Erlösung Claus-Dieter Osthövener,2004 English summary Using the concept of redemption as an example Claus Dieter Osthovener examines the reception and the transformation of themes which were originally of a religious nature in non theological contexts The Protestant concept of redemption was first described by Martin Luther and was given a modern reformulation by Friedrich Schleiermacher After dealing with this subject the author compares three thinkers from the 19th century Arthur Schopenhauer Richard Wagner and Friedrich Nietzsche and reflects systematically and from the perspective of the history of the problem upon the ways in which they transformed the concept of redemption At the same time he compares their theories to the way the concept of redemption is dealt with in theology German description Claus Dieter Osthovener untersucht am Beispiel des Gedankens der Erlösung die Rezeption und die Umformung ursprünglich religiöser Themen in aussertheologischen Kontexten In einem ersten Schritt wird der protestantische Begriff der Erlösung an seinem Ursprung bei Martin Luther und in seiner modernen Reformulierung bei Friedrich Schleiermacher skizziert In einem zweiten Schritt werden drei einschlagige Denker des 19 Jahrhunderts herangezogen Arthur Schopenhauer Richard Wagner und Friedrich Nietzsche Schopenhauer weist in seiner Philosophie dem Erlösungsgedanken eine systematisch zentrale und lebenspraktisch reflektierte Stellung zu Wagner greift auf die Idee der Erlösung in gesellschaftstheoretischer ästhetischer und musikdramatischer Hinsicht zurück und lotet in seinen Musikdramen ihren inneren Beziehungsreichtum aus In Nietzsches Werk kann der Erlösungsbegriff als Leitfaden zur Erkundung der religionstheoretisch konstruktiven Züge dienen die mit den religionskritischen Intentionen eine oft spannungsreiche Verbindung eingehen Im Spätwerk erreicht diese Binnenspannung einen von Nietzsche nicht mehr aufgelösten Höhepunkt Diese Transformationen werden problemgeschichtlich und systematisch reflektiert und zugleich in ein kritisches Verhältnis zur theologischen Behandlung des Erlösungsgedankens gesetzt
