Denise Levertov Dana Greene,2012-09-14 Levertov was the quintessential romantic She wanted to live vividly intensely passionately and on a grand scale Once she acclimated herself to America the dreamy lyric poetry of her early years gave way to the joy and wonder of ordinary life By the late 1960s and early 1970s however her poems began to engage the issues of her times The crystalline and luminous poetry of her last years stands as final witness to a lifetime of searching for the mystery embedded in life itself This volume represents the first attempt to set Levertov s poetry within the framework of her often tumultuous life A Study Guide for Denise Levertov's "In the Land of Shinar" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016 A Study

Duncan and Denise Levertov Albert Gelpi,Robert J. Bertholf,2006 A distinguished group of critics examine the close association between Robert Duncan and Denise Levertov two poets central to the American postwar period and the issues of form and meaning that drew them together and then split them apart especially the question of the relation between poetry and politics the private and public responsibilities of the poet A Study Guide for Denise Levertov's "Illustrious

Ancestors" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Denise Levertov s Illustrious Ancestors excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Studentsfor all of your research needs Making Nature Sacred John Gatta,2004-10-14 Since colonial times the sense of encountering an unseen transcendental Presence within the natural world has been a characteristic motif in American literature and culture American writers have repeatedly perceived in nature something beyond itself and beyond themselves In this book John Gatta argues that the religious import of American environmental literature has yet to be fully recognized or understood Whatever their theology American writers have perennially construed the nonhuman world to be a source in Rachel Carson s words of something that takes us out of ourselves Making Nature Sacred explores how the quest for natural revelation has been pursued through successive phases of American literary and intellectual history And it shows how the imaginative challenge of reading landscapes has been influenced by biblical hermeneutics Though focused on adaptations of Judeo Christian religious traditions it also samples Native American African American and Buddhist forms of ecospirituality It begins with Colonial New England writers such Anne Bradstreet and Jonathan Edwards re examines pivotal figures such as Henry Thoreau and John Muir and takes account of writings by Mary Austin Rachel Carson and many others along the way

The book concludes with an assessment of the spiritual renaissance underway in current environmental writing as represented by five noteworthy poets and by authors such as Wendell Berry Annie Dillard Marilynne Robinson Peter Matthiessen and Barry Lopez This engaging study should appeal not only to students of literature but also to those interested in ethics and environmental studies religious studies and American cultural history “this need to dance / this need to kneel” Michael P. Murphy, Melissa Bradshaw, 2019-09-17 That Denise Levertov 1923-97 was one of the most pioneering and skilled poets of her generation is beyond dispute Her masterly use of language innovative experimentations with organic form and the political acuity disclosed by her activist poetry are well marked by critical communities But it is also quite clear that the poems Levertov wrote in the last twenty years of her life with their more explicit focus on theological themes and subjects are among the best poems written on religious experience of any century let alone the twentieth The collection of essays gathered here shed vital light on this neglected aspect of Levertov studies so as to expand and enrich the scope of critical engagement In a mixture of theoretical considerations and close readings these essays provide valuable reflections about the complex relationship between poetry and belief and offer philosophically robust insights into different styles of poetic imagination The abiding hope is to broaden the terrain for discussions in twenty first century theology literary theory poetics and aesthetics honoring immanence exploring transcendence and dwelling with integrity within the spaces between

New Medievalisms Javier Martín-Párraga, Juan de Dios Torralbo-Caballero, 2016-02-08 The current renewed interest in Medieval culture literature and society is evident in recent fictional works such as Game of Thrones or the cinematographic adaptations of Tolkien's pseudo medieval universe From a more academic viewpoint there are a number of excellent journals and book series devoted to scholarly analysis of English Medieval language and literature While traditional Medieval scholars use several valid vehicles for communication those researchers who favour more innovative or eclectic approaches are not often given the same opportunities New Medievalisms is unique in that it offers such scholars a platform to showcase their academic prestige and the quality and originality of their investigations This multidisciplinary collection of essays includes six chapters and nineteen articles in which twenty one renowned scholars analyse a wide range of issues related to Medieval England from the Beowulf saga to echoes of Medieval literature in contemporary fiction translation or didactics As a result the book is both kaleidoscopic and daring as well as rigorous and accurate American Poetry David Caplan, 2022 American poetry's two characteristics American English as a poetic resource Convention and idiosyncrasy Auden and Eliot two complicating examples On the present and future of American poetry Rewriting the Word "God" Romana Huk, 2025 Innovative poetry philosophy theology and new sciences converge in the project of rewriting the word God In Rewriting the Word God Romana Huk examines the substantive connections between innovative poetry of the last century and contemporary theology and philosophy Along the way we encounter ten poets who have without abandoning their inherited or chosen faith traditions radically rethought conceptualizations of divinity human ontology and the real From the startlingly proto phenomenological encounters with nature by Gerard Manley Hopkins to the post deconstructive pursuit of oracular speech in Fanny Howe these poets have found inspiration in a wide range of sources from ancient religious texts to modern philosophical movements But what unites them is their willingness to continually change experiment and challenge the status quo both in their religious beliefs and their poetic practice Huk shows how these poets have used their work to explore ultimate questions of life and death meaning and purpose and the relationship between humans and materiality humans and other humans which for these poets sheds light on humanity s relationship with the divine She also highlights the ways in which they have engaged with social and political issues in their poetry to speak out against injustice and oppression Rewriting the Word God is a thought provoking and inspiring work that will challenge current perceptions of both religion and poetry from new positions at the intersection of faith art philosophy science literary theory and culture

