Dalits' Struggle for Social Justice in Andhra Pradesh (1956-2008) Akepogu Jammanna, Pasala Sudhakar, 2016-12-14 The complete alienation of Dalits from resources like land water and agricultural implements has led to the collective demand for an equal share in productivity This book discusses the range of socio economic and cultural problems faced by the Dalit community The movement advancing the rights of Dalits took place both before and after independence however they varied in intensity and concerned land ownership and fair wages self respect social dignity and the demand for equal rights This movement appeared to have significantly changed the very mindset and attitude of upper caste people to restrain themselves and not to resort to any discrimination or humiliation of Dalits However this seems to have been only a temporary phenomenon and the practice of suppression and humiliation continues today This book explores the circumstances of Dalits

in the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh and the current efforts attempting to achieve more social equality for the caste here

The Ideology of Religious Studies Timothy Fitzgerald, 2003-10-16 In recent years there has been an intensifying debate within the religious studies community about the validity of religion as an analytical category In this book Fitzgerald sides with those who argue that the concept of religion itself should be abandoned On the basis of his own research in India and Japan and through a detailed analysis of the use of religion in a wide range of scholarly texts the author maintains that the comparative study of religion is really a form of liberal ecumenical theology By pretending to be a science religion significantly distorts socio cultural analysis He suggest however that religious studies can be re represented in a way which opens up new and productive theoretical connections with anthropology and cultural and literary studies The Journey of
