Christentum Daniel Schumann aims to trace the earliest discourses on vows as they are recorded in ancient Jewish and early Christian sources from the time of the Second Temple He also shows how Judaism and Christianity have participated in ancient forms of vow making since late antiquity and how they also have developed these discourses further By presenting these discourses on the basis of a broad range of sources he reveals how in Jewish as well as in Christian perception voices of esteem but also of reservation have been raised throughout the centuries After all vows are a cult practical exercise in which well being and disaster are in closer proximity than in most other acts of devotion Germania ,1896 Der Eid L.