The Poetry Circuit Peter B. Howarth, 2024-09-17 Live performance has changed poetry more than anything else in the last hundred years it has given poets new audiences and a new economy and it has generated new styles from Imagism to confessional to contemporary Spoken Word But the creative impact that public reading had right through the twentieth century has not been well understood Mixing close listening to archive performances with intimate histories of modernist venues and promoters The Poetry Circuit tells the story of how poets met their audience again and how the feedback loops between their voices the venues and the occasions turned poems into running dramas between poet and listener A nervous T S Eliot reveals himself to be anything but impersonal while Marianne Moore s accident prone readings become subtle ways of keeping her poems in constant re draft Robert Frost used his poems to spar with his fans and rivals while Langston Hughes wrote Ask Your Mama to expose the prejudice circulating in the room as he spoke it The Poetry Circuit also shows how the post war reading boom made new kinds of poetry involving their audience and setting in the performance such as John Ashbery s anti charismatic Poets Theatre Amiri Baraka s documentary soundtracks of the streets or the confessional readings of Allen Ginsberg which shame the listeners more than the poet Covering the first seventy years of the poetry reading The Poetry Circuit demonstrates that there never were page and stage poets the reading simply changed what every modern poet could do

The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry

Behind the Lines Philip Metres, 2007-05 Whether Thersites in Homer s Iliad Wilfred Owen in Dulce et Decorum Est or Allen Ginsberg in Wichita Vortex Sutra poets have long given solitary voice against the brutality of war The hasty cancellation of the 2003 White House symposium Poetry and the American Voice in the face of protests by Sam Hamill and other invited guests against the coming shock and awe campaign in Iraq reminded us that poetry and poets still have the power to challenge the powerful Behind the Lines investigates

American war resistance poetry from the Second World War through the Iraq wars Rather than simply chronicling the genre Philip Metres argues that this poetry gets to the heart of who is authorized to speak about war and how it can be represented As such he explores a largely neglected area of scholarship the poet's relationship to dissenting political movements and the nation In his elegant study Metres examines the ways in which war resistance is registered not only in terms of its content but also at the level of the lyric He proposes that protest poetry constitutes a subgenre that by virtue of its preoccupation with politics history and trauma probes the limits of American lyric poetry Thus war resistance poetry and the role of what Shelley calls unacknowledged legislators is a crucial though largely unexamined body of writing that stands at the center of dissident political movements

An Energy Field More Intense Than War Michael True,1995-11-01 American history abounds with a rich tradition of literature dealing with nonviolence In a work that spans from the seventeenth century to the present Michael True brings to light the strong but long neglected strain in American culture nonviolence as an active response to conflicts and divisiveness In identifying writings about action for social change he distinguishes literary works from peace advocacy and nonviolence and relates them to broad currents of United States history The Quakers of the 1680s and abolitionists of the 1850s the sanctuary Movement and Plowshares of the 1980s novelists from Nathaniel Hawthorne to Norman Mailer and poets from Walt Whitman to Denise Levertov all have written powerful works on nonviolent action Through this literature the author explores the beauty of an important theme in American literature At a time when people face widespread injustice True reminds us that nonviolence holds a significant place in our country's history

The Mystic Way in Postmodernity Sue Yore,2009 This book challenges experiential esoteric and colloquial understandings of mysticism by bringing a fresh relevance to the term through an interdisciplinary dialogue between literature mysticism and theology in the context of postmodernity In order to achieve this the author takes selected writings of Iris Murdoch Denise Levertov and Annie Dillard and incorporates them into various stages of a redesigned mystic way The fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich is invoked throughout as a role model whom these three writers seek to emulate as popular writers contemplatives and theologians As theologians who are concerned with the pressing issues of our age Grace Jantzen Dorothee Soelle and Sallie McFague are drawn on as conversation partners to complete the three way discussion The author maintains that understanding the writing and reading of creative texts in the context of practical mysticism facilitates an integrated approach to the use of literature for theological expression

Un tacito conversare Camilla Binasco,2020-10-16 La complessità delle connessioni fra umano e non umano ha trovato nella tradizione poetica statunitense sviluppi estetici originali per ampiezza e profondità Al contempo volendo articolare nel testo letterario il silenzio della natura e le sue conseguenze l'indagine estetica si sempre più caricata di valenze assiologiche ed epistemologiche in un crescente intrecciarsi di estetica ed etica In queste pagine tre delle maggiori poetesse del Novecento americano aiutano ad illuminare proprio questo spazio di riflessione ancora ampiamente inesplorato dalla critica La lettura di Denise Levertov Mary Oliver e Louise Gl ck rivela una tensione relazionale il cui fulcro immaginativo ed etico qui rintracciato nel dialogo muto ma costitutivo fra io lirico e natura Poesia dopo poesia fiorisce l'impegno poetico a tradurre per il lettore quel tacito conversare che intesse il rapporto fra soggetto umano e mondo naturale e che contiene e mantiene le polarità costitutive di un'interazione in apparenza impossibile silenziosa eppure sensibile differita eppure presente ineffabile eppure reale Questa lirica esalta e potenzia il carattere relazionale e perfino dialogico dell'esperienza L'espressione poetica si configura allora come un tentativo di conversare di costruire insieme all'altro natura e lettore la poesia
