Nobleman,2013-04-23 Well I hope you enjoyed the stories all are TRUE that I wanted to share with you in this book I promise to keep tabs on things that occur from this point on so that I can put them into the sequel Like I stated in the Preface anyone can write a book of this kind about the crazy exotic experiences they have experienced or witnessed on subways buses cruises tour buses elevators and the like Its just a matter of putting your experiences to paper or computer files Throughout this book I made references to the fact that many people who also witnessed these occurrences sort of said or did nothing that they just did not want to get involved This was evident in their making believe that they did not see or hear anything that they were just oblivious to the situation that they just didnt want to get involved That is why I have coined the expression pulling a Sergeant Schultz Im confident that Sergeant Schultz played by the late John Banner in the 1960s series Hogans Heroes is the one who made believe he did not see or hear or know anything that was going on that wasnt acceptable His famous words were I see No THING No THING and I know No THING No THING This was evident in the Kitty Genovese murder case as occurred in Kew Gardens Queens New York City on March 13 1964 As described by Wikipedia Kitty Genovese was a young woman murdered by a killer who came back a second time to finish the job and nobodys none of those who heard or witnessed it intervened or called the police This has often been called the By Stander Effect or the Genovese Syndrome basically all those who heard the commotion or witnessed the crime pulled a Sergeant Schultz They saw NO THING No THING they heard No THING No THING they knew No THING No THING they DID No THING No THING One thing that I am hoping for is that the expression that I coined in this book pulling a Sergeant Schultz will become a new expression I think you know what I mean by new expression words and expressions that pop up over time and become part of the English language even unofficially words and expressions like dis right on rock n roll disco hip hop my bad couch potato going green ambulance chaser and many others One thing about these new words and expressions that they all seem to have in common is that nobody seems to know WHERE these words came from nor WHO actually coined them My hope is that pulling a Sergeant Schultz will become another one of those new expressions If that happens we will ALL know who coined it the one and only R J Nobleman and WHERE the phrase was coined SORRY FOR THE INCONVENIENCE GOING YOUR WAY I WANT IT THAT WAY Karen Grey, 2023-05-25 Fake relationship As if I don't need a man to complete me but to get my tubes tied before I turn thirty I do need a husband When the former child TV star turned producing director for the angsty hit drama series currently shooting in my hometown comes to me desperate for a favor the exchange of my services for his seems like a great idea I help him relearn how to drive a car and he acts as my fiancé for a few doctor's visits What could go wrong Bingeing 90's TV shows like Seinfeld and Beverly Hills 90210 have you jonesing for a time when email and cell phones were strange new things and an app was something you ate before the first course Then this slow burn fake relationship entertainment biz romantic comedy is just what the doctor ordered Perfect for fans of Meghan Quinn and Lucy Score seeking all the feels in a sweet and sexy romance Oh No, Not "The Home" Peggy Rowe, 2024-10-15 Peggy Rowe is at it again proving once more that great content is all around us even in the retirement community she now calls The Home In Oh No Not The Home eighty three year old Peggy decides the time has finally come to move into a senior living facility with her husband John who follows his beloved bride grudgingly Once ensconced in The Home however John quickly makes a long list of eclectic friends and takes up bocci ball hatchet throwing pool playing and various other distractions that keep him mostly sane Meanwhile Peggy finds humor in places a normal person would never think to look and laughter around every corner Missing dentures A mouse in the house Nude sunbathing with an unexpected audience Gluttony in the dining hall A chair volleyball game that turns into geriatric target practice It's all here With her usual mix of warmth and irreverence Peggy brings her daily journal to life with an unforgettable mix of observations and confessions written with the honesty of a true observer of the human condition and the urgency of an embedded reporter entrenched in a strange and distant land You'll laugh you'll cry and before long you'll start to think that Peggy and John and their many new friends are just the kind of people you wish you had for neighbors Whatever you think you know about retirement communities think again This is life at The Home And it's not exactly what the marketing brochure promised

The Bardo of Waking Life Richard Grossinger, 2011-05-31 An avant garde set of improvisational essays Richard Grossinger's The Bardo of Waking Life is a meditation on the Tibetan Buddhist bardo realm which in popular culture is viewed as the bridge between lives the state people enter after death and before rebirth This book examines waking life and its history and language as if it were a bardo state rather than ultimate reality and thus seeks a context for life and dreams even as it addresses more mundane issues including genetic theory the war in Iraq and George W Bush's presidency North Korea advertising global warming Prison Industrial Culture childhood trauma even country western music Written with playfulness and precision Bardo takes a new probing approach to all the important questions of creation destruction and existence In these intellectual field notes Grossinger proves thematically fearless as he crosses quantum mechanics with totemic hexes and draws transcendental insight from the ephemeral space time we call daily life If as Tibetan cosmology holds true all conditional realms are bardos then the state we all share is nothing less than the bardo of waking life Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. as a man thinks so is he There is a cultural identity crisis in many that frequent the criminal justice system and amid the various efforts to correct and change behavior address therapeutic measures and ensure that the criminal justice system yields evidence based practices and strength based treatment modalities The system sadly lacks the cultural competence that would change The New Jim Crow and the face of crime in America As much as activism and advocacy have rightfully focused on the racist aspects of a criminal justice system that has improperly and historically overloaded the system the movement must be more thorough after generations of minorities were incarcerated and overwhelmed by the collateral consequences of imprisonment There must be a more in depth focus on keeping minorities out of the system breaking a historical trauma that has grown over centuries The system must incorporate ethnocentric treatment components focused on changing identity paradigms What would that mean and why is this important
