Dependency Or Interdependency In Old Age:

The Many Faces of Dependency in Old Age Margret M. Baltes, 1996-07-28 Margret Baltes provides insights into the social foundation of dependency with a blend of theoretical and empirical argument Dependency or Interdependency in Old Age J.M.A. Munnichs, J.A. van den Heuvel, 2012-12-06 Although this monograph Dependency or interdependency in old age is not the first publication of the European Social Sciences Research Committee ESSRC of the International Association of Gerontology I am happy as former chairman of the Committee 1964-1975 to introduce this book to the readers together with the present chairman So far the activities of the Committee have consisted of co-operating in organizing the scientific programme of the tri-annual congresses of the International Association of Gerontology IAG and in organizing smaller or bigger symposia and colloquia for social gerontologists Sometimes these meetings were mainly organized for European researchers only sometimes several concurrent colloquia took place in which Americans and other non-Europeans participated The Committee the oldest of the IAG was established at a scientific meeting in 1954 at Sheffield U.K. After that year colloquia were held in 1956 near Copenhagen 1 Denmark in 1957 at Merano 2 Italy in 1959 at Assisi Italy in 1960 at Berkeley Cal Dependency and Interdependency in Old Age Chris Phillipson, Miriam Bernard, Patricia Strang, 2024-05-10 Originally published in 1986 Dependency and Interdependency in Old Age presents papers from the British Society of Gerontology annual conference in 1985 The areas covered include the sociology of ageing methodological issues evaluations of service provision ethnographies of growing old historical studies and political perspectives on ageing A creative dialogue between the proponents of these themes was urgently needed at the time and it was hoped that this volume would stimulate such a discussion Reciprocity and Dependency in Old Age Sue Thompson, 2013-04-18 This book highlights 1 the significance of reciprocity for the maintenance of self-esteem in old age and 2 the negative implications for the well-being of dependent older people when that significance goes unrecognized and as a consequence opportunities to give back to society as well as take from it are not facilitated by those in a position to do so The discussion draws on research undertaken in the UK and Southern India into the extent to which having the self-perception of being valued in the world is important to older people in receipt of care support and whether in their experience this is recognized by others The author presents an analysis of theoretical insights from leading thinkers across a broad range of literature and from several disciplines including social theory social work philosophy and gerontology The author also gives voice to the perspectives of those dependent older people not often heard because of marginalizing and disempowering processes that contribute to their having little opportunity to be heard in the first place The emphasis of this book is on aspiration to a meaningful life and continuing personal growth as offering a challenge to dominant discourses that equate old age with decline Dependence and Autonomy in Old Age George Agich, 2003-08-07 Respecting the autonomy of disabled people is an important ethical issue for providers of long-term care In this influential book George Agich abandons comfortable abstractions to reveal the concrete threats to personal autonomy in this setting where ethical conflict dilemma and tragedy are inescapable He argues that liberal accounts of autonomy and individual rights are insufficient and offers an account of autonomy that matches the realities of long term care The book therefore offers a framework for carers to develop an ethic of long term care within the complex environment in which many dependent and aged people find themselves Previously published as Autonomy and Long term Care this revised edition in paperback for the first time takes account of recent work and develops the author's views of what autonomy means in the real world It will have wide appeal among bioethicists and health care professionals

Gerontology and the Construction of Old Age Bryan Green, 2017-09-08 Although attitudes toward the aged and their care are inherent in any society gerontology itself is a relatively recent field of study and practice Gerontology and the Construction of Old Age applies the methods of discourse analysis and textual analysis to texts and documents in this newly evolved and eclectic field Green explores and identifies the literary methods and discursive regularities through which aging and the aged have been made into objects of study and treatment and which together form a mode of knowledge production that will influence future texts in the field Because such formats of representation limit rational diagnoses of problems and rational courses of ameliorative action policy implications in the field of gerontology are a major interest of this study Another interest is methodological Within the broader constructionist approach to social reality Green takes the position of constitutive realism the notion that social reality is linguistically constructed primarily in speech and writing The book's two aims are to describe analytically the field of gerontology The field is important both for its growing academic presence and for its practical effects on discourse and policy concerning old age It also hopes to help develop possibilities of inquiry associated with the linguistic literary and rhetorical turns of social science in recent years Gerontology and the Construction of Old Age is a substantive investigation at considerable theoretical depth of gerontology itself as well as a methodological treatise with broader implications for social science as it focuses upon the discourse of various professional fields

Personhood, Identity and Care in Advanced Old Age Higgs, Paul, Gilleard, Chris, 2016-10-05 As humans live longer the elderly population increases and the challenges we face in addressing their needs continue to evolve This book explores the theoretical and practical issues raised by advanced aging in the contemporary world Developing new sociological theory Paul Higgs and Chris Gilleard suggest that mental and physical frailty forms a central theme in narratives about deep old age and that discussions of personhood are needed to address this concept After examining key terms like personhood the fourth age frailty and abjection Higgs and Gilleard consider the broader implications of these concepts for issues of care both its meanings and its management As the care needs of the elderly and options for meeting these needs grow more complex it is important to examine our collective hopes and fears concerning the end of life including questions about personhood and expectations for the quality and content of end of life care Neoliberalising Old Age John Macnicol, 2015-10-08 This book examines the effect of neoliberalism on the recent ageing and social policy agenda in the UK and the USA Old Age Abuse

Mervyn Eastman, Age Concern England (Organization), 2013-11-11 Age Concern always seeks to be at the forefront in raising issues of importance as part of our continuing fight to improve the quality of life of older people To this end we are privileged in being able to draw on the skills of people with the commitment expertise and enthusiasm to press for much needed change When some years ago we published a book by Mervyn Eastman on old age abuse the subject was largely unrecognized He played a pioneering role in drawing attention to this difficult and sensitive topic classifying the various types of abuse analysing their causes their tragic effects and the different contexts in which they were likely to occur Earlier when I joined Age Concern I had been struck by the paucity of knowledge of old age abuse My previous work with children and young people provided me with stark reminders of how much more developed both policy and practice were in dealing with the abuse of children Even in that field there was still much to learn and subsequent legislation policy guidelines and codes of practice have taken us further down the road by constructing clear lines of accountability and by protecting and representing children at risk by helping potential abusers and developing practice that avoids punishing victims through removing them from their homes

Adopting the Tune of Appearance: An Mental Symphony within Dependency Or Interdependency In Old Age

In some sort of consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant interaction, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony created by the published term usually disappear in to the background, eclipsed by the persistent sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Dependency Or Interdependency In Old Age a marvelous literary value filled with natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful musician of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on an emotional trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound influence resonating within each carefully constructed phrase.
