vividly intensely passionately and on a grand scale She wanted the persistence of C zanne and the depth and generosity of Rilke Once she acclimated herself to America the dreamy lyric poetry of her early years gave way to the joy and wonder of ordinary life By the late 1960s and early 1970s however her poems began to engage the issues of her times Vehement and strident her poetry of protest was both acclaimed and criticized The end of both the Vietnam War and her marriage left her mentally fatigued and emotionally fragile but gradually over the span of a decade she emerged with new energy The crystalline and luminous poetry of her last years stands as final witness to a lifetime of searching for the mystery embedded in life itself Through all the vagaries of life and art her response was that of a primary wonder In this illuminating biography Dana Greene examines Levertov s interviews essays and self revelatory poetry to discern the conflict and torment she both endured and created in her attempts to deal with her own psyche her relationships with family friends lovers colleagues and the times in which she lived Denise Levertov A Poet s Life is the first complete biography of Levertov a woman who claimed she did not want a biography insisting that it was her work that she hoped would endure And yet she confessed that her poetry in its various forms lyric political natural and religious derived from her life experience Although a substantial body of criticism has established Levertov as a major poet of the later twentieth century this volume represents the first attempt to set her poetry within the framework of her often tumultuous life
