Der Ritter Vom Turn:

The Cult of Saint Katherine of Alexandria in Late-Medieval Nuremberg Anne Simon, 2016-03-16 Katherine of Alexandria was a major object of devotion within medieval Europe ranking second only to the Virgin Mary in the canon of female saints Yet despite her undoubted importance relatively little is known about the significance and function of her cult within the German speaking territories that stood at the heart of Europe Anne Simon's study adds a welcome new interdisciplinary perspective to the study of Saint Katherine and the wider ecclesiastical landscape of a medieval Europe poised on the edge of religious change Taking as a case study the wealthy and politically influential merchant city of Nuremberg this book draws on a wide variety of textual and visual sources to explore interrelated themes the shaping of urban space through the cult of Saint Katherine her role in the moulding and advertising patrician identity and alliances through cultural patronage and patrician use of the saint to showcase the city's political economic cultural and religious importance at the heart of the Holy Roman Empire Further the book reveals the construction of exemplarity in Saint Katherine's legend and miracles and their resonance within the context of the city and the Dominican Convent of Saint Katherine whose nuns came from the same status aware confident patrician elite that so loyally supported successive Emperors Filling a significant gap in current research the work has much to offer scholars of medieval history hagiography art history German studies cultural and urban studies Hence it not only expands our understanding of Saint Katherine's importance in German speaking territories but also adds to the picture of her cult in its European perspective Violence, Culture and Identity Helen Chambers, 2006 This volume contains selected papers given at the conference Violence Culture and Identity held at St Andrews University in 2003 It contributes to the debate on the role of culture in propagating mediating and controlling violence in society concentrating on the relationship between culture and identity formation in Germany and Austria from the Middle Ages to the present Bringing together the work of twenty two scholars with expertise in different literary and historical periods the volume probes the complexities of representations of violence enacted and suffered of affirmative and non affirmative violence in text and visual form revealing the often blurred line between victim and victimizer Violence in its discursive and material forms is investigated using the theoretical tools of sociology post colonial and gender studies history and psychology as well as of literary criticism The collection of essays focuses particularly on the relationship between war and identity on 1970s terrorism and identity on violence and the construction of gender and on contemporary writing in German Der Ritter vom Turn and the dawn of the renaissance in book illustration Frank Weitenkampf, 1931 The Graph of Sex and the German Text, 2022-06-08 , The Late Medieval Epistle Carol Poster, Richard J. Utz, 1996 This is the first volume in a series of studies on the late Middle Ages covering the period from around 1300 to 1550 Each volume aims to provide exhaustive and diverse treatments of one significant example of late medieval culture Volume one explores the late medieval epistle Marq - Or Wilhelm Kühlmann, 2010-09-29 Vollständig

The Secret Middle Ages Malcolm Jones, 2025-04-03 The Middle Ages are known as a god fearing time a time of hard work and of squalid living conditions for the majority of the population or as a time of opulence that graced only the courts and halls of the reigning monarch In The Secret Middle Ages Malcolm Jones presents a completely fresh view of the medieval world that will blow all stereotypes out of the water Using a wealth of little known and recently discovered artefacts and drawing particularly on humbler artworks Jones paints a compelling picture of the visual environment of the great mass of ordinary people between 1200 and 1550 The picture that emerges is of a civilisation that is both like and unlike our own one that teems with the richness of life and its contradictions We find beliefs and traditions rendered memorable by the vivid creative imagination and strong visual culture of the Middle Ages Love hatred crime and punishment proverbs heaven on earth husband beating all feature in the jewellery tableware illustrations carvings and textiles of the period A major reassessment of the high medieval period this revised and updated edition of The Secret Middle Ages is essential reading for anyone curious about their ancestors As Jones writes gems and precious metals may dazzle the eye but a pewter brooch tawdry as it may appear has the power to reveal far more of the real medieval world

Iconotropism Ellen Spolsky, 2004 The essays in this collection expand the boundaries of inter art studies claiming that human beings have evolved to draw nourishment from pictures Ellen Spolsky argues in a polemical introduction that the recognition of our embodied need for pictures that is our human iconotropism provides a fresh way of understanding the relationship of works of art to their historical contexts Jacket

Early Printed Narrative Literature in Western Europe Bart Besamusca, Elisabeth de Bruijn, Frank Willaert, 2019-11-05 The essays in this volume are concerned with early printed narrative texts in Western Europe The aim of this book is to consider to what extent the shift from hand written to printed books left its mark on narrative literature in a number of vernacular languages Did the advent of printing bring about changes in the corpus of narrative texts when compared with the corpus extant in manuscript copies Did narrative texts that already existed in manuscript form undergo significant modifications when they began to be printed How did this crucial media development affect the nature of these narratives Which strategies did early printers develop to make their texts commercially attractive Which social classes were the target audiences for their editions Around half of the articles focus on developments in the history of early printed narrative texts others discuss publication strategies This book provides an impetus for cross linguistic research It invites scholars from various disciplines to get involved in an international conversation about fifteenth and sixteenth century narrative literature

The Moment of Self-Portraiture in German Renaissance Art Joseph Leo Koerner, 1993 So foundational is this invention to modern aesthetics Koerner argues that interpreting it takes us to the limits of traditional art historical method Self portraiture becomes legible less through a history leading up to it or through a sum of contexts that occasion it than through its historical sight line to the present After a thorough examination of Dürer's startlingly new self portraits the author turns to the work of Baldung Dürer's most gifted pupil and demonstrates how the apprentice willfully disfigured Dürer's vision Baldung replaced the master's self portraits with some of the most obscene and bizarre pictures in the history of art In images of nude witches animated cadavers and copulating horses Baldung portrays the debased self of the viewer as the true subject of art The Moment of Self Portraiture thus unfolds as passages from teacher to student artist to viewer reception all within a culture that at once deified and abhorred originality
