Denuclearisation Of The Oceans:

The Denuclearisation of the Oceans R. B. Byers, 2022-12-15 In the 1980s concern throughout the world was growing about the use of the oceans by nuclear powered naval vessels and naval vessels carrying nuclear weapons Many countries were keen to keep their ports and the waters off their coastlines nuclear free Originally published in 1986 this book presents a worldwide survey of the state of the nuclear use of the oceans and assesses the prospects for denuclearisation at the time It looks at the legal background the practical issues and the attitudes and positions in different parts of the world while regional efforts of disarmament and arms control are necessary so are global efforts At the same time international legal norms including the Law of the Sea must be adopted and utilized in the ever difficult search for world peace Arvid Pardo

Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1987-07 Superpowers at Sea Richard W. Fieldhouse, Shunji Taoka, 1989 The arms race at sea is a dangerous nuclear race which is causing growing international concern and must be brought under control What are the hard facts about the situation This book documents the realities of the competition especially the nuclearization of naval forces and dispels some of the myths surrounding the naval arms race This incisive analysis of naval forces of the East and West concludes that contrary to common perceptions the US and its allies have a considerable military advantage over the Soviet Navy a trend which is expected to continue for the foreseeable future The authors describe in detail the widespread nuclearization of naval forces of all five nuclear navies analyse the implications for security and arms control and conclude with suggestions for possible arms control measures Alva Myrdal: A Pioneer in Nuclear Disarmament Peter Wallensteen, Armend Bekaj, 2022-09-21 This book is about the importance of nuclear disarmament and the work pursued by Alva Myrdal a pioneering social activist diplomat cabinet minister and disarmament negotiator She was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1982 together with Alfonso Garcia Robles for their work for disarmament and nuclear and weapon free zones Prominent academics politicians and practitioners have contributed reflections on Myrdal s achievements and their impact on the world today Furthermore a sample of Myrdal s own writings on nuclear disarmament are included as well as significant speeches and a bibliography of her publications on nuclear matters Alva Myrdal was born in Uppsala Sweden in 1902 graduated from college in Stockholm in 1924 and continued higher education at Uppsala University in the 1930s She was a prolific author and reformer specializing in social affairs women s roles and nuclear disarmament She was Sweden s Ambassador to India in the 1950s for Nuclear Disarmament in the 1960s and 1970s and a member of the Cabinet 1967 1973 Her most well known works are The Game of Disarmament 1976 Nation and Family 1941 and Women s Two Roles 1956 with Viola Klein Her book The Game of Disarmament 1976 is a key work in disarmament The Alva Myrdal Centre for Nuclear Disarmament was set up at Uppsala University in 2021 to contribute new ideas and concrete measures towards the elimination of nuclear weapons Both editors are associated with the Centre Professor Peter Wallensteen as a member of the board and leader of one of its working groups and Dr Armend Bekaj as a researcher This book is relevant for students of international relations and policy makers on issues of peace and conflict It provides background documentation on the difficulties in achieving disarmament It illustrates the significant role women can play to infuse new ideas into a men s world It displays the importance of persistence rationality ingenuity and knowledge in furthering nuclear disarmament It shows that Alva Myrdal s efforts can be an inspiration for new generations Arms Control At Sea J Richard Hill,2024-04-01 Originally published in 1989 this book reviews the history of maritime control measures from before the First World War and provides a critical examination of both the objectives of maritime power and the concepts of disarmament peace zones parity verifiability and peaceful co existence It argues that the objectives of maritime power are not necessarily incompatible with international security and that strategic deterrence can contribute to improved security Limitation measures it is argued can in some cases be double edged endangering other security fields and having a destabilizing effect The book stresses the need for non absolute solutions in order to achieve a reasonable level of security and makes proposals for both structural and confidence building measures along those lines The ANZUS Crisis, Nuclear Visiting and Deterrence Michael Pugh,1989 The development of nuclear weapons has been a critical problem for the NATO alliance In the Pacific a region of increasing strategic interest for the United States and Soviet Union nuclear weapons have been an environmental concern since the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Opposition to nuclear tests has now been taken a step further with the creation of a South pacific Nuclear Free Zone and the decision by a New Zealand Government to ban port visits by vessels believed to be carrying nuclear weapons New Zealand s proposal to back its policy with legislation had been seen by the Reagan and Thatcher administrations as a threat to the principle of neither confirm nor deny the presence of nuclear weapons on vessels This 1989 study examines the questions of principle at issue the evolution of the ANZUS crisis its implications for the Western alliance structure as a whole and the degree to which the nuclear free virus in the South Pacific might be catching

