Der Blaue Reiter Poster:

Expressionism and Poster Design in Germany 1905-1922 Kathleen G. Chapman, 2019-01-21 In Expressionism and Poster Design in Germany 1905 1925 Kathleen Chapman re defines Expressionism by situating it in relation to the most common type of picture in public space during the Wilhelmine twentieth century the commercial poster Focusing equally on visual material and contemporaneous debates surrounding art posters and the image in general this study reveals that conceptions of a modern image were characterized not so much by style or mode of production and distribution but by a visual rhetoric designed to communicate more directly than words As instances of such rhetoric Expressionist art and posters emerge as equally significant examples of this modern image demonstrating the interconnectedness of the aesthetic the utilitarian and the commercial in European modernism

Letter Perfect David Ryan, 2001 Letter Perfect explores the artistic facet of the style arrangement appearance and recent accelerated evolution of typeset matter primarily through the medium of posters

German Expressionist Painting Peter Selz, 2023-04-28 Published in 1957 German Expressionist Painting was the first comprehensive study of one of the most pivotal movements in the art of this century When it was written however German Expressionism seemed like an eccentric manifestation far removed from what was then considered the mainstream of modern art But as historians well know each generation alters the concept of mainstream to encompass those aspects of the past which seem most relevant to the present The impact of German Expressionism on the art and thought of later generations could never have been anticipated at the time of the original writing of this book During the subsequent years an enormous body of scholarly research and an even larger number of popular books on German expressionist art has been printed Numerous monographs and detailed studies on most of the artists exist now and countless exhibitions with accompanying catalogues have taken place Much of this new research could have been incorporated in a revised edition and the bibliography certainly could have been greatly expanded to include the important writings which have been published in Germany the United States and elsewhere since this book was originally issued The author however was faced with the choice of reprinting the original text with only the most necessary alterations such as updating the captions to indicate present locations of the paintings or the preparation of a revised text and bibliography Desirable as a revision appeared present printing costs would have priced the paperback out of reach for students It is for this reason that I decided to reissue the original text which stands on its own as a primary investigation of German Expressionist Painting

German Expressionist Painting, 1957 Collaborative Form Thomas Jensen Hines, 1991 Collaborative Form attempts to show the nature and limits of works of art that are made up of two or more artistic forms The first task of this book is to analyze and interpret a set of such combinations Each chapter treats one collaborative work and attempts to show that the principles of collaboration are the same whether the components are poetry and graphic works as in Lettera Amorosa by Rene Char and George Braque poetry and music as in Herzgewachse by Maurice Maeterlinck and Arnold Schoenberg or more complex sets that include painting music dance lighting and drama as in Der gelbe Klang by Wassily Kandinsky Morder Hoffnung der frauen by Oskar Kokoschka and Triad by Alwin Nikolais Hines breaks down disciplinary barriers and then emphasizes the effects of the interactions between the arts The first step in methodology is that of refusing to make a priori commitments to the critical methodologies of the arts involved Each art is treated from its own perspective and each interpretation attends to interactions of the arts rather than to the contribution of any one art Once the collaborative works are examined the book shows that such works are similar to other art forms They obey the laws of temporal necessity non addition multiple interpretation and unity that any poem painting or musical composition might be said to obey Unlike other arts though collaborative forms are unique examples of the combinative effects of the arts In the process of interpreting individual works and attempting to summarize this form we are forced to see beyond the conventions of the constituent arts

Malevich Gerry Souter, 2023-12-28 Pioneer of geometric abstract art and one of the most important members of the Russian Avant garde Malevitch experimented with various modernist styles In reaction to the influence of Cubism and Futurism on artists in Russia Malevitch in his art reduced the world of nature to basic elements and colours such as in his Red Square 1915 He introduced his abstract non objective geometric patterns in a style and artistic movement he called Suprematism One of the important names of the twentieth century he however turned back to Primitivism once Russia's communist leaders forced him to do so DADA, Surrealism, and the Cinematic Effect R. Bruce Elder, 2015-10-15 This book deals with the early intellectual reception of the cinema and the manner in which art theorists philosophers cultural theorists and especially artists of the first decades of the twentieth century responded to its advent While the idea persists that early writers on film were troubled by the cinema's lowly form this work proposes that there was another largely unrecognized strain in the reception of it Far from anxious about film's provenance in popular entertainment some writers and artists proclaimed that the cinema was the most important art for the moderns as it exemplified the vibrancy of contemporary life This view of the cinema was especially common among those whose commitments were to advanced artistic practices Their notions about how to recast the art media or the forms forged from those media's materials and the urgency of doing so formed the principal part of the conceptual core of the artistic programs advanced by the vanguard art movements of the first half of the twentieth century This book a companion to the author's previous Harmony Dissent examines the Dada and Surrealist movements as responses to the advent of the cinema Re-framing the Transnational Turn in American Studies

