The Nordic Countries and the European Union Caroline Grøn, Peter Nedergaard, Anders Wivel, 2015-02-20 In European policy making the Nordic countries are often viewed as a relatively coherent bloc in international and European affairs the Nordic position has traditionally been conditioned on being different from and better than Europe This book offers a coherent original and systematic comparative analysis of the relationship between the Nordic countries and the European Union over the past two decades It looks at the historical frame institutions and policy areas addressing both traditional EU areas such as agriculture and more nascent areas affecting the domestic and foreign policies of the Nordic countries In doing so it examines how the Nordic approach to European policy making has developed and explains why the Nordic countries are similar in some respects while differing in