Perspectives on Security in Indian Ocean Region Devendra Kaushik,1987 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1987-06 Ordering the Oceans Clyde Sanger,1987 Security at Sea Stockholm International Peace Research Institute,1990 Since the Second World War five navies are known to have acquired nuclear weapons and naval forces and activities around the world have become increasingly important and dangerous However there has been no serious consideration of naval arms control for more than forty years SIPRI gathered together a group of experts from eight nations to consider the problems of naval forces and the possibilities for arms control This book is a product of that conference and it presents for the first time a broad and detailed assessment of the dangers of the naval arms race problems with arms control possible approaches confidence building measures and verification technologies Naval Weapons Systems and the Contemporary Law of War James J. Busuttil,1998 This book provides the first comprehensive critical analysis of the regulation of naval weapons during armed conflict It examines the experience this century with the use of naval mines submarines and anti ship missiles the three main naval weapons The sources of international law relevant to an assessment of the law that is the extant conventions state practice military manuals war crimes prosecutions and the opinions of publicists are each extensively examined so that a clear picture of the law emerges The book examines the impact of agreements drawn up in peacetime on wartime conduct and focuses on the growth of law through customary practice While stating the law as it is today it also provides suggestions for the practical development of the law Ocean Governance and the United Nations Elisabeth Mann Borgese, Dalhousie University. Centre for Foreign Policy Studies, 1995 The Meaning of the Nuclear Revolution Robert Jervis, 1989 A comprehensive analysis that thrusts Jervis into the front ranks of nuclear essayists Kirkus Reviews Robert Jervis argues here that the possibility of nuclear war has created a revolution in military strategy and international relations He examines how the potential for nuclear Armageddon has changed the meaning of war the psychology of statesmanship and the formulation of military policy by the superpowers Ocean Yearbook Elisabeth Mann Borgese, Norton Sydney Ginsburg, 1998 The Cold War Spencer C. Tucker, 2020-10-27 This sweeping reference work covers every aspect of the Cold War from its ignition in the ashes of World War II through the Berlin Wall and the Cuban Missile Crisis to the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 The Cold War superpower face off between the Soviet Union and the United States dominated international affairs in the second half of the 20th century and still reverberates around the world today This comprehensive and insightful multivolume set provides authoritative entries on all aspects of this world changing event including wars new military technologies diplomatic initiatives espionage activities important individuals and organizations economic developments societal and cultural events and more This expansive coverage provides readers with the necessary context to understand the many facets of this complex conflict The work begins with a preface and introduction and then offers illuminating introductory essays on the origins and course of the Cold War which are followed by some 1 500 entries on key individuals wars battles weapons systems diplomacy politics economics and art and culture Each entry has cross references and a list of books for further reading The text includes more than 100 key primary source documents a detailed chronology a glossary and a selective bibliography Numerous illustrations and maps are inset throughout to provide additional context to the material Nuclear Policy and National Security Attar Chand, 1993 With special reference to India The Ocean: Our Future Independent World Commission on the Oceans, 1998-09-17 The Ocean Our Future is the official report of the Independent World Commission on the Oceans chaired by Mario Soares This book is the first to deal holistically in a single volume with the full range of problems confronting our oceans on the eve of the twenty first century In the space of only a few decades our traditional perception of the oceans as a source of wealth opportunity and abundance has changed The oceans have become the setting for a growing list of problems territorial disputes disruptions to global climate overfishing species extinction pollution illegal trafficking and the destruction of coastal communities Based on the deliberations experience and input of some 100 specialists from around the world the book advances innovative ideas for improving governance of the oceans and coastal zones Written in an accessible manner this book will be valued by everyone
