Medieval German Voices in the 21st Century ,2021-11-08 As witnessed by a tremendous upsurge in medieval research academic meetings innovative interpretive approaches enrolment numbers and public interest Medieval Studies are proving once again to be a vibrant field of investigations both inside and outside of academia Nevertheless there is a tendency among colleagues and administrators in the field of Germanistik German Studies to exclude the earlier period as an exotic and irrelevant subject matter The contributors to this volume all of whom teach at North American universities make a strong case for the paradigmatic function of medieval German literature for the general field of Germanistik and argue that many of the most recent changes in our discipline related to the German Studies paradigm have been foreshadowed by Medieval Studies where interdisciplinarity comparative approaches the consideration of Mentalitätsgeschichte theology history art history even gender studies and the history of everyday life have often constituted the conditio sine qua non Some of the authors in this volume argue for the relevance of medieval German literature by investigating concrete cases taken from the Middle Ages others show how modern German literature has been deeply influenced by medieval texts The purpose of this volume is not to privilege medieval literature over modern literature but instead to reclaim the premodern period as an important and relevant field of investigation within contemporary German Studies

Disabilities and the Disabled in the Roman World Christian Laes,2018-04-12 Explores in detail an important section of the population of the Roman world which has too often been neglected

The Quest for Redemption Rares G. Piloiu,2018-09-15 The Quest for Redemption Central European Jewish Thought in Joseph Roth's Works by Rares Piloiu fills an important gap in Roth scholarship placing Roth's major works of fiction for the first time in the context of a generational interest in religious redemption among the Jewish intellectuals of Central Europe In it Piloiu argues that Roth's challenging often contradictory and ambivalent literary output is the result of an attempt to recast moral political and historical realities of an empirically observable world in a new religiously transfigured reality through the medium of literature This diegetic recasting of phenomenological encounters with the real is an expression of Roth's belief that since the self and the world are in a continuing state of crisis issuing from their separation in modernity a restoration of their unity is necessary to redeem the historical existence of individuals and communities alike Piloiu notes however that Roth's enterprise in this is not unique to his work but rather is shared by an entire generation of Central European Jewish intellectuals This generation disillusioned by modernity's excessive secularism rationalism and nationalism sought a radical solution in the revival of mystical religious traditions above all in the Judaic idea of messianic redemption Their use of the Chasidic notion of redemption was highly original in that it stripped the notion of its original theological meaning and applied it to the secular experience of reality As a result Roth's quest for redemption is a quest for a salvation of the individual not outside but within history

Goethe in English Derek Glass,Martin H. Jones,2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethe's birth. It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year. It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world. The work records publications during the century not merely translations that originated during this period. It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century. It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions. Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004. Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association both as a worthy commemoration of Goethe's anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself.

Verzeichnis der im deutschen Buchhandel neu erschienenen und neu aufgelegten Bücher, Landkarten, Zeitschriften &c, 1897 Alfred Döblin Steffan Davies, Ernest Schonfield, 2009-10-28 Döblin's texts which range widely across contemporary discourses are paradigms of the encounter between literary and scientific modernity. With their use of Tatsachenphantasie they explode conventional language seeking a new connection with the world of objects and things. This volume reassesses and reevaluates the uniquely interdisciplinary quality of Döblin's interdiscursive factually inspired poetics by offering challenging new perspectives on key works. The volume analyses not only some of Döblin's best known novels and stories but also neglected works including his early medical essays political journalism and autobiographical texts. Other topics addressed are Döblin's engagement with German history his relation to medical discourse his topography of Berlin his aestheticisation of his own biography and his relation to other major writers such as Heine Benn Brecht and Sebald. With contributions in English and in German by scholars from Germany and the United Kingdom the volume presents insights into Döblin that are of value to advanced researchers and to students alike.

Jacket Gassen und Landschaften Gerald Sommer, 2004 'Diese merkwürdige Kleinigkeit einer Vision' David Clarke, 2021-11-15 Christoph Hein is one of the best known authors of the former GDR and his works of fiction have been widely interpreted as responses to and critiques of socialist society In this study David Clarke undertakes a detailed analysis of all of Christoph Hein s major works of fiction from Der fremde Freund 1928 to Willenbrock 2000 in order to explore Hein s critique of the GDR regime whilst also demonstrating how aspects of that critique provided a starting point for Hein s rejection of capitalism both before and after German unification For Hein socialism had failed to make good its promise to create a community bound together by common values and goals preferring instead to impose conformity upon its citizens Capitalism he believed was equally unable to meet the need for community and Hein sought to demonstrate the consequences of this state of affairs in the figure of W rle in his first post unification novel Das Napoleon Spiel 1993 After this point Clarke argues Hein was nevertheless forced to re examine his criticism of capitalism a process which ultimately led to the more differentiated and convincing portrayal to be found in Willenbrock
