Clwyd covering the former counties of Denbighshire and Flintshire is exceptionally rewarding in architecture the medieval period has left a fine legacy including castles of the time of Edward I as sophisticated as any in Europe the monastic ruins of Basingwerk and Valle Crucis and the distinctive local double nave type of Perpendicular church Country houses range in size and ambition from Erddig Kinmel and Chirk Castle to a host of lesser buildings humbler but still of quality Towns such as Denbigh and Ruthin village groups and Victorian seaside resorts all add to the pattern of styles and materials a pattern further enriched by relics of the Industrial revolution and the striking diversity of vernacular styles Landranger Map 0116
