Den Menschen Mit Dem Himmel Verbinden:

Den Menschen mit dem Himmel verbinden Peter Bruns, 1995 Die katechetischen Homilien Theodors von Mopsuestia eines der grossten Exegeten und Dogmatiker der Alten Kirche sind nicht im griechischen Original auf uns gekommen sondern in der Volks und Literatursprache des christlichen Orients dem Syrischen Die Grunde hierfür sind bekannt sie liegen in der mit Leidenschaft und Erbitterung geführten Debatte um die Rechtgläubigkeit seiner Positionen Die vorliegende Studie mochte einen ersten Einblick in das theologische Denken des Bischofs von Mopsuestia bieten und zu einem vertieften Verstandnis seines Werkes anregen Die Grundidee die sich hinter den Einzelthemen verbirgt ist die rechte Verbindung und Zuordnung von Gottlichem und Menschlichem Ewigem und Zeitlichem Unwandelbarem und Vergänglichem The Portrayal of Christ in the Syriac Commentary on the Diatessaron Christian Lange, Christian M. W. Lange, 2005 For a long time the Diatessaron has drawn the interest of modern scholars Some of the problems related to the Syriac Harmony of the Gospels have been solved Others still remain in dispute The Syriac Commentary on the Diatessaron attributed to Ephraem 306 373 is one of the most important witnesses to the wording of the Harmony Unfortunately most of the surviving Syriac folios of the text have been discovered only recently Consequently no detailed study on the Commentary has been undertaken yet It is the aim of this study to present this scholarly demand This Oxford dissertation deals with the questions of the difficult process of the Commentary's transmission and analyses both the Trinitarian and Christological understanding of its author By way of a comparison with the genuine Ephraem this study argues that the Commentary in its present form is a compilation from the hand of one of his disciples However it serves as an important source on the theological discussions in the Edessa of the late fourth and early fifth centuries Theodor von Mopsuestia und das Nicänum Simon

Gerber, 2015-12-22 Around 392 Theodore of Mopsuestia delivered his homilies to candidates for baptism Using Theodore's homilies this work studies the reception and influence of the Nicene Creed in the imperial church since Theodosius Passed at Nic a in 325 the Creed became an official dogma of the empire in 380 81 What was its role in the life of the church and in the theological controversies of the subsequent years At which point did the people start to pay attention to its exact original wording To which extent were Theodore's theological teachings influenced by the trinitarian dogma of Nic a The text of Theodore's Baptismal Creed is reconstructed in both its Syriac and Greek versions It proves to be one of the most important sources of the Nic no Constantinopolitan Creed of 381 Reading the Way to the Netherworld Ilinca

Tanaseanu-Döbler, Gabriela Ryser, 2016-12-05 The volume focuses on the various representations of the Beyond in later Antiquity a period of intense interaction and competition between various religious traditions and ideals of education The concepts and images clustering around the Beyond form a crucial focal point for understanding the dynamics of religion and education in later Antiquity Although Christianity gradually supersedes the pagan traditions the literary representations of the Beyond derived from classical literature and transmitted through the texts read at school show a remarkable persistence they influence Christian late antique writers and are still alive in medieval literature of the East and West. A specifically Christian Beyond develops only gradually and coexists subsequently with pagan ideas which in turn vary according to the respective literary and philosophical contexts. Thus the various conceptualisations of the great existential unknown serves here as a point of reference for mirroring the changes and continuities in Imperial and Late Antique religion, education and culture and opening up further perspectives into the Medieval world.

Die Lehre von der Oikonomia Gottes in der Oratio catechetica Gregors von Nyssa R.J. Kees, 2015-12-22. This volume deals with Gregory of Nyssa's soteriology as set forth in his handbook for catechetes. In part I-III the aim, method and structure of the Oratio catechetica are examined and the results are compared with Gregory's examples Origen and Athanasius. Part IV presents the relationship between his theology/theologia and soteriology/oikonomia as well as the interrelated topics of that soteriology, thus describing the concept of oikonomia in the Oratio catechetica. Part V contrasts this concept with earlier works of Gregory and shows the developments of his thought. Part VI compares the teachings of Gregory with those of Methodius and Athanasius. The book is important for all those interested in early Christian thought and literature.

Georgian Christian Thought and Its Cultural Context Tamar Nutsubidze, Cornelia B. Horn, Basil Lourié, 2014-03-13. The volume contains contributions dedicated to the person and the work of Shalva Nutsubidze and his scholarly interests: the Christian Orient from the fifth to the seventh century, the Georgian eleventh century, the Neoplatonic philosopher Ioane Petritsi and his epoch, and Shota Rustaveli and mediaeval Georgian culture. Among the articles are a new edition and translation of the original Georgian author's Preface to the lost Commentary on the Psalms by Ioane Petritsi and the editio princeps with an English translation of an epistle of Nicetas Stethatos, eleventh century, whose Greek original is lost. The traditions of Georgian mediaeval thought are considered in their historical context within the Byzantine Commonwealth and are traced in both philosophy and poetry.