Winfried Fluck, Donald E. Pease, John Carlos Rowe, 2011 What is the state of American studies in the twenty first century Expressionism Ashley Bassie, 2023-12-28 Max Beckmann Otto Dix George Grosz Emil Nolde E L Kirchner Paul Klee Franz Marc as well as the Austrians Oskar Kokoschka and Egon Schiele were among the generation of highly individual artists who contributed to the vivid and often controversial new movement in early twentieth century Germany and Austria Expressionism This publication introduces these artists and their work The author art historian Ashley Bassie explains how Expressionist art led the way to a new intense evocative treatment of psychological emotional and social themes in the early twentieth century The book examines the developments of Expressionism and its key works highlighting the often intensely subjective imagery and the aspirations and conflicts from which it emerged while focusing precisely on the artists of the movement Berlin Metropolis Emily D. Bilski, Jewish Museum (New York, N.Y.), 1999 Berlin Metropolis Jews and the New Culture 1890 1918 vividly documents the diverse ways that Jewish artists intellectuals and cultural impresarios participated in this burst of creativity and promoted the emergence of modernism in Berlin and on the international scene BOOK JACKET

Women Artists in Expressionism Shulamith Behr, 2022-11-15 A beautifully illustrated examination of the women artists whose inspired search for artistic integrity and equality influenced Expressionist avant garde culture Women Artists in Expressionism explores how women negotiated the competitive world of modern art during the late Wilhelmine and early Weimar periods in Germany Their stories challenge predominantly male oriented narratives of Expressionism and shed light on the divergent artistic responses of women to the dramatic events of the early twentieth century Shulamith Behr shows how the posthumous critical reception of Paula Modersohn Becker cast her as a prime agent of the feminization of the movement and how K the Kollwitz used printmaking as a vehicle for technical innovation and sociopolitical commentary She looks at the dynamic relationship between Marianne Werefkin and Gabriele M nter whose different paths in life led them to the Blaue Reiter a group of Expressionist artists that included Wassily Kandinsky and Paul Klee Behr examines Nell Walden's role as an influential art dealer collector and artist who promoted women Expressionists during the First World War and discusses how Dutch artist Jacoba van Heemskerck's spiritual abstraction earned her the status of an honorary German Expressionist She demonstrates how figures such as Rosa Schapire and Johanna Ey contributed to the development of the movement as spectators critics and collectors of male avant gardism Richly illustrated Women Artists in Expressionism is a women centered history that reveals the importance of emancipative ideals to the shaping of modernity and the avant garde

Utopian Reality Christina Lodder, Maria Kokkori, Maria Mileeva, 2013-10-24 This collection of essays deals broadly with the visual and cultural manifestation of utopian aspirations in Russia of the 1920s and 1930s while examining the before and after life of such ideas both geographically and chronologically The studies document the pluralism of Russian and Soviet culture at this time as well as illuminating various cultural strategies adopted by officialdom The result serves to complicate the excessively simplistic narrative that avant garde dreams were suddenly and brutally crushed by Soviet repression and to contest the notion of the avant garde s complicity in Stalinism Naturally some essays document episodes in the defeat and dismantling of utopian projects but others trace the persistence of avant garde ideas and the astonishing tenacity of creative individuals who managed to retain their personal integrity while continuing to serve the cause of Soviet power Contributors include John E Bowlt Natalia Budanova David Crowley Evgeny Dobrenko Maria Kokkori Christina Lodder Muireann Maguire Nicholas Bueno de Mesquita Maria Mileeva John Milner Nicoletta Misler Maria Starkova Vindman Brandon Taylor and Maria Tsantsanoglou
