching on themes including creativity character identity and communication Through this exploration she questions many of the conventions of art and psychotherapy and suggests ways in which looking at art can be used as a psychological tool Art Memoir and Jung offers a highly personal and innovative perspective on meaning in art and how it can be used to explore Jungian thought as based in the aesthetic and how the aesthetic can inform depth psychology Library Journal ,2002 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Rethinking G.K. Chesterton and Literary Modernism Michael Shallcross,2017-11-27 This book comprehensively rethinks the relationship between G K Chesterton and a range of key literary modernists When Chesterton and modernism have previously been considered in relation to one another the dynamic has typically been conceived as one of mutual hostility grounded in Chesterton s advocacy of popular culture and modernist literature s appeal to an aesthetic elite In setting out to challenge this binary narrative Shallcross establishes for the first time the depth and ambivalence of Chesterton s engagement with modernism as well as the reciprocal fascination of leading modernist writers with Chesterton s fiction and thought Shallcross argues that this dynamic was defined by various forms of parody and performance and that these histrionic expressions of cultural play not only suffused the era but found particular embodiment in Chesterton s public persona This reading not only enables a far reaching reassessment of Chesterton s corpus but also produces a framework through which to re evaluate the creative and critical projects of a host of modernist writers most sustainedly T S Eliot Wyndham Lewis and Ezra Pound through the prism of Chesterton s disruptive presence The result is an innovative study of the literary performance of popular and high culture in early twentieth century Britain which adds a valuable new perspective to continuing critical debates on the parameters of modernism Public Library Catalog Juliette Yaakov,2004 More than 8 000 books in the main volume More than 2 400 new titles in annual paperbound supplements More than 2 000 analytic entries for items in collections and anthologies Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2003 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Der Jesus-Skandal Martin Faass,2009 □□□□ 2003, □□□ Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002 A History of the Jews in Babylonia, Part 5.
