Interrogating the Visual Culture of Trumpism Grant Hamming, Natalie E. Phillips, 2024-08-26 Bringing together scholars from art history visual studies and related disciplines this edited volume asks why Trumpism looks the way it does and what that look means for American and global society Grouped into six categories the essays in this volume tackle some of the most perplexing and urgent aspects of the Trumpist visual project Two of the most striking aspects of that project are its use of novel commodity forms including the iconic red baseball caps as well as its embrace of social media Trump's outlandish persona and striking physicality have lent themselves to caricature both from his critics and perhaps more surprisingly his supporters That physicality as well as his movement's hearkening back to a mostly imagined era of mid twentieth century prosperity has also brought gender and the body into sharp focus Perhaps second only to the aforementioned red hat is Trumpism's vigorous use of interventions into public space including traditional campaign signs as well as flags and other ad hoc visual and architectural materials Finally there were the events of January 6 2021 when many of Trumpism's most outré visual and cultural preoccupations exploded from the shadows onto television screens across the country Taken as a whole the essays in this book examine Trumpist visuality from the seemingly trivial to the starkly horrifying as well as offering a measured sense of the various resistances and responses that have characterized artistic responses to Trump from the beginning of his prominence The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture American studies and cultural and media studies

Site-Specific Art Nick Kaye, 2013-04-15 Site Specific Art charts the development of an experimental art form in an experimental way Nick Kaye traces the fascinating historical antecedents of today's installation and performance art while also assembling a unique documentation of contemporary practice around the world The book is divided into individual analyses of the themes of space materials site and frames These are interspersed by specially commissioned documentary artwork from some of the world's foremost practitioners and artists working today This interweaving of critique and creativity has never been achieved on this scale before Site Specific Art investigates the relationship of architectural theory to an understanding of contemporary site related art and performance and rigorously questions how such works can be documented The artistic processes involved are demonstrated through entirely new primary articles from Meredith Monk Station House Opera Brith Gof Forced Entertainment This volume is an astonishing contribution to debates around experimental cross arts practice A Short Life of Trouble Marcia Tucker, 2008 Aside from meeting some of the most famous artists of our time from Marcel Duchamp to Bob Dylan Tucker's personal story involves a tragic family life and years as a starving artist related poignantly but without pandering Deftly edited by close friend and artist Lou this is an arresting tour of a life devoted to new art with a perfectly charming guide PW Annex Reviews
